MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 111.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $1 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

INSTABILITY OF MAN'S SYMPATHY.—During the past two days, the Circuit Court of the United States has been occupied with the trial of Joseph Mingo—a St. Domingo negro—on a charge of murdering William Johnson on board the ship Joha Dunlap. The Court is held in the room which was last week occupied by Judge Loring, in the hearing of the Burns case; and although the present issue involves life or death, the fate of the unfortunate prisoner has awakened little or no attention. The Court, with that humanity which is the beautiful characteristic of the law, assigned able counsellors to defend the prisoner, but there have been no visits of "friends"—no proffers to minister to his spiritual condition. Of all the robed interpreters of divine law, who last week cried aloud and still sigh for Burns, not one has volunteered to illumine this poor blank mind—not one to urge upon the prisoner the reality of his position. There he sits—none to befriend or advise him but the officers of justice—and there he will continue to sit neglected and alone. The colored person, Grimes, was in the Court room for a moment yesterday, but his business did not relate to Mingo, and he scarcely turned his eyes in the direction of the culprit. Such is the transitory character of professional philanthropy, and such it has ever been. It is well for Mingo and the afflicted and oppressed of his race, that he and they have A FRIEND whose sympathy is neither emotional, transitory or counterfeit, but, though invisible, is real, comforting and sanctifying.—Boston Courier.

So far as the above is sympathetic with the poor criminal at the bar, it is beautiful. But the complaint that the "robed interpreters of the divine law" do not take so much interest in Mingo as they did in Burns, will, if examined, resolve itself simply into the statement that they do not object to the imprisonment of a criminal, or to his punishment; but that they do object to the imprisonment of a man charged with no crime. It is probable that the notice above copied, will draw some clerical visitor to the cell of Mingo: and if he should be a kind, judicious man, it will be well: but if not, Mingo's "invisible" friend is far better than the visible.

DANGEROUS NAVIGATION.—A short time since, a few adventurous gentlemen, known as "hards," undertook a trip up salt river in a small skiff. They had not proceeded far before a flaw of wind capsized the boat, and at the last accounts the poor "hards" were rapidly becoming exhausted, with a prospect of their all being drowned, though from the lightness of the material they floated better than might have been expected. About the same time, a party of "sofis" also took it into their heads to proceed upon a voyage in that direction, probably in search of the whig party. Their boat did not upset, but the crew landed in despair, and tying their handkerchiefs to their necks, hung themselves on a vegetable production hard by, called a Nebraska bush. It is evident if these gentlemen had staid at home, they would have avoided these accidents; and if any other them should by chance be rescued, it is very likely they will remain at home for the balance of their lives. —N. Y. Herald.

MINIATURE OAKS.—If an acorn be suspended by a piece of cord, within half an inch of the surface of some water contained in a glass, and permitted to remain without disturbance for a few months, it will burst, send a root into the water, and shoot upward a straight, tapering stem, with beautful little green leaves. In this way a young tree may be produced on the mantle-shelf of a room, and become an interesting object. The chestnut will also grow thus, and probably other nut-bearing trees.—Ohio Journal.

The Emperor of Austria is popularity hunting. On his marriage the other day with a pretty girl of sixteen, he gave full pardon to 242, and partial amnesty to 111 other political prisoners. He has quashed all criminal suits for treason; he has declared the state of seige in Lombardy and the Venetian territory to be ended on May 1st; he has given 200,000 florins to the poor; and has promised to take his wife as Queen of Hungary to visit the Magyars.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS.—A Women's Rights Convention was held in Boston last week.—The proceedings were highly interesting, and attracted large audiences. The advocates of the rights of women were well represented by Miss Lucy Stone and Mrs. Coe. The former is an eloquent speaker, and secured the closest attention of her audiences; and the cuteness of the latter, who is studying law, will give some of the male practitioners occasion to sharpen their wits when she enters the courts of justice.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1854.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

CONCORD, June 7, 1854.

Messrs. Editors:—As you are informed by the Legislative Daily, the General Court was fully organized on Wednesday, without trouble. The vote was rather surprising to all parties, neither of them throwing so many votes as they expected. The Democratic party can claim only four majority in the House, and it will require that they act with the most perfect harmony, or their measures will fail. In the Senate they are strong enough to do anything they may desire.

The inauguration of Gov. Baker, on Thursday, was to be a grand affair, but the rain sadly dimmed the lustre of the display. The rain fell steadily from morning till night, but still the military turned out in full ranks.—The procession was escorted by the Granite Guards, Capt. Gove, of Concord, and their guests, the Stark Guards of Manchester. Following the military came the engine companies in uniform; then, a in carriage, drawn by four horses, were the Mayor of Concord, Ex-Gov. Martin, Gov. Baker, and Jos. Robinson; then came the City Government of Concord in carriages. Had it not been for the inclemency of the weather, the procession would undoubtedly have been very large. As it was, the probability is the people of New Hampshire were more gratified by the liberal shower of rain, than they would have been by the show in the streets of Concord. The message of Gov. Baker is a brief practical document, and in the main gives good satisfaction. His remarks on the national administration are favorable, but so brief and and cautious as to be probably not very satisfactory to the ultras. Mr. Baker is not the man to talk gammon, and would praise nothing he did not like.

Speaking of Mr. Baker—had it been pleasant on Thursday, it was the intention of some young men, not having the fear of a live Governor before their eyes, to perpetrate a good joke for the amusement of the multitude. It was proposed to have a large tub of water placed by the side of the road. A boy was to be placed near with a fish-pole in his hands, and when the Governor came by in his carriage, the urchin was to draw out a beautiful trout. Had it been done, Mr. Baker would without doubt stopped his carriage, got out and given the boy a dollar for his impudence.

It was determined in the Democratic caucusses, to move that the election of U. S. Senators take place on Friday, and also to move that a special committee be appointed to draft resolutions upon the Nebraska question, slavery, &c., but the Whigs were too quick for them. As soon as the delivery of the message was concluded, and the Senate had withdrawn from the Convention, Mr. Flanders of Manchester presented a series of resolutions, approving the vote of Kittredge and Morrison on the Nebraska bill, &c. One of the resolutions was almost in the exact words of those of 1848, which were advocated by Harry Hibbard. Mr. F. moved that they be made the special order for Friday. The leaders of the administration were so taken by surprise at the movement, that before they recovered, the motion had been adopted. This ruse brings up a debate on the slavery questio before the election of Senators, which was what the Democrats did not desire.

Messrs. Wells of Exeter, and Harry Hibbard will probably be the candidates for Senators, and will undoubtedly be elected, as their party papers are already warning the faithful of the dangers of disputes, which may weaken the strength of the party. The election will probably take place on Friday next.

The only matter in which the party will be divided is in the election of State Printer. Mr. Burke, in the Old Guard, has been untiring in his opposition, and in some minds has created a feeling against the re-election of Mr. Butterfield. As the printer is elected by joint ballot, and as the Democrats have a joint majority of twelve, it is a matter of doubt yet what will be the result. One thing is certain, no one in Concord can do the work better or more promptly than Mr. Butterfield, and our hope is that he will be re-elected. †

Resolved, That the State of New Hampshire re-affirm the principles promulgated by her House of Representatives in 1850: "the people are bound by no compact expressed or implied, to suffer the introduction of slavery into territory now free, and that they are unalterably opposed to the erection of any territory without its prohibition by positive law."

Resolved, That the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was in violation of those principles—was unnecessary, impolitic—a breach of faith with the north, dangerous and wrong.

Resolved, That the course of Geo. W. Morrison and Geo. W. Kittredge, a portion of our delegation in Congress, in resisting such repeal, receives the hearty and united approval of the people of New Hampshire.

Resolved, That the course of Harry Hibbard, Moses Norris and Jared W. Williams, the other members of our delegation, in voting for such repeal, was in opposition to the wishes of the people of the State—treacherous to freedom and the great cause of equality and human rights, and meets our decided reprobation.

MILITARY LAW.—The Boston Advertiser contains a long and apparently conclusive article on the powers of a Mayor to call out militia in Massachusetts. The article is signed P. W. C., which means, we suppose, Peleg W. Chandler, a lawyer of high repute. He shows that Mayor Smith's ordering out the militia and committing the keeping of order to a military officer, was without law and against law. He shows that when the civil posse are found insufficient, the Mayor or two justices of the peace, or other magistrates, may order out the militia and they must come,—but the magistrates themselves must be on the spot and give the word of command to the military officers. He cites the case of the great Broad-street riot, in which the Mayor and Aldermen of Boston marched in the front rank of the military, and kept there till quiet was resiored: and also of the Mayor of Charlestown, in a recent case, who took command in his official capacity.

MAINE.—A Mass Convention of Morrill (Temperance) Democrats, was held in Portland on Wednesday, which is said by the Advertiser to be the best looking democratic convention it had ever seen.

Anson Morrill was nominated for Governor; and the convention passed resolutions approving the Maine liquor law, condemning the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and advocating the repeal of the fugitive slave act. Mr. Morrill accepted the nomination, and adopted the platform.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS.—The New Bedford Standard reminds the friends of President Fillmore, that he approved the fugitive bill, and that the merchants of Boston voluntarily aided in the rendition of Thomas Sims. These things were done in the green tree.—Behold now, what beautiful things are done in the dry.

MINGO, a negro, on trial in Boston before the U. S. Circuit Court, for murder on shipboard, has been pronounced not guilty by the jury, and discharged by the Court.

THE TRUMPET.—This is a well-known Universalist paper, edited now and for many years by Rev. Thomas Whittemore. The paper for this week contains some interesting statements in relation to the great events of last week in Boston, not found elsewhere; and also a speech from the editor in Faneuil Hall, against the fugitive law. We have no room for either of them; but commend both to the attention of all who can buy or borrow the paper, and who wish to read the unbiased views of a firm friend of order, who is careful in his statements and conservative in his opinions. He says, as he closes:

It is impossible for men who live in slave States, to realize what a painful week has been the last week to the citizens of Boston. More has been done during that time to unsettle the people in their love of the country, and of the constitution and the laws, than could have been done in a year by ten thousand such men as Wm. L. Carrison.

The London Quarterterly Review, for April, is just received from the publishers, Leonard Scott & Co., 79 Fulton street, New York. It contains eight articles, viz.:

Sterne; Sacred Geography; Lord Holland's Memoirs of the Whig Party; The Russian Empire; Criminal Law Digest; Treasures of Art in Great Britain; The Turks and the Greeks; The New Reform Bill.

Terms—For one Review, $3 a year; for Two, $5; for Three, $7; for the Four, $8;—Blackwood's Magazine, $3; Blackwood and the Four Reviews, $10.

The Phrenological Journal for June, contains as usual, some portraits and sketches. Rev. E. H. Chapin and Lindley Murray appear in this number.

We learn that much excitement exists in Lawrence, from the interference of some Catholic Irishmen with a girl, 13 years old, also Irish, who was residing in a highly respectable family of that city, and attending one of the public schools. Wednesday morning, after the girl had entered the school, the Irishmen forcibly took her from the house, for which offence they were arrested and an examination immediately had, the result of which we have not learned. We trust they will receive such a verdict as will teach men of all nations and religions, that the education of Massachusetts is not to be tampered with by people of any name or order.—Newburyport Herald.

MUTINY AT SEA.—A mutiny occurred in the British Channel, as we learn from the London Despatch of May 28, on board ship Africa, of Brunswick, Me., bound from Newport (Wales,) to New Orleans, with emigrants, during which Mr. Davis, the mate, shot one of the seamen dead, after some blows had passed between them. The vessel was detained and arrests were made.

The Episcopal Church in Melbourne, Australia, have decided to import an iron edifice from England.

LOCAL.

LECTURE, SUNDAY EVENING.

Mr. Gloncester, a gentleman of color, will deliver a Free Lecture on Slavery, at the Temple to-morrow evening, commencing at half-past 7. A collection for defraying expenses will be taken.

A PETTY THIEF.—A fellow, calling himself Francis Cacyes, has been about this city a day or two, and into people's houses without invitation. Officer Adams arrested him yesterday, on a charge of larceny from the house of Mr. Edward Rand. Cacyes is a tall, dark looking fellow, apparently a Spaniard, lazy and dirty. He had a pair of false whiskers; and appears like a poor low rogue, without talent to rise much higher.

PENS AND INK.—We have received from Jas. F. Shores, jr., a bottle of Stark's superior black Writing Ink—which is really an excellent article; and a dozen each of fifteen patterns of Metallic Pens—some of which we know from trial to be first-rate, and all which must be good, or Mr. Shores would not have them for sale, and certainly would not send them to the printers. We find no difficulty in suiting ourselves from the assortment, and therefore infer that Mr. Shores can satisfy all customers in this line, at No. 1 Congress Blk.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of the Portsmouth Young Men's Christian Association, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:—Charles W. Martin, President; Henry G. Tanton, Thomas S. Nowell, Vice Presidents; Horace A. Martin, Treasurer; William Seavey, Rec. Secretary; Lewis W. Brewster, Cor. Secretary; E. Washington Brown, Librarian; Daniel H. Spinney, Assistant Librarian; David S. Webster, John T. Leverton, John H. Lowd, Horace A. Webster, George Ham, Moses Wherrin, Directors.

SCIENTIFIC SURVEY.—Mayor Walker in his annual message, made an excellent recommendation, viz., to have a good survey of our streets, by competent engineers, for purposes of grading, drainage and paving. We hope it may be speedily acted on, and set in motion.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

The Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in New Hampshire, commenced its annual session in the city of Manchester, on Wednesday, May 31st. On the previous evening services were held in St. Michael's Church, on which occasion Rev. Dr. Burroughs of Portsmouth read prayers, assisted by Rev. I. G. Hubbard; and the Rev. Dr. Bourns, President of Norwich University, preached the sermon.

The Convention was organized at nine o'clock on Wednesday morning, and the Rev. Dr. Bourns preached the Convention sermon from 1st Timothy, 4: 16—"Take heed unto thyself and unto the doctrine." The communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Burroughs. In the afternoon the Bishop read his address to the Convention.

The following elections were made:—For preacher of the next convention sermon, Rev. I G Hubbard of Manchester; preacher of the missionary sermon, Rev T G Salter of Dover; delegates to the general convention, Rev Chas Burroughs, DD, Rev Edward Bourns, LL D, Rev Newton E Marble, Rev Thomas G Salter, Joshua W Pierce, Esq, John Whipple, Esq, Hon Nath'l B Baker, Mr Simeon Ide. Standing Committee—Rev Chas Burroughs, DD, Rev I G Hubbard, Hon Chas W Woodman, Geo Jaffrey, Esq.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in New Hampshire, held on Tuesday evening, the vacancies were filled by the election of Hon N B Baker of Concord, and Rev I G Hubbard of Manchester. Rev Newton E Marble was chosen Secretary of the Board.

The Convention adjourned to meet next year in St Paul's church at Concord.

CONCORD, June 9.—N. H. LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature has adjourned over to Monday, previously postponing the election of U. S. Senator until Friday next.

ANNIVERSARY WEEK.—Last week was a week of an extraordinary character—taken altogether it was the most remarkable week Bostonians ever saw. It was the week of the religious anniversaries, when almost the entire body of the clergymen of New England of all sects were in Boston. They will carry home with them, and infuse into the hearts of their parishoners, the feeling which pervaded our city. It is estimated there were two thousand clergymen present from all parts of New England. They came to consider the matters which respect the different denominations. During all the time they have been here, Boston has been under Martial Law, in effect, for the purpose of awing down public sentiment, and enabling one Col. Suttle of Alexandria, Va., to carry off one negro, whom he claimed to own, as he owns his horse or his hog. This lesson has been taught in the presence of all the clergy of New England, and will be repeated and reiterated in all their pulpits.—The people everywhere will have the story, not only in their papers, but from the burning lips of their pasters, in words that will enter their hearts. On the very spot where the citizens of Boston were shot down by British troops on the 0th of March, 1770, stood the hired soldiery of the nation, backed up by the military companies of Boston, with guns loaded, and bayonets fixed, to murder the men and women of Boston, if they did not permit Col. Suttle to dray away his negro. A description of this event will go to every part of the land. There could not have been a more favorable time for educating the people of New England and quickening the Northern pulse.—Boston Trumpet.

FURTHER FROM CALIFOREIA.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The steamer George Law arrived this evening, bringing California mails to the 16th of May, 434 passengers and $973,472, specie on freight.

The steamer Star of the West also arrived this evening. She brings nearly $1,300,000. The loss by the fire at Eureka is estimated at $150,000.

The Legislature adjourned 15th, after defeating the Senatorial Election bill and Water Front Extension bill.

The gold mines were yielding abundantly. The weather since the last steamer has been remarkably favorable for the farmers and miners.

FROM THE ISTHMUS.—Dates from Carthagena are to May 20th. The Dectatorship is near its end. At last advice General Herara and Mosquera were only a few miles from Bogota with 15,000 men, with the attention of attacking General Meso.

We have dates from Valparaiso to April 30th. Nothing important contained. The Peruvian ship "Mercedes" was wrecked on the 2d of May, and 731 soldiers, including officers, drowned. They were bound to Lima.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, June 8

HOUSE.—Mr. Giddings called the attention of the House to an article in the Union counselling deeds of violence towards members of the House, and offered a resolution expelling Judge Nickolson and the Reporters of that paper from the privileges of the floor. A debate ensued in which Mr Giddings read the article from the Union, in which Theodore Parker, Wendell Phillips, Giddings and others were declared to be without the protection of the laws and the Constitution.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—In the House, yesterday, Mr. Olds moved to lay Mr. Giddings' resolution on the table, the question was taken and the vote stood, ayes 79, nays 31. No quorum being present, the House adjourned without disposing of the question.

THE CUTCHOGUE, L. I., MURDERS.—The real name of the murderer of the Wickham family, is Nicholas Behechan, and he has made a full confession of the murders, which is almost too sickening to print. He had no pretence of quarrel with his victims, but wanted to ravish and murder one of the servant girls who escaped. He had previously proposed to marry the girl; but as his character was bad, the Wickhams advised her to have nothing to do with him, which advice she followed. Then for some time he acted strangely, and finally insulted Mrs. W., for which he was dismissed. Then he returned and broke into the house, and began murdering with an axe, but the noise in the Wickhams' chamber awoke the girls, and they fled before the murderer reached their apartment.

A correspondent of the New York Times, states that at the examination of Nicholas Behechan, the supposed murderer of Mr. and Mrs. Wickham, the prisoner (who it will be remembered had previously acknowledged his guilt) strenuously maintained his innocence, and denied all the statements which he had previously made, and even that he had made any confession whatever. Ellen Holland, the servant girl, was sworn, and gave a very plain and straightforward account of all the circumstances. She was occasionally interrupted by Behechan, who frequently laughed aloud, and at times cross questioned her.

Dr. Carpenter, who attended the negro boy, Steve, writes encouragingly of the little fellow's condition, and expresses strong hopes of his recovery.

OVER-DOSE.—The New York Journal of Commerce states that the upper part of Broadway presents a remarkable appearance, on account of the number of unoccupied buildings to be seen. Between Houston street and Grace Church there are more than twenty "to let," several of which are elegant stores, recently finished. The landlords have been too grasping, but the evil will work its own cure, in the course of time.

The number of deaths in New York last week was 425, an increase of 56 on the previous week. Of this number 216 were of children under 10 years of age, and 227 were natives of the United States. [It is stated that six persons had died of cholera in the 6th ward up to Saturday noon.]

DR. ORDWAY'S

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattle snake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three or six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was stuck so much with Ague and Fever, that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine has discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormentors of our nightly rest.

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages to those seeking for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were at that time many agencies, if not that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. which street, New York.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, JUNE 12, 1854.

HOW IT READS.

The following is the fourteenth section of the Nebraska bill. We have published it before, but present it again to correct a prevalent misapprehension as to its true intent, many supposing that it actually and in terms legislates slavery into the territory. On the contrary, it will be perceived that it simply leaves that whole question to be determined by the people.—Eastern Argus.

"That the constitution and laws of the United States, which are not locally inapplicable, shall have the same force and effect within the said territory of Nebraska as elsewhere within the United States, except the 8th section of the act preparatory to the admission of Missouri into the Union, approved March 6, 1820, which being inconsistent with the principles of non-intervention by Congress with slavery in the states and territories as recognised by the legislation of 1850, (commonly called the compromise measures) is hereby declared inoperative and void, it being the true intent and meaning of this act not to legislate slavery into any territory or state, nor to exclude it therefrom, but to leave the people thereof perfectly free to form and regulate their domestic institutions in their own way, subject only to the Constitution of the United States."

Ay, ay: we know the bill says so; but then the pretence is one of the most designing and deliberate falsehoods ever put on paper. For there is no provision whatever, in this section or any other of the bill, whereby slavery can be kept out of the territory. If one man in a thousand chooses to carry slaves there, the other nine hundred and ninety nine cannot prevent him. Nor is this the result of accident or haste. While the bill was under discussion in Congress, an amendment was offered, giving the people of the district a chance to vote on the question, Slavery or no slavery? This was voted down, and the privilege denied.

The only peculiar intention of the whole bill, is to legalize slavery there, and to prevent every legal effort to keep it out.

There are some old laws against murder.—Now suppose this Nebraska bill had said "all the laws of the United States shall be in force in Nebraska and Kansas, except the statutes about murder," and then added, "it being the true intent and meaning of this act, not to legislate murder into the place, nor to exclude it." Would any body be so gullible as not to see through a veil so thin? Perhaps so; and if so, then the same person might believe the other flimsy falsehood. But he would be the most remarkable specimen of the greenhorn species which the present year has afforded, and ought to go to cattle show as a natural curiosity.

SPANISH RELATIONS.—The Washington Union of Friday morning, states that the difficulties between this government and that of Spain are not yet adjusted, and that the policy of the American administration remains unchanged.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times of Saturday, telegraphs that all danger of a collision with Spain having passed away for the present, the steamship Massachusetts and sloop of war Decatur will proceed to their destination on the Pacific in about a week.

BROOKLYN RIOTS.—The Mayor of Brooklyn has issued a proclamation cautioning all persons against interfering with the rights of citizens to meet together peaceably for public worship, either within a building or on private grounds; he also warns them against making any demonstrations which would tend to excite ill feeling among the citizens, by moving in procession to such places of worship. He concludes with declaring that the peace and good order of the city shall be maintained at all hazards.—Boston Jour.

This comes pretty near the mark, but does not hit it. The Catholic processions on the Sabbath, or at other times, if quiet, are lawful;—and so of any others. The procession, if orderly, is lawful; and the Mayor of Brooklyn can no more lawfully prevent a congregation or a Sunday School from walking in a procession, than from going in irregular squads.

☞ Mr. Banks, the democratic representative from Massachusetts in Congress, made on Friday evening in Waltham, Mass., a speech defending his votes against the extension of slavery into Nebraska and elsewhere; and approving of the votes of Morrison and Kittredge:

He remarked that he appeared before the audience under peculiar circumstances. He had separated himself by an irretrievable step from the friends with whom he had heretofore acted. A crisis in our public affairs had arrived. The country, he said, was now under the dominion of a power which had never shown itself before. It had become the propagandist of human slavery.

☞ Rev. Thos. W. Higginson, of Worcester, Mass., was arrested on Saturday morning, for being concerned in the Slave Riot in Court square, Boston, on the evening of May 26; and on being taken before the Police Court of Boston, gave bail in $3000, to appear for trial at the Municipal Court. His sureties are Dr. Walter Channing and Mr. W. J. Bowditch.

GRUMBLERS.

Grumblers are a very useful, though a very neglected, and slandered class of persons.—You will find them in all communities; and wherever you find them they are grumbling. Don't find fault with them, for they have their uses, and very important uses too. Indeed, you owe one half of your success in life to your frequent contact with this class of persons.

You have a speculation afoot. You are full of hope; you have not yet fully embarked in it; indeed you are hardly committed to it.

You express the matter to one of the grumblers, and lo! he grumbles. He throws out a thought or two about speculations and speculators; and growls about the practice and about the men, and concludes by telling you to have nothing to do with it. Not that he knows any thing about the matter, or even cares for it; but he loves to grumble. You leave him and go about your business; but you are not so hopeful about that speculation as you were before you met him; finally, after thinking the matter over, you drop it altogether. Soon you learn that you just saved yourself.

Grumblers are great and successful conservatives. Very often they tell which way the wind blows, and warn us away from a squall; not that they are particularly intelligent, or deeply concerned, but a habit of saying something on the weather side, makes them, to other and reflective minds, successful prognosticators. They bear no ill will to any body or any thing; they will rather do you a good turn, if you once put them to it. Try them any way, and you will find them useful every way.

Light houses are on dangerous coasts. The mariners look for them, and give the coasts a wide berth. A grumbler by a sort of irrepressible nature, locates himself where there is danger. Give heed to him; observe well his counsel. It will do you no harm; it may do you much good.

Are you about to embark in business?—Many will smile on you, and make large promises to you of success. But after all that the hopeful may say and do for you, the grumbler may be your best friend. He won't encourage you a word, and he will point out every danger. If you have courage, he will urge it out. If you have wit, he will sharpen it. If you have tact, he will give it direction and force. He will temper your zeal with a wise caution. Serviceable as he thus is, you need not hunt him up; for he will find you out soon enough. When he comes, listen! Don't get angry at him, nor think him an old fogy. He'll do you a good turn, perhaps, when your friends are lost in a fog. I had a friend once, and I have him still, who seldom agreed with me; and for that very reason he was and is the best friend I ever had. He kept my plans from loose ends; and my schemes from getting into a tangle. I never was particularly blest with caution; but thanks to him for what I have of a cautious habit.

How often do you hear a person say: "Now don't say any thing to Mr. —— about it, for he'll be sure to find fault with you and your plans, and he will eventually discourage you." Now the first chance you get, speak to that very person about the whole thing; and if there be really an objection to the plan, he will be likely to know of it; and he will be sure to tell you of it; and when you hear it, ponder it well. You will not lose any thing by pondering. When next you meet your grumbling friend, just after you have escaped the danger he grumbled about, perhaps he'll say—"I told you so; if it had'nt been for me you would'nt have been so well off." Let him say so; don't regard it as a bitter reminiscence; he has earned the right to say it.—Be friendly with this character, for when you interest him in your welfare, he will stick to you like moss to a rock; or like bark to a tree. Think well of him. Throw his foibles over your shoulder, and go on your way rejoicing. After you have winnowed what he has thrashed, you will find that there are more than two grains of wheat in a bushel of chaff; and those grains are full of the germinal life of rich experiences. *

We have been expecting to hear something of the kind for a year past. Mr. Wood was the editor and proprietor of the Congregational Journal, an orthodox religious paper at Concord, pending the Presidential election, and at that time he published some important statements, favorable to the temperance and piety of General, now President Pierce, which doubtless had some weight and influence in distant parts of the country. Some time since the election, Mr. Wood sold out his paper, and is now, as we see by the above statement, appointed to a chaplaincy in the navy.

A mother in San Francisco has cured her little boy of swearing by washing out his mouth with soap-suds every time he had profane words in it.

We wish somebody would cure the teller of this story of lying, with soap-suds or something else.

LOCAL.

MY PAPER.—Messrs. Publishers:—How strong is the power of habit, and how irresistible its influence over the mind! For instance, I am quite attached to the Chronicle, having found it a pleasing, and until recently a constant, companion at the breakfast table. Its practical suggestions, its eminently non-commital political speculations, its philosophical conclusions and wholesome moralizings, are well calculated to render weak coffee tolerable and heavy rolls endurable. The short-comings of cooks are forgotten in the sage sayings of Uncle Toby, who and the "Local" column affords ample atonement for the unsettled condition of the morning beverage.

But the welcome visitor comes no more—a change of residence from one street to another passes all unnoticed by your carrier; and vainly have I appealed to each one of your number, that the proper change be effected upon the book of that important personage, who bears the destiny of nations under his left arm, and deposits his little missives, reeking with mirth, moisture and miscellany, at the doors of the annointed who stand fair upon the publishers' ledger.

And now, gentlemen, what is to be done? Do not your combined consciences smite you, as you reflect upon this neglect of duty, and call to mind the time when you clutched my three-dollar bill, and promised to send me the Morning Chronicle for the space of one year, for better or for worse? If convinced of your error, let your atonement be speedy. See to it, that the paper left at No. —, —— street, be at once transferred to No. —, —— street, that it may once more give zest to the morning meal, and save me from the ruinous habit into which I have fallen of late, of depositing a diurnal copper in the treasury of Morse the newspaper dealer. F. F.

The carrier was forthwith tried by a court of inquiry,—and the verdict was "Not Guilty—but admonished not to do so again."

☞ This day, at 10 o'clock, is the time fixed for the town meeting, to see whether the North Parish own the land they have occupied since the landing of the Pilgrims—almost.

TEACHERS CONVENTION.

The New Hampshire Convention of Teachers will assemble at Concord on Thursday evening next.

An arrangement has been made with the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad by Mr. J. P. Payson, for the teachers in this vicinity, whereby each teacher, buying the regular ticket from his or her home to Concord, and receiving a certificate of attendance on the Convention from the President thereof, shall be passed back to his residence without further charge.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

Abridged from the Patriot.

HOUSE.—FRIDAY, June 10.

Election of U. S. Senators.—Mr. Dodge of Amherst offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That Tuesday next, the 14th day of June, at three of the clock in the afternoon, be assigned on the part of the House as the time to go into an election of a United States Senator to Congress to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the Hon. Charles G. Atherton; and that immediately thereafter this House proceed to the election of a United States Senator to Congress for six years from and after the third day or March next.

Mr. Eastman of Conway moved to strike out the words "Tuesday next, the 13th," and insert "Friday next, the 16th," instead.

A sharp debate ensued.

Mr. Grant moved for a division of the question embraced in the resolution, and the House assented.

The motion to strike out was put, and the yeas and nays taken on its adoption, when the vote stood, yeas 154, nays 150; so the House by four majority, agreed to strike out, and the amendment was adopted.

A motion to adjourn was made by Mr. Brown of Ossipee, and negatived.

The resolution, as amended, was then put and adopted without a count.

On motion of Mr. Emery of Portsmouth, the anti-administration resolutions were specially assigned for Tuesday next, at half-past 10 o'clock.

The House then adjourned, at a few minutes to 2 o'clock.

HORSE STOLEN.—A fellow calling himself Phillips, of Lawrence, hired a horse and chaise at the livery stable of Mr. William H. Smith, in Dover, on Wednesday evening last, to go to Great Falls and return the next morning. Not making his appearance as agreed, Mr. Smith started shortly after in pursuit. A reward of $50 was offered for the apprehension of the thief and recovery of the property.—The rogue was captured at Augusta, Me., on Friday afternoon, to which place news of the robbery was conveyed by telegraph, and on his arrival he was immediately taken into custody. He was brought to Dover by officer Wrisley on Saturday, and lodged in jail. He now gives his name as J. H. Stedman, and has the apearance of being an old offender. On Monday the prisoner was brought up for examination, and on pleading guilty, was held to bail in the sum of $400 to await his trial at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.—Dover Gazette.

BALLOONING.—At New York, June 9, Mr. Wise made an ascension in his balloon in the afternoon, from the Crystal Palace; when descending near Flushing he was thrown out, falling a distance of about forty feet, but he only sustained slight bruises and the loss of a tooth. The wind was high, and the balloon afterwards went rapidly eastward.

State Temperance Convention.

THE friends of Temperance are respectfully requested to meet in Convention in the Rumford Hall, in Concord, on Wednesday, the 14th day of June, 1854, at 11 o'clock, A. M. by delegates equal in number to two for each Representatives to General Court, to which the several towns and cities are respectfully entitled.

The point to which we have arrived in the history of the Temperance Reformation, demands upon the windows and blinds of the Catholic Chapel in this city on Saturday evening last.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.

Dates to May 16.

An accident to the steamer Sea Bird, bound to Los Angeles had excited sertous apprehensions, but the arrival of the Southerner on the 16th, brought news of her safety.

The survivors of Walker's party who returned, had surrendered themselves as prisoners, on entering the United States territory, to Capt. Burton, of the U. S. army, and were by him sent to San Francisco, for violation of the neutrality law, where they were reported to Gen. Wool as prisoners, 35 in number.

About a thousand Chinese emigrants had arrived in California within the last fortnight, and information was received that nearly 6000 more were on their way.

The Governor states in a message to the Legislature, that the public lands appropriated to educational purposes in California, amount to more than seven and a half millions of acres.

The site selected in this city for a Custom House has been appraised at $300,000, and the State offers it to the Federal Government at half price—$150,000.

Black traffics have been found in Santa Cruz county, and it is supposed that they are abundant. The yearly import of truffles to California amounts to about 75,000.

On the 3d, Gen. John Sharp was shot and instantly killed by some squatters who were ordered to quit cutting wood upon his ranch.

On the 8th, R. A. Herbert, from St. Alban's Bay, Vermont, committed suicide in Sacramento.

Indictment against P. Dillon, the French Consul.—The Grand Jury yesterday empanelled in the United States District Court, have returned a true bill of indictment against the Consul of France, Patrick Dillon, for violation of the neutrality laws, in enlisting men to serve in the army of Mexico.

On the 2d inst., a lump of gold weighing 30 lbs., 3 1-4 ozs., was found at Vallecito in Calaveras county, a number of other smaller lumps were found at the same time and place.

Silas E. Burrows, a wealthy citizen, and formerly a prominent merchant of New York, sailed on the 11th inst., in the clipper Lady Pierce for Japan, on a peaceable and private mission to the Emperor. The Lady Pierce, formerly the Race Hound, is a fine clipper of 500 tons, and the inside works are very elegant. Mr. Burrows took with him a number of fine goods for presents, and declared his intention to present his vessel to the Emperor, if she was well received, and permitted to remain. The vessel took no goods except stores and presents, and no passengers except Mr. Burrows and his son.

John H. Dunn, formerly of New York, editor of the Pacific Police Gazette, of which only one number has appeared, was stabbed and killed by a printer named Foley, when he was taking him to the Station House. A subscription of $1,100 was raised for Mrs. Dunn the next day.

Avery, the young man from Springfield, Mass., who murdered Susanna Russell on the Yankee Blade, has been examined and committed. From the course taken by his attorneys, it is likely that his defence will be insanity.

Arrival of Col. Walker.—The San Francisco Herald of the 16th says:

The steamer Southerner, Capt. Hilliard, arrived yesterday afternoon, four days from San Diego, bringing as intelligence from San Diego to May 9th, and from Los Angelos to May 13th, a fortnight later than previous advices. Among the passengers are Col Walker and a large portion of his party.

Immediately on the arrival of Walker he proceeded to report himself to Gen. Wool, in obedience to the stipulation signed by him at the time of his surrender. Gen. Wool accompanied him to the office of the U. S. District attorney, Col. Inge, where his parole to hold himself subject to the action of the Government authorities, for the purpose of an investigation, was verbally renewed. No bail was required.

The coal of Coose bay and Bellingham bay, in Washington territory, is found to be of a very good quality, and preparations are being made at both places for extensive mining.

CONGRESS.—WASHINGTON, June 10.

A quorum is not present in the House today, and the Giddings matter was therefore laid over, and the House went into Committee on the Pacific Railroad bill, when Mr. Chastian, of Georgia, made a speech on Cuban affairs, contending that the time has arrived when the interests of this country demand that Cuba shall change owners.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 10.—The Jury in the case of James Antoni, an Italian, charged with murder, brought in yesterday a verdict of Not Guilty. Antoni was then discharged, but as he was leaving the Court Room, two New York officers arrested him on a Bench warrant, charging him with having committed a murder in New York.

Yesterday morning much excitement was caused in the State Prison at Sing Sing, consequent upon the attempt of a desperate character named Samuel Murray, to murder one of the keepers, and make his escape from the prison. Mr. Geo. T. Herwood, the keeper, received several bad wounds, inflicted with a razor, and it is feared will not survive. Murray was subsequently secured.

A letter in the Tribune from Jackson, Miss, says "the great Cuban army will soon be ready to start, under command of our former Governor, Gen. Quitman. There is no secret about the movement. All who have been to New Orleans state the amount of money subscribed by the merchants to be very heavy. Every one favors the movement, and the New Orleans papers keep dark, yet the subject is bar-room talk. There is no man so well qualified as old Quitman. He has the confidence of the sharp-shooters of the State.

FROM TEXAS.—New Orleans papers state that an express had arrived at Galveston, announcing that the Indians to the number of 500 had rallied under Wild Cat; and commenced a slaughter upon the white inhabitants. Thirty miles west of Victoria they fell in with a company of 25 soldiers, all of whom but two were massacred. They next attacked a party of mustangers, traders and citizens, killing 36 of their number. Thirty Mexicans and six Americans. When the express left the fighting was still going on. The express rider had his horse shot under him by one of the Indians, but he succeeded in seizing one of their horses and escaped.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and has about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 620 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body. I have seen it recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 17 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. It the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the last inconvenience.

Lea's in Worcester lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, unless the cure never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, some take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a
POISONOUS GUM RESIN,
Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.
IT IS PURELY SHAKER, AND DEADLY.
Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

R. H. EDDY,

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

SECRET BALLOT.

We would recommend to the members of our legislature, now in session, the adoption of the sealed ballot in all the elections which they make during their term of office. This truly democratic, fair, and honest mode of voting, was adopted in Massachusetts legislature, when the coalition of democrats and free soilers had a bare majority.

Their convention had balloted several times and made no choice. It was seen that on one ballot there were more votes cast than there were members present. Ballots in sealed envelopes were prepared, at once agreed to, and a choice effected.

Pleased with the experiment, the legislature passed the Secret Ballot Law for the people. But the whigs, the moment they get the power, after trying in vain to repeal the law, amended it so as to make nonsense of it. For this amendment, no good reason ever was offered, or ever could be. The true reason must be, either mere party spirit, or a desire to influence or intimidate voters.

In our own legislature, only a day or two ago, a case of double voting occurred, probably accidental, and a new ballot was unanimously agreed to.

In other circumstances, a double vote might unfairly make or defeat a choice. But the sealed ballot is as sure as it is secret.

We hope our General Court will adopt it at once.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A despatch in this evening's Times, from Washington, says Maj. Wyse is acquitted by Court Martial of conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman—found guilty of disobedience to orders, and sentenced to a dismissal from service. The President mitigates the sentence to six months' suspension from rank, command, and pay. The War Department expresses regret that proper care has not always been had in selecting transports for troops. The President also approves of very strong censure of Col. Gates for his conduct in connection with the wreck of the San Francisco, but no proceedings looking to another penalty were offered.

We are glad to see, in the above paragraph, the acquittal of Maj. Wyse from the charge of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman; it is only just. His conduct was illegal and disobedient. Yet it was manly and praiseworthy;—and the President] really assents to it, by exchanging dismission for a very short suspension. The Court Martial, and the President also, seem inclined in this case, to believe in a higher law than the articles of war.

Col. Gates has suffered enough, on board the San Francisco.

We hope the War Department will not only regret their conduct in using bad transports, but also reform their practice. If soldiers must go to sea, by all means send them in a good ship; and if possible, charter her of an honest owner, who can be depended upon, and who will not give bribes to get contracts.

The first sermon preached at a funeral in Boston was delivered at the interment of the Rev. Dr. Cooper of the Brattle Street Church, in 1783. It was delivered by Rev. Dr. Clark, the junior pastor of the First Church. The first public prayer made at a funeral in Boston, by a Congregational clergyman, was at the obsequies of Rev. Dr. Mayhew, of the West Church, in July, 1766, upon which occasion Rev. Dr. Chauncy officiated.—Boston Transcript.

It may interest some of the younger readers, to be told that the early Puritans buried their dead, like the Quakers, in silence; or without any public religious service. It was common for some male relative of the deceased, at the close of the funeral, to thank the neighbors for their attendance and aid. This latter custom existed long after prayers were offered at their funerals, and in some instances, till within a few years of the present time.

In this connexion we may mention, that until within one hundred years, the bible was not commonly read on the Lord's Day in the Congregational Meeting Houses, as a part of the service. It was read at home and in the schools. But the minister was expected to fill up his four hours on the Sunday with sermons and prayers; and he commonly did so.

Times change; men and fashions change also.

PURPORT.—The Meredith New Hampshire Democrat says:

"We never have, and do not now, approve of the disturbance of the Missouri Compromise. We never have seen that degree of necessity for it which some have. Still, we approve of the principle which the Nebraska bill purports to carry out."

This hits the nail on the head, exactly.—The bill purports to leave a certain question open to the public, but it really closes one side of it.

DIVING FOR GOLD.—The Worcester Spy states that Mr. C. B. Pratt, the diver, left that city on Tuesday, with his assistants, to renew his search after the treasure of the British ship of war Huzzar, in seventy feet of water, during the revolutionary war. About a million of dollars were on board at the time, which were destined to pay off the troops of the British army, then in the Highlands.

LICENSES IN CONCORD.

The Concord N. H. Phenix gives the following items of news relative to the action of the city on licenses. We expect great benefits from the measure, in regard to peace and order in Concord during the session of the General Court.

We last week referred to the revoking by the city authorities of violated licenses. This brought to their senses, those who had been concerned in evading the law by secret operations by which jugs left in the dark, could be filled in the dark, and thus all evidence of sale be avoided. When their business, as sellers of refreshments, came to be cut off, and they saw election week just upon them, they came to terms and gave heavy bonds for fidelity in the future, at the same time removing all liquors from about their premises.

The good influence of this measure was seen in the orderly deportment of the multitude on election day. And the city authorities deserve the thanks of all good citizens. They have placed the subject on the right basis, and the evil is now fairly at their control. We feel assured that they will not shrink from duty, and that Concord will yet take a high stand in the Temperance reform.

One license and one only has been given for liquor sales within the city, a copy of which we give below.

City Liquor License.—By virtue of the authority in us vested by law, we, the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Concord, hereby license Joel C. Danforth, of said City, to sell wines and spirituous liquors, subject to the following restrictions, viz:

1st. No liquor shall be kept or sold, except of the first and best quality, free from impurity and dilution.

2d. Liquors shall be sold for chemical, medicinal and mechanical purposes only.

3d. A faithful record shall be kept of the names of all persons purchasing, the date, quantity and price.

4th. Liquor shall not be sold to persons of intemperate habits, except upon the certificate of a regular physician that the same is necessary.

5th. Liquors may be sold at an advance only of fifteen per cent. on the cost.

6th Bills of purchase, book accounts, and liquors, shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the Mayor and Aldermen.

7th. The person licensed may at all times be required to answer on oath, before the Mayor and Aldermen, any interrogatories relating to the sale or purchase of liquor.

8th. A departure from the foregoing restrictions shall be sufficient cause of revoking this license.

This document is signed by the Mayor and five Aldermen, and attested by the city clerk.

THE FISHERY NEGOTIATION.—By the steamer Eastern City arrived at Boston from St. John, and through the politeness of Col. Favor, we have St. John papers of Tuesday last. The subject of the fisheries continued to be much discussed. The New Brunswicker gives the following particulars with regard to proceedings in Newfoundland:

With reference to the negotiations, some important proceedings have recently taken place in the Legislature of Newfoundland.—On the 13th of May, the Governor of that colony informed the Assembly by message that a meeting of colonial delegates was contemplated, to discuss the terms of a treaty relative to reciprocity and the fisheries; and that he conceived certain special stipulations should be made on behalf of Newfoundland. First—that existing duties on American articles should be retained, until the colony could make other arrangements for raising a revenue. Second—that the American fishing bounties should be abolished; and third—that there should be a reservation of the right of making Legislative enactments for the preservation of bait, and for a prohibition of its exportation during six weeks in each season. The Governor then invited the House to express its opinion upon the expediency of instructing the officer of government whom he should send to the convention to insist on these stipulations.

The House dealt in a very summary manner with this message, by passing a number of resolutions, in substance as follows:

That a free interchange of the produce of Newfoundland and the United States would be mutually advantageous; that if the United States would remove the duties on oil, codfish, herrings, seal skins, salmon, pickled and dried fish, that then United States bread, flour, pork, butter, corn and meal should be admitted duty free in Newfoundland. If this arrangement should not be agreed to, that then a duty of six per cent. should be levied on the several articles named, on importation into either country respectively. On either of these arrangements being made, American fishermen to be admitted to a full and free participation in the fisheries of Newfoundland, as the same are now or may hereafter be enjoyed by British subjects, the United States Government abolishing all bounties to their fishermen.

The House then resolved that a member of their own body should be delegated to attend the convention, to represent the opinions and protect the interests of the colony. It thus appears that Newfoundland is prepared to throw open its fisheries on terms almost as liberal as those proffered some time since by Prince Edward Island.

The same paper of the 6th, states that Hon. Mr. Chandler of that province had arrived at St. John from Washington, that no treaty had been concluded when he left, although certain points had been agreed upon; but whatever the treaty may be, he says its terms will be altogether inoperative in each colony until submitted to its Legislature, and confirmed by Legislative enactment.—Boston Courier.

Rev. W. A. P. Dillingham, recently of this city, has accepted a recall from the Universalist Society at Augusta, Me. He has been at Norridgewock for a year or two past.

☞ On Sunday, at Brooklyn, N. Y., there was another riot, raised to intimidate two out-door preachers. Several arrests were made, mostly of Irishmen.

LOCAL.

TOWN MEETING.

The town meeting called by the Board of Aldermen, at the request of fifty legal voters, assembled on Monday, at 10 o'clock. Mayor Walker was chosen moderator. After the reading of the warrant, it was voted that the meeting dissolve.

Mr. Charles Robinson suggested that he wished to offer a resolution, and asked that the vote be reconsidered—which was done.

Mr. Robinson then introduced a resolution, to the effect that the front line of the North meeting House be changed so as to range with the street—as the present line if continued would bring the south side of the street north of the Buckminster house.

The resolution was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. John Stavers introduced a resolution that the city buy the lot on the corner of State and Pleasant streets, opposite the Rockingham Bank. As this matter was not in the warrant, it was decided to be out of order.

Mr. John L. Elwyn suggested that as the town claimed a right to the Alms Hous lot in 1836, they could also claim the Meeting House lot, as both rested on the same glebe title. He therefore wished some one of the Parish to state the grounds of their claim to the lots.

Mr. Jonathan Dearborn, for the Parish, said that they did not call the meeting, and did not feel called upon to prove their title; but that it rested with the remonstrants to prove that they did not own it.

The meeting then again dissolved.

CITY COUNCIL.

In the Common Council, on Monday evening, a vote was passed, concurring with the Mayor and Aldermen, in their approval of the design to build a bridge to Pierce's Island.

At a quarter past 8, the two Boards met in Convention, Mayor Walker in the chair, for the election of City Officers, and the following were elected:

Collector of Taxes.
Robert Lefavour, (14 to 6.)

City Marshal.
Oliver Hanscom, (14 to 6.)

THE COMBINATION MENAGERIE.—Our readers will perceive that we are to be favored with a visit from the Great Combination Menagerie, which has swallowed up a dozen others in order to render itself without a rival in America. This Menagerie, besides its collection of choice, rare and costly animals of other descriptions, includes the celebrated living Giraffes, just imported from Egypt, by Mr. P. T. Barnum, at an expense of $30,000, and will furnish a fine opportunity for the study of natural history. The Giraffes alone are wonders. They are 18 feet high, very beautiful, graceful, quite young and gentle. The Lions, Tigers, Leopards, Monkies, Elephants, &c., are said to be among the finest in the world.

CIRCUS.—The reader will also perceive that we are to be visited by another equestrian troupe, which is represented to be well worthy of a visit. The proprietors of this Circus have had much experience in the business, and gave a grand exhibition here a year or two since.

NAVAL.—Mr. Charles C. Simms has been appointed Sailing Master at the Navy Yard on this station, vice Mr. A. B. Reed, promoted to be Lieutenant, and detached from this yard.

☞ The second half-term of Mr. Lamprey's Dancing Academy commences to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Rechab Hall.

The session of the Court of Common Pleas in Newburyport closed on Friday. Several parties were fined for violation of the liquor law, and others acquitted, but most of the cases were continued, on account of the presiding justice having other engagements.

☞ Nine deaths by cholera were reported at the Registrar's office in Boston, on Sunday and Monday;—and half a dozen cases of the disease are also known. Nearly all the deceased are immigrants, and all lived in dirty places.

CONGRESS.—WASHINGTON, June 12th.—In the Senate to day, Mr. Mason delivered an eulogy upon the late J. P. Snodgrass, and after the customary resolutions the Senate adjourned.

SOUTHBRIDGE, MASS, June 11.—The balloon of Mr. Wyse, which ascended from the Crystal Palace on the 9th inst., alighted the same day, about 5 P. M., in Eastford, Conn., in good condition, with the anchor, handbills, &c., in the car. The finder commenced stripping it, before the arrival of the citizens, who interfered and saved it from further injury.

Mr. Wyse is about going up again. Surely there must be some mistake about the man's name. He is any thing but wise, to be engaged in such bootless, breakneck business.

Paris is being rapidly emptied of the beau monde. Jonathan is now the principal inhabitant.

The Neva was free from ice on the 2d of May, and had risen so high that an inundation was feared. Fifteen stone bridges were to be broken down, the remainder to be mounted with heavy cannon.

The Emperor has been quite sick.

Naples has declared in favor of neutrality.

LATEST BY MAIL AT LIVERPOOL.—Wednesday, 31st.—By this morning's mail we have nothing later from the Baltic, Black Sea or Turkey.

From Athens, it is stated that King Otho has accepted the Anglo-French ultimatum, and has promised to recall Mavrocordato, on condition that the allies do not occupy his country. If they persist in their intention to send troops to Athens, he will withdraw the seat of his government into the interior, and collect his army there.

It is reported from Cronstadt that prayers were read in all the churches in Warsaw for the success of the Greek insurrection.

From Vienna, May 24, the following is telegraphed:

"The adhesion of the Germanic Confederation to the Austro-Russian treaty is secured. A committee has been appointed by the Frankfort Diet to prepare the document of adhesion."

Sillistria remained in the possession of the Turks on the 25th of May.

TURKISH ARMENIA.—From private telegraphic accounts, it is reported that the Russians are menacing Erzeroun. They have recently made a compulsory enrolment of 30,000 Armenians.

Advices from Constantinople say that the Turkish corps at Kars almost entirely dispersed on the approach of the Russians, on 5th of May.

From Malta we have a report that the allied fleets had bombarded Kaffa or Theodosia, a Russian port on the Eastern coast of the Crimea.

INDIA.—The overland mail from India had arrived at Marseilles. It brings the Russian treaty with the Affghans. Russia promises never till the end of the world to interfere in the interior concerns of the country. In return for this promise, the Khan of Khiva accords to Russia the right to build fortified barracks in the district of Hourgani. The stations named will be immediately occupied by Russian troops.

FROM HAVANA.—The Washington Star publishes a letter from a gentleman in Havana; who is said to be reliable authority, in which the writer states that no sooner was the order of the 26th of May, in relation to the enrolment of the negroes, formally promulgated, than the blacks rushed forward in masses to enlist, and the square of Belen, where the enlistment was going on, was crowded with them. Their cries for arms generated universal alarm. Many wealthy planters having got up a petition to the Captain General on the subject, that functionary significantly hinted to some of his friends, who were about to sign it, that he should look upon the act as one of insubordination. The negroes, it will be remembered, showed great repugnance to the idea of their incorporation into the army a few weeks since. The sudden change in their sentiments was owing to the knowledge that they were not to be used as a bait for some unknown purpose, as they had suspected, but were to comprise quite a third of the entire military force, and were to serve in all the various requirements in detached companies.

The correspondent of the London Times writes from Hong Kong, April 12th as follows:—"The most prominent and interesting news we have to communicate by this mail is the account of the successful negotiations of Com. Perry, of the U. S. Navy, in Japan; and there is great reason to suppose we may shortly have the particulars of the treaty, and that the ports are to be opened.—On the 27th of March Com. Perry was to have a grand meeting near Jeddo, with the princes and ministers of Japan, for the consideration and conclusion, and, most probably, ratification of the treaty. From all we learn there can be no doubt that Japan will be opened to all nations, and each have the facility of making a treaty.

U. S. ship Saratoga was to be despatched soon after the 27th, for Panama, to convey important news to Washington.

U. S. steamer Susquehannah arrived here on the 2d inst., and is to be held at the service of the U. S. Commissioner, Mr. Lane.

The ports selected are said to be Ozaka, in 35 45 lat., and 134 25 lon., and Matsmai, in the Straits of Sangau. The report given of the Russian Admiral having made a treaty with the Emperor, turns out to be unfounded.

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 12th.—Two persons arrived here at 2 o'clock on Sunday morning from Lowell, and said that a slave owner was at that city inquiring for a colored barber named Edwin Moore, who once kept a shop there, and who, they alleged, ran away from his master in Virginia 12 years ago.—The same Moore has worked here about four months, and has a wife and three children. A purse was made up for him by his friends, and by noon was on the under ground railroad for Canada, where he will probably rest to-night in security.

MURDER.—Last evening a stable keeper in this city named John Marshall, during an altercation about pay for the use of a horse with Michael Callanan, struck the latter on the head with a carriage wrench, and inflicted blows that caused his death in about 6 hours. Marshall is under arrest, and the coroner's inquest will probably be held to day, when the facts will be elicited.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by its use.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. When the bowels are in a state of costiveness, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs., in 10 days; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursting a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but it does.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, when it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonful. As any direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormentors of our nightly rest.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

VOICE FROM VIRGINIA.

The Richmond (Va.) Enquirer, commenting upon the recent slave case, says:

But the triumph is not complete, and we rejoice over a victory which is only not so bad as the most disastrous defeat. In so far as the interests of the South are involved, the slave might as well have been allowed to escape. With whatever success the supremacy of order was vindicated by the surrender of Burns, as regards the efficiency of the law for the recapture of fugitive slaves, the issue was determined adversely to the interests of the South. If some representative from the North were to suggest the repeal of the fugitive slave law, and were to propose instead, that the Government should compensate the owner for the loss of his property, would the South accept the offer? Certainly not; and why?—Because the proposition would substantially amount to this; that the South should be indemnified for the violation of its rights out of its own funds.

Yet this compromise would be far better for the South than submission to such an execution of the law as was achieved in the case of Burns. The expense of the recapture of Burns cannot fall short of fifty thousand dollars, and as the Government assumes the responsibility of this debt, the South pays for the recovery of its stolen property in the proportion that its contribution to the federal treasury exceeds that of the North. Better would it have been for the interests of the South if the Government had abstained from all endeavor to execute the law, had suffered Burns to go his way in peace, and had repaid to Mr. Suttle the full value of his slave.

That's the way the Virginians spit on the government at Washington, and on the patriots in Boston who vindicated the supremacy of order.

HAIL COLUMBIA!

Col. Suttle, the owner of Burns, has arrived at Alexandria. He left the Cutter Morris and took passage in a vessel bound to New York, and thence returned by land. Burns is represented to be glad of his escape from Boston.

The Revenue Cutter Morris, with the fugitive Burns on board, arrived at Old Point Comfort, Va., yesterday. Burns was put on board the Richmond steamer en route to Alexandria. It is proposed to give the officers a public dinner at Norfolk.

If any of our readers should not know who this Burns is, who so rejoices at his escape from Boston, they are informed that he is a negro slave who ran away from master Suttle, and was carried back by force and arms.—The officers who are to have the dinner, we suppose, are the officers of the cutter who carried off the slave, and the marshals and men who caught him.

Of course, if they have the dinner, they must have some songs. Perhaps they will sing old Hail Columbia, containing these words:

Hail, Columbia! happy land!
Hail, ye heroes! heaven-born band!
Who fought and bled in freedom's cause.

Firm, united, let us be,
Rallying round our liberty;
As a band of brothers joined,
Peace and safety we shall find.

While offering peace, sincere and just,
In heaven we place a manly trust,
That truth and justice will prevail,
And every scheme of bondage fail.

When hope was sinking in dismay,
And gloom obscured Columbia's day,
His steady mind, from changes free,
Resolved on death or liberty.

TWO SALUTES.—The Alexandria Gazette of the 6th June, says:

A salute of one hundred guns was fired by Captain Duffey's Mechanical Artillery, on Saturday last, in honor of the triumph of the law in the recent fugitive slave case in Boston, and of the exercise of their constitutional rights by the Executive, the authorities and the claimant. It is understood that a request has been made to have the revenue cutter conveying the fugitive, brought up to this port.

The Nebraska men in Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio, undertook to fire a salute in honor of the bill on Tuesday last; but they had hardly commenced firing when every bell in town was manned, and such a doleful tolling was kept up between the salutes, was never before heard in that vicinity. Another attempt was made at nine o'clock, and almost instantly the bells again rung out a mournful dirge. At noon the Nebraskans rallied again with no better success. After supper the shooting was undertaken once more; by this time the Warren Brass Band had mounted to the cupola of a church, and between the pauses of the firing played the Dead March in Saul, the bells all the while tolling a solemn knell.

JEWS IN PALESTINE.

Their sufferings have been occasioned partly by the failure of the last harvest, which has raised the price of food to an enormous height, and partly by the present war and political disturbances, and the diminution of the resources for the support of the poor derived from other countries. These contributions, the greater part of which were furnished by Russia, are now almost entirely cut off, and these causes of destitution have resulted in a famine aggravated to a fearful degree by sickness from hunger and disease, under which the country is now suffering to an unparalleled extent.

An eminent Hebrew of London, Sir Moses Montefiore, who has lately returned from a visit to Palestine, has published in the London papers an appeal on behalf of his famishing countrymen,

The Hebrews of Jerusalem have also issued an "Appeal to the Congregations of Great Britain and America."

We hope our wealthy and liberal christians will aid the Hebrew contribution. Now is the time to break down Jewish prejudice, with kindness shown by christians.

The London Observer, alluding to the Irish Exodus, says that if the present annual emigration continues until 1891, there will not be a single Irishman remaining on his native soil.

TREASON.

We have received a communication signed Equal Rights, which speaks of the petitions for repeal of the fugitive slave law as labor lost, and advocates a confederacy and convention of the free states, for the purpose of resisting and nullifying the fugitive law; in other words, just such a convention in favor of freedom, as has sometimes been held in favor of slavery; and with the same remedy, viz.: a peaceful division of the Union, or a peaceful secession from it.

We must inform our correspondent that all this is seditious and perhaps treasonable when in favor of freedom, though quite innocent on the other side.

The latter part of Equal Rights's communication, however, deals in facts, and as it is not seditious, we venture to publish it.

"If my views are correct, this very abusive fugitive slave law came into existence in consequence of the declaration of that honest Southern politician, Mr. Calhoun, who declared openly and manfully that slavery must and should be maintained, otherwise the South would declare themselves free and independent of the non-slaveholding States. This at length became so serious a subject, that Mr. Webster, who always was opposed to slavery, consented that this bill should become a law in its present shape. This consent of Mr. Webster is said to have been based on the ground that it was better than a division of the States. If this was so, I think had Mr. Webster been living and in Boston, week before last, and seen the whole transactions relative to the slave case, directly on the back of the Nebraska bill, he would have seen the impossibility of ever harmonizing the two systems, freedom and slavery.

I am of the opinion that Mr. Webster, if living, and all calculating Northern men must see, that the Northern States must yield entirely, not only to the present unpleasant task of helping the officers return the poor fugitive, but may be assured that the two systems will unite only when water and fire unite together, and not until the Northern States find themselves entrapped and bound with cords too strong to be broken, but must be reduced to become the slave or dupe of a corrupt system, injurious to all parts of the country, and oppressive to all true men, without regard to color.

We must add, that we have no faith in dissolution as a remedy for the evil of slavery;—but we have great confidence in a firm resistance against its aggressions; and wish we could rely better than we are now able to do, on men in the free States, to make such a steady and persistent resistance to this immense evil, as would show our freedom to be something more than a name.

THE CUBA QUESTION.—The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes from Washington:

The administration, it is hoped and believed, are now prepared to approach the great object in view; that is, the acquisition of Cuba in an open and direct manner. They are expected now to say plainly, through the two proposed commissioners to the Spanish government, that the United States want Cuba and must have it. They will represent to Spain that the possession of Cuba by the United States is part and parcel of our manifest destiny; that it will be commercially convenient and politically desirable; and further, that Spain cannot much longer hold it without more expense than it is worth, nor even consistently with a continued peace between her and the United States, and that we are more willing to buy it than to go to war to obtain it. If, then, Spain refuses to sell, the commissioners will say that we leave the offer open to acceptance within a reasonable time.

A despatch to the New York Evening Post says:

Preparations for war with Spain, if she will not sell Cuba, will go on steadily and firmly, military and naval stores being collected in large quantities. All vessels at the war and naval stations are undergoing thorough inspection. All vessels of war are detained in port. All ideas of reducing the surplus in the treasury by reducing duties is given up. Dallas and Cobb are to go to Madrid to bring back Cuba or war.

ESTABLISHED RELIGION.—Senator Cass and Arch-Bishop Hughes are afloat on an ocean of debate about liberty of conscience. The matter, so far, would fill the Chronicle for a fortnight or three weeks.

The best thing we see in Bishop Hughes's letter, is this:

"We have no established religion at home, which, in our circumstances, I regard as a great benefit."

That is, as we read it is a fine thing to have no establishment, not that the Catholics are in the minority—but if ever we get votes enough, we will establish ours very speedily.

ARSON CASE.—W. E. Roberts, a young man of 22, of respectable parentage in Pennsylvania, was placed on a trial at New Orleans, on the 2d inst., for the capital crime of arson, being charged with setting fire to his own store. The charge was fully substantiated,—he had $400 worth of goods and $4,000 insurance. The jury returned a verdict of "guilty" without capital punishment.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Three large brick buildings, being erected on the corner of Water and Moore streets, fell last evening just as the workmen were leaving the premises. Nobody killed.

THE LEMMON SLAVE CASE.—The motion to compel the plaintiff (Jonathan Lemmon) as a non-resident, to file security for costs on the appeal from the decision of the late Judge Paine, for liberating slaves brought by Mr. L. into New York State, was before the Supreme Court in New York. The Judge decided that the respondent is entitled to an order requiring security, and it was ordered accordingly.

That is right. The case itself is an insult to the state. The law in the case is as plain as it can be. The Boston Journal says:

This case is one upon the decision of which much interest is felt. The plaintiff, Mr. Lemmon, brought several negroes to New York en route for Texas, and they were freed by Judge Paine on the established principle of law in the Free States, that a slave voluntarily brought into a state where slavery does not exist by the local law, becomes free. Mr. Lemmon was compensated by parties in New York for the loss of his slaves, but measures were taken by interested parties at the South, and particularly by the Virginia Legislature, to test the constitutionality of this decision. An appeal was accordingly taken to the Supreme Court of New York, and the case will ultimately be carried up to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Although the emancipation of a slave by the voluntary act of his master in bringing him into a free State, is a well established principle of law at the North, yet we are not aware that any decision has been pronounced upon this point by the Supreme Court of the United States. In an analogous case, that tribunal has decided that a State can prescribe the status of persons within its own jurisdiction, and this common sense interpretation of federal relations and State authority must, we think, apply to such cases as the Lemmon slave case.

MONEY LOST IN THE MAILS—AN INTERESTING AND IMPORTANT DECISION.—An applicant for a patent, on withdrawal of his application, instructed the Commissioner of Patents to forward to him by mail the sum of $20 due him from the government on said withdrawal. The money was sent to him agreeably to his instructions, and was lost in course of transmission. On his application to be remunerated said sum, it was held that the Post Office Department is established for the convenience of the people, and it is a medium for them to transmit and receive intelligence and all mailable matter; but it is not an insurance office. The postage charged is no more in the estimation of Congress than a fair compensation for the services rendered, and it is not a reward for any risk run in conveying mailable matter. If the Postmaster General, or the President and Senate, have appointed a dishonest Postmaster, the United States are not bound to remunerate the loss of an individual sustained by his having violated the law; and no liability is imposed on the United States in this case, from the fact that they were the trustees of said applicant, and sent the money by mail as he directed.—Washington Star, 9th.

Amos Kendall, when Postmaster General, proposed that our Post Office should transmit small sums of money, after the English manner. But he was so unpopular, that the plan, though excellent, was not adopted.

ALEXANDRIA, June 12.—Col. Suttle says that no offer to purchase Burns has been made. Meanwhile, he announces his intention of remaining at Richmond, Va., and declares that he went to the North a Union man, but returned a disunionist.

That's it. He spits on the docfaces,—and despises the government whose army and judiciary held and sent back his slave.

REV. ANTHONY BURNS.—The Congregationalist states (and Rev. Mr. Dexter has affirmed the same before,) that Burns, who has just been carried back to slavery, was "a regularly licensed minister of the gospel," of the Baptist denomination, and belonged to the same church with Col. Suttle.—Boston Chron.

The same story has been told here. We do not vouch for its truth: and if true, it does not amount to any new revelation of the blessed institution. Such cases are quite common.

REWARDS.—The Mayor and Aldermen of Boston have offered $200 reward for the apprehension of the murderer of Mr. James Batchelder, and the same amount for information which will lead to the arrest of the parties who assaulted Richard H. Dana, Jr., Esq., some days since.

At the same meeting, the order from the other Board for the payment of $2 per day to the military when called out to preserve the public peace, was on motion of Alderman Dunham indefinitely postponed, after a lengthy discussion. It was objected to because it offered a premium for riots, or occasions when the service of the military may be needed. Alderman Washburn and Munroe spoke of the recent occasion that called for the aid of the military arm.

COMMENT IS SUPERFLUOUS.—The Richmond Enquirer publishes two anonymous communications, one of which suggests, as a retaliation for the "recent conduct of some Bostonians, that the people of the South shall refuse to subscribe to any journal published in a free state, and dismiss from their employment any Northern men who have not given unmistakable evidence of their devotion to Southern interests and institutions. The other recommends that the Southern people generally unite in declaring that henceforward they will never deal or trade, in any manner, with any community in which scenes similar to those lately enacted in Boston shall occur, and that for every fugitive slave withheld or rescued, hereafter, a Northern vessel in their ports shall be confiscated to the owner of the slave.

And these suggestions, the Enquirer says, 'commend themselves to its approval, by their manifest propriety and efficiency.'—N. Y. Commercial.

The shop keepers in Paris do not like the idea of closing their stalls on Sunday, albeit the archbishop is doing his best to bring them into the measure.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

CONCORD, June 12.

Wednesday has been assigned for the choice in Convention of Secretary of State, Treasurer, and public printer.

A great many bills for banks, five cents savings institutions, and for increase of bank capital, have been introduced, and will make bank matters a prominent feature of the session.

Tuesday, June 13, 1 P. M.

The House has refused to lay the anti-Nebraska resolutions on the table by a vote of of 158 to 147. Four democrats and one whig absent.

A motion to refer the resolutions to a special committee is now under discussion, and has opened up the whole Nebraska and Compromise questions. The speeches, thus far, have been earnest and temperate.

We have the very best authority for saying that Mr. Wood has not been "appointed chaplain in the U. S. Navy."—N. H. Daily Patriot.

Well; that's a pity; for it almost spoils our paragraph about him. Not quite, though; for he did certify, as described, though as the Patriot says, he is not chaplain.

TRANSACTIONS OF THE ROCKINGHAM FAIR, 1853.—This is the title of a pamphlet of nearly one hundred pages, from the press of Smith, Hall & Clarke, Exeter. It consists of a mass of useful and interesting matter,—giving a History of the old Rockingham Co. Agricultural Society, from its incorporation in 1814, to its last exhibition, in 1829; the organization of the Rockingham Fair, 1853; the proceedings at the preliminary meetings; its Exhibition in September last; list of premiums; committees and their instructions, with an account of the pleasing display at the first fair; statements from various agriculturists in old Rockingham regarding their own processes by which to achieve agricultural success; a list of the names of Life Members, and the Address, by Simon Brown, Esq., editor of the New England farmer, at the first fair.

The public will recognize in this pamphlet the skillful and diligent hand of Henry F. French, Esq., widely known as a tasteful horticulturist and arborist, who has found time, amidst the cares of extensive professional business, to make himself practically acquainted with farm and garden culture.

A truck horse belonging to Mr. Samuel Rundlet, became frightened at the Georgetown Railroad Depot, Newburyport, on Friday afternoon, and run from the driver, who was thrown down by the wheel, which passed over his body and considerably injured him. Thence he passed without injury to Brown's square, where he struck a tree, and tore it from the earth. Next he upset the wagon at the corner of Pleasant and Green streets, throwing Mr. B. F. Parker to the ground, who fortunately and narrowly escaped injury; whence he passed to Unicorn street, where he was secured and returned to the owner.—Herald.

The Sons of Newburyport in New York have engaged Dodworth's Band for their visit on the 4th of July.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, June 12.

SENATE.—The House discussed a proposition fixing a day of adjournment sine die.

Mr. Walbridge amended his resolution, altering the 3d to the 17th. The resolution was rejected.

Mr. Havens proposed the Senate resolution, also rejected.

Mr. Orr proposed the 14th of August for the final adjournment, which was adopted by 82 to 68.

Mr. Hilyer asked leave to introduce a bill, fixing the annual meeting of Congress for the first Monday in September.

A select Committee of six was appointed to consider a memorial of 1000 citizens of Delaware, for the action of government in placing the guano trade with Peru on a more just and liberal commercial basis. The Senate then adjourned.

The Washington correspondent of the North American says that "a number of Southern Senators are said to have declared that they would oppose any treaty for the settlement of the Fishery question, or for the establishment of reciprocal trade with Canada, unless it shall contain a clause for the surrender of fugitive slaves."

FROM CHILI.—We have received the Valparaiso Herald of May 1. On the 15th and 16th of April the city was visited by a violent rain, which continued for two entire days.—The streams were so swollen as to do a great deal of damage, and such was the violence of the currents in many instances that men and horses in attempting to ford them, were carried away and drowned. No less than 12 dead bodies were taken up in different ravines of the city.

At 4 o'clock in the morning after the heaviest rain, there was a land slide, which fell upon a house occupied as a boarding school for young ladies, broke through the wall, and filled the house with earth. Fortunately it was a holiday season, and few of the boarders were present. In one room, however, four young ladies were sleeping, one of whom was killed, and the others were injured.

PATTERSON, N. J., June 12.—On the railroad in this city to-day, two laborers were thrown from a gravel train on the track, the whole train of seven cars passing over them; one had his head severed from his body, the other was so badly injured that his recovery is unexpected.

MUSIC IN NEW YORK.—The programme of the Musical Congress at the Crystal Palace is issued, and is of a most imposing character. Among the musical societies taking part in it, in addition to many in New York, are the Germania Society, Handel and Haydn Society, Musical Education Society, Mendelssohn Choral Society, all of Boston. The Musical Choir, of Hartford, Bridgeport Musical Society, and various others from southern cities.

The New York Commercial, a journal which is very careful in its statements of facts, learns from Washington that a fisheries treaty on principles of reciprocity, has been concluded between Secretary Marcy and the British Minister, and that it is expected the two Governments will promptly ratify it.

The New York Express says, the news by the Asia gives us a lower cotton market, and an improved market for breadstuffs. The latter is of very little benefit, as we have but a limited supply, and will only serve to raise our home prices to a higher point.

NEWPORT, 6th.—The funeral of the late Judah Touro, of New Orleans, was solemnized to-day, in the Jewish Synagogue, with imposing ceremonies, and with every demonstration of respect, in which all the city authorities and public bodies joined. Many Hebrews from abroad were present.

Cholera and small pox prevail so among the emigrants at Staten Island, N. Y., that the Board of Health have been obliged to take the government warehouses to accommodate their patients.

Mr. Noble Butler, in a letter to that journal, thanks the N. Y. Times for its efforts in his behalf, and states that by the aid of citizens in Louisville he is placed beyond the need of pecuniary assistance.

The small pox has created some panic in Ossipee, N. H., where four or five deaths have occurred from this disease, which it is said was brought to the town by a girl from the Great Falls factories.

A boat with six persons in it was accidentally upset on Winthrop's Pond, in Holliston, on Sunday the 11th inst., and two young men by the name of Michael Kanally and Edmund Rawley were drowned.

The young Empress of Austria is very handsome, very accomplished, and quite a poetess. Her father was a clever man, but her uncle is the celebrated personage who was the protector of Lola Montez.

George Kent, Esq., formerly of Concord N. H. and more recently of the Boston Custom House, has entered into partnership in the practice of law with his brother, Ex-Governor Edward Kent, at Bangor, Me.

The Wilmington Gazette states, on the authority of a gentleman who passed the powder wagons last week, about an hour before the explosion, that the drivers were smoking cigars!

In Hartford, Md., seven little children were crossing a stream of water when a plank which supported them broke, and three out of the seven were drowned; aged thirteen, nine, and seven years.

Mrs. Dennistown, daughter of ex-President Tyler, and wife of Rev. Mr. Dennistown, Rector of St. Paul's Church in Louisville, died on Thursday, after a short illness.

The Philadelphia markets are stocked with delicious strawberries, selling in varieties at 8 to 37 cents per quart.

At Jackson, Miss., on the 1st inst., they had ripe pears and apples; considerably in advance of New Orleans.

Strawberries at Fulton market, New York, on the 10th, were sold at 18 3-4c a quart; small baskets at 6 a 9c.

BACON.—200 Westphalia Hams for sale by j8 W. SIMES & Co.

There was a protracted and somewhat bloody fight at Buffalo on Sunday afternoon, on the dock at the foot of Washington street, between some negroes and Irishmen. Three of the negroes were badly beaten, one of them to such an extent that it was supposed he would die, but he is better, and will probably recover. Some six or eight were arrested.—It seems to have been a spontaneous outbreak, without any other cause than the mutual jealousy and dislike subsisting between the Celtish and African races.—Newburyport Herald.

This mutual jealousy and dislike between these races, is as void of reason as it is of goodness. We suppose, also, that liquor, which abounds in Buffalo, helped to make the quarrel.

DR. ORDWAY'S
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. Kelley, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES.

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.
PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded to the present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

MORNING CHRONICLE.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,
A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

ROWDY STUDENTS.—We learn that the law students, whose frequent offences against the laws made them so notorious in Boston a few weeks since, have forfeited their bail and will not appear to answer the charges against them. It will be remembered that Judge Russell sentenced two of the worst of the party to four and six months imprisonment in the common jail, from which they appealed and gave the requisite bonds to prosecute the appeal — Their friends, after investigating the facts in the case, have concluded that it was best they should pay the $600 bail and fly the state.

Had they been arrested for all their misdeeds they would have had to pay roundly for their release. It is well that our courts should take proper cognizance of assaults upon city officers, and streets fights from this class of persons, as they are not under college discipline while connected with the medical or law department at Harvard, and great injustice has been done the college students by identifying them with those whose conduct has induced them to go "South for their health."

One of this party made a most unprovoked atack upon a gentleman of our acquaintance, and had the blow been struck only a few inches higher, his life would have been endangered.

At another time one of the number drew a pistol upon a private watchman who forbid their attempting to enter a hotel, where they had behaved on a former visit in such a manner as to forfeit all claim to be treated with respect. At another time they made a disturbance after midnight under our window by the destruction of glass; and finally, the watchman they assaulted, for which they were arrested, is in the employment of one of our mercantile friends, and we were thus acquainted with the circumstances of the case.

It is owing to these facts that we have taken unusual interest in its prosecution, and we hope the day is far distant when we shall have to record such a series of violations of law, at the hands of any young men connected with Harvard College. Young men there must respect themselves if they would keep out of watch houses and not figure in police reports. —Boston Transcript.

Slavery among the Chinese seems to be quite a different affair from what it is among other Eastern nations, or the nation of the West. The Java Bode, a newsaper published at Batavia, where there is a large Chinese population, furnishes a pleasing anecdote which shows the good feelings of the Chinese in regard to the unfortunate objects of slavery, and the self-relying spirit of the slaves themselves. Twelve slaves were to be sold at a Chinese camp, and were placed upon a table, in four lots, each having a small sum of money in his hand. A person who acted as their agent, stepped foward and stated that his clients having accumulated some small savings, solicited the favor of being allowed to bid for the purchase of themselves. The first bid, by their agent, was forty trances, and they were knocked down to themselvs, and the other lots bought themselves at a still lower price. Though they were worth much larger sums, the large company of Chinese present at the sale refrained from competing with the poor slaves.

AUSTRIA AND HER DEBT.—The deeply embarrassed financial state of Austria renders a war exceedingly difficult to her to undertake. Austrian fiscal mismanagement has been, for over half a century, the wonder and problem of the rest of Europe. In profound peace from 1816 till 1848, her debt has increased from 300,000,000 florins, paying an interest of 5,400,000 florins, to 1,500,000,000, at the present time, paying an interest of 70,000,000—nearly half of the whole income of the empire! There is no nation in the world which seems so inextricably involved. Specie payments have long been suspended, and at last accounts, silver and gold were at a premium of from 38 to 40 per cent. Even in time of peace there is a yearly deficit. A year or two of war must ruin her completely. Yet she maintains a firm front in the midst of her reverses and misfortunes, and perhaps holds, at this critical moment, the destinies of the European continent in her hands.—Journal of Commerce.

A RACE FOR LIFE.—As the 1 o'clock train on the Old Colony Railroad was on its way for Braintree, on Thursday, the engineer discovered at some distance ahead an old horse grazing on the track. The whistle was immediately made to utter its most alarming shriek, when the horse signified his cognizance of the 'ugly customer' in his wake, by very loudly neighing and a lofty tumbling of the heels. But instead of clearing the track, the animal started off as if for a long heat, pursuing his rapid course directly along the rails, and on came the thundering engine after him. Thus for half a mile or more the ancient race horse 'held his own,' but soon began to lag, and finding that the odds were a little too much against him, he plunged off the track into a ditch of deep mud, which proved nearly as hazardous to life, and made him look like anything but a horse as he emerged.—Boston Transcript.

AN INCIDENT.—On Tuesday afternoon, as we learn from the N. Y. Evening Post, quite an excitement was created in one of the streets of New York, by the appearance of a boy three years old, on the roof of a four story house. He stood there proudly, looking over the cornice, and swinging his hat. Two gentlemen who were passing, rushed into the house, and ascending to the scuttle, called the child in a calm voice to come to them. He turned round and obeyed the call. He was the only son of a widow lady, and during the absence of his mother, had succeeded in climbing the stairs and getting out of the scuttle.

THAT PULPIT.—The pulpit which floated down the Naugatuck, in the late freshet, originally belonged to the old Congregational Church of Prospect. When the church was taken down, some boys stole the pulpit, and carried it to Naugatuck, where it was used as the bed room of the pigs in a pig pen. Last November, it was carried off by the freshet, and lodged, probably, in some island, from which the May freshet dislodged it. The original user of the pulpit was noted for his Temperance addresses, hence the predilection of the pulpit for cold water.—Hartford Cour.

THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1854.

SLAVE HUNTING IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.

There are no free states in this Union now. A man may be hunted in New Hampshire as a slave, and we who call ourselves freemen must not resist the hunter, lest we break some sacred law, and perchance get our own necks broken in the encounter, or perish on the scaffold thereafter for our presumption.

We have already published a brief statement of the fact that a fugitive had been tracked to New Hampshire and sent from Manchester into Queen Victoria's dominions as a refuge from oppression.

We now copy the following particulars from the Manchester Mirror of Monday, and commend them to the attention of our legislators:

Yesterday, the 11th inst., the stillness of our usual Sabbath mornings, in this city, was broken in upon by a rumor that information had been received that a slave owner was in pursuit of a colored barber in this city. The story in reference to it and the consequent action of the barber and his friends, formed the chief topic of conversation during the day, and the fact was referred to in the prayers of most of the clergymen, and by some in their sermons. The barber's name, as he has given it, is Moore. He says that he ran away from his master in Virginia about 12 years ago.—Since then he has worked as a barber at different places; several years he kept a shop at Lowell. During the past four months he has worked as a barber for S. H. Bowman, in this city. He is a fine looking colored man, thick set, stout and well proportioned, of great muscular power, possesses good information and has made himself very popular as a barber, and his friends among the patrons of that saloon are numerous. He has a wife, a free woman, and three children, in Vermont.—Ever since the passage of the Fugitive Slave Bill he has been fearful of arrest, and has kept his family in some retired place, so that they might be secure.

Information, it is said, came from Virginia to the "Vigilance Committee" of Boston, that the owner of him was on his way to Boston after him. At Boston the owner was watched for, and his name was found Saturday on the books of one of the hotels. After remaining in Boston a while he came to Lowell, but close upon his track were men to tell of his business. It is said that some one got into his confidence in Lowell, in the evening, and found from the description that he was in pursuit of Moore. The "Committee" immediately started two men with a horse to bring the information here, where they arrived at two o'clock yesterday morning. A handsome purse was made up in a short time, and by noon he was on his way to Canada, the Free Slave Territory, where he will be, probably, before he sleeps to-night.

Some regard the story of the owner's being in pursuit of him as a "sell," but "sell" or not, he was fearful that if he remained here, he should be remanded back as a fugitive, and "sold" into a worse slavery than he had ever yet experienced. The story, however, comes pretty direct. Moore has enjoyed the sweet air of Freedom too long to be willing to run a risk of again being put in manacles and chains. He has been armed for years, and is a man of such nerve and physical power as when forewarned would never be taken alive.

SLAVERY IN KANSAS.—Richard Medenhall, mission teacher at the Friends' Shawnee Mission, writes to the National Era, under date of the 14th ult., from that station, that slavery exists in Kansas, and did before the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, notwithstanding the institution was then illegal. He says that Thomas Johnson, who has been at Washington all this season, claiming a seat as an elected representative from Nebraska, is the superintendent of an extensive missionary establishment in Kansas, under the direction of the Southern Methodist Episcopal Church, at which slaves have long been kept to do the menial service.

It was in the same way that slavery once existed in New Hampshire. It was never legal here, but it actually existed and increased in spite of all the nonsense we read about its unprofitableness making it impossible in certain climates and circumstances. It existed in Massachusetts, in the same manner, and when once brought to a legal test in Boston, was declared illegal. From that moment it was legally dead in New Hampshire, though it had a quasi life for years afterwards.

Exactly so in Kansas. It has lived there, illegally, mobbishly, seditiously. But now, by the new laws of the land, it is legalized and sanctified; and now, presto, change, it is, we take it, seditious to act or speak against it there. Its opponents may be allowed, perhaps, to wink, or think: but to do anything more would be levying war against the United States, and shaking the commonwealth.

THE ASSAULT ON MR. DANA.—On Friday, in Boston, Mr. Lewis Clark, the bail for the alleged assaulter, was defaulted in $500, as the latter had absconded.

His absconding is a virtual plea of guilty. Mr. Dana accurately described this one of the slave catchers.

Readers will see by the cattle market report, that beef has fallen $2 a hundred pounds within a week at New York. The fall in flour is $1 to $1.50. Both articles are abundant. Speculators and forestallers will have hard work to keep them up.—Boston Post.

SEDITION.—An English writer in alluding to the governmental interpretation of this word, by which thoughts and words in opposition to those in authority are declared to fall within its meaning, says, "Dreams may be seditious!"

For the Morning Chronicle.

CUBA.

Will some one state even a single advantage the acquisition of Cuba would be to the free States? The question of its acquisition will soon agitate this nation, and its free discussion would tend to elicit truth. So far as we can judge from some of the Southern journals and the Washington Union, the administration, acting in obedience to the South, is resolved upon annexing Cuba, by purchase, or else by war.

We might state strong objections to either course, but, at present, express our conviction that its annexation would be a positive injury to the North. In a commercial point of view it would be an injury. Some may think that were Cuba admitted into the Union, its products would be purchased at cheaper rates.—Merchants now carrying on trade there, are of a different opinion. It is well understood that the South want Cuba in order to extend and strengthen their institution of slavery. In this they have a selfish motive, viz.: to advance the price of the products of the island, which now come in competition with their present products.

A writer in a New Orleans paper has recently submitted a long argument to the public to prove that the Southern planters cannot thrive at the present low prices of sugar, molasses, &c., because such articles can be purchased at cheaper rates at Cuba, and were the island annexed, a general arrangement might be entered into to regulate and enhance the price. But this cannot be done, while the island is under the Spanish dominion.

The objections to the proposed acquisition are so numerous and formidable, that their brief statement would require an extended article. We hardly think that Cuba can ever be admitted into our Union as a slave State, and her admission as a free State would encounter the united opposition of the Southern planters. —| T.

We are in favor of the purchase of Cuba, but not of its conquest. We hope also that Spain will free her slaves there, first, and sell out afterwards.

For the Chronicle.

NEW SHIP PUMPS.

To the Editors of the Morning Chronicle:

GENTLEMEN:—Seeing several accounts in the papers the past six months, of trouble by leaky ships, I am induced through your popular paper to give ship owners and underwriters some valuable information.

It is well known here, that our townsman, Mr. Thomas Odion, has invented a set of Ship's Pumps, (nautical men know that two are a set) which pumps, if used on board ships, I am certain will save life, property and hard work for sailors. About a year since, Mr. O. sent to the Patent Office at Washington, all the necessary papers and a model of his Pumps.

After waiting about six months, without getting a reply, he went to Washington about the matter. On calling on the Commissioner of Patents and explaining to him what was necessary, he left for home, the Commissioner telling him he should hear from him in two weeks, from which Mr. Odion supposed his Patent would come in that time.

When he heard from the Commissioner, instead of getting his Patent, he was merely notified that the Commissioner declined to give him one; and his refusal was grounded on what I call a trifling, fictitious and shameful excuse.*

The object of this communication is to ask, through you, the editors of papers in Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, to copy this, requesting the Insurance Offices in those cities to send a board of nautical men here to see the operation of Mr. Odion's Pumps, and after seeing their operation to make a report, which I have no doubt would be highly favorable. If the Presidents of the Offices approve of the report, it would then be proper for them to write to the President, asking him to direct the Secretary of the Navy to send a board of competent officers here to see the operation of Mr. O.'s Pumps. Should the report of the government officers be as I think it would be highly favorable, then let a communication, signed by the Presidents of the Insurance Offices, be sent to the President of the United States, asking him to have the business looked into, and see if an invention that will save life and property, besides hard work for that valuable class of men, the sailors, shall not be patented.

I have no hesitation in saying that a ship without any extra men, could cross the Atlantic in safety with a one and a half or two inch auger hole through her bottom plank, with Mr. Odion's Pumps in use.

If the Commissioner of Patents had handled and seen handled a pump brake as much as I have, I think, if he is what he ought to be, he would have granted Mr. Odion a patent at once. Respectfully, JOHN SALTER.

Portsmouth, June, 1854.

*The excuse was, that a man somewhere, had invented and patented a single pump, to be operated by cattle in a cattle yard which had a spiral spring;—and therefore he would not patent a set of pumps for a ship, because this also had a spiral spring; though the cattle pump could not be used on ship board.

LOCAL.

☞ It will be seen that Mr. Wenzel has changed his quarters to the old Waldron House, which has been fitted for him as a repository of specimens of the fine arts. He has just received a good supply of pictures of varied character; and one can hardly examine his portfolios without meeting with something that exactly suits the fancy. Mr. W. also manufactures Frames, Fancy Boxes, &c., and binds books in his usual excellent style.

RECREATION.—Those who can enjoy a Pleasant drive, this afternoon, will see by our advertising columns that several of the summer Houses in this vicinity are to open to-day—including Highland Cottage at Stratham, the Gerrish House at Kittery Point, and the Ocean House on Rye Beach. "All work and no play," &c.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

Abridged from the Patriot.

TUESDAY, June 13.

The business of the Legislature, in addition to that already reported in Wednesday's Chronicle, consisted mostly of the reception and reference of petitions for various matters.

In the Senate a resolution was read three times and passed, that the Legislature adjourn on Saturday, July 1.

On motion of Mr. Eastman the Committee on the judiciary were directed to inquire into the expediency of making cities and towns liable for damages caused by mobs and riots within the limits of said cities or towns.

In the House, among a mass of other petitions, the following of local interest were offered, and referred to appropriate committees:

By Mr. Goodrich of Portsmouth, the petition of the Directors of the Mechanics' and Traders' Bank, for amendment of charter; by Mr. McMurphy, that of William Plumer and others, for a bank at Epping; by Mr. Stickney of Exeter, that of the Granite Bank, for an extension of the time allowed them to settle the concerns of the company.

Mr. Harvey of Portsmouth introduced a bill to incorporate the Rockinghum Ice Company.

The petition of Wm. J. Laighton and 180 others, for a State Reform School, was referred to a special committee of ten, to be named hereafter.

The balance of the day was occupied in the discussion of the propriety of referring the Anti-Nebraska resolutions to a special committee, and when the House adjourned at 5 o'clock P. M., the debate was not concluded.

CONCORD, June 13.—At 11 o'clock to-day, the Senate and House in Convention balloted for State officers with the following result:

For Secretary of State—

John L. Hadley of Concord, dem., had	168
Geo. L. Towle of Lebanon, whig.	109
Moses A. Cartland of Lee, free soil,	44
Blank,	1

Hadley's majority, 15.

Every member but one Democrat, at home sick, was present and voted.

The following was the vote for State Treasurer:

Walter Harriman of Concord, dem.,	169
Richard P. Kent of Lancaster, whig,	108
Nathaniel S. Berry of Hebron, free soil,	44

For Public Printer:

Wm. Butterfield of the Patriot,	157
A. McFarland of the Statesman,	90
Geo. G. Fogg of the Ind. Democrat,	43
Barton & Hadley of the Reporter,	11

Scattering, 7; Blank, 2.

No choice. And the ballot will probably be had this afternoon.

At 5 o'clock, P. M., when the train left Concord, the Convention was occupied in the 4th ballot.

The House adjourned last evening after discussing the Anti-Nebraska resolutions up to adjournment; the resolutions have not been taken up to-day.

SONS OF NEWBURYPORT.—We understand that preparations are making at Newburyport for a splendid celebration of the approaching anniversary of independence in that city. Invitations have been addressed to natives of that place resident abroad, to return on that day and participate in the celebration.

INCENDIARISM AND SUICIDE.—Our paper of yesterday contained a notice of the burning of a barn and the setting fire of a house in Douglas, belonging to Dexter Richards. We learn from the Worcester Transcript that the incendiary was a man named Moses Chase, who had occupied the house but had been ejected on the previous day, on a warrant obtained by Mr. Richards. The deed was committed out of revenge. On the afternoon of the same day Chase was found dead, suspended by the neck from the limb of a tree about twenty rods from the premises, having committed the crime of suicide to escape from the terrors of the law.—Boston Journal.

Mrs. Davidson, residing near Lawrenceburg, Ky., fled from her home on the 20th ult. with a married man, her brother in law, leaving her wife and her husband and two children, and taking with them to facilitate their progress, a horse valued at $150, a gold watch and other articles of value.

Eight Mormons, distinguished men of that church, have just arrived from Utah, as missionaries to the United States, Europe and Ireland. They came overland, and report the emigrants in good health and getting along well. The Mormon emigration is about one-half what it was last year, and to California, two thirds.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Monday, June 5th, Mr. Ebenezer Wilbur, of Eastbrook, took tea with his family in his usual comfortable health, walked to a neighbor's about a quarter of a mile distant, and there suddenly dropped down dead.—Portland Argus.

LATEST NEWS.—8000 French troops had landed at Piræus, and took possession. King Otho has accepted the Ultimatum of France and England, and summoned a new Ministry.

The Anglo French Squadron has been ordered to the White Sea.

Admiral Napier had battered the outposts of Hango, but up to the 22d had not captured the main fortress.

Silistria was holding out bravely on the 27th.

It is reported that Omar Pasha is going to its relief.

Marshal St. Arnaud, Omar Pasha and Lord Raglan had held a council near Varna.

It is said that the Anglo French army will proceed to Adrianople.

Austria, it is stated, had despatched a formal demand to the Czar on the 2d, to withdraw his forces from the Turkish Territory.

The new Steamer City of Philadelphia was launched in the Clyde on the 23d.

French threes closed on Friday 72 55; four and halfs 97.

NEW ORLEANS, June 12.—From Mexico.—A steamer has arrived from Vera Cruz, with dates from the city of Mexico to the 5th inst.

It was rumored that the Gadsden Treaty was not accepted, but returned to Washington by Santa Anna, with amendments.

Great preparations were being made for celebrating Santa Anna's birthday on the 13th, when, it was currently reported, he would declare himself Emperor.

Nothing further is known concerning Alvarez.

Mr. Gadsden arrived at Vera Cruz on the 31st, and was received with unusual attention. He immediately proceeded to the capital.

The British ship Challenge arrived at Guayamas on the 24th of May, from San Francisco, with 380 troops, mostly Frenchmen, recently enlisted in San Francisco by the Mexican Consul.

NEW YORK, June 14.—FRAUD IN THE NEBRASKA BILL.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Times, telegraphs that an astounding fraud has just been discovered by Messrs. Campbell of Ohio, Benton, Mace and others, in the Nebraska bill. It seems that Mr. Richardson stated to the House that his substitute was the Senate bill, simply without the Clayton proviso, when in fact he had inserted a clause providing that no persons other than citizens of the United States should hold office or vote, until they had sworn to support the principles of this bill.

Mr. Mace will introduce a bill amending and explaining the Nebraska act, and Messrs. Campbell, Benton and others, will take the floor in denunciation of the fraud.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Prof. College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Joel Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Pearson Malcom, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, consisting of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St. below Chestnut st., Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

A Western editor appeals in the following eloquent language, to the sympathies of his delinquent subscribers:

"We cannot help thinking how much easier an editor's life might be made, if his generous patrons could only hear his "better half" scraping the bottom of the flour barrel! A man that can write editorials with such music sounding in his ears, can easily walk telegraph wires, and turn somersets in the branches of a thorn bush."

COLORED PERSONS IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The census returns of 1850 report but 520 colored persons in the whole State of New Hampshire, which is a less number than in any other Free State except Iowa.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corr upt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, humps and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year and to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause many singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. A friend of mine, of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence has suffered so much for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet even is necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a
POISONOUS GUM RESIN,
Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found it a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as rendered as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold at auction, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS.
Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 116.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.
TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,
A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

Three graves of three negroes were dug and their shrouds were prepared in Northumberland county, Va., and their execution was about to take place, when a reprieve or pardon arrived from Gov. Johnson. He had been delayed by high water and other obstacles, and on the morning of the intended execution day was twenty-five miles from the place where the gallows was erected—just an hour and a half before the ropes were to be adjusted. They had been convicted of an attempt to poison their master.

Mr. Fannin, who was shot dead at Aberdeen, Miss., by M. J. Bunch, was an officer in the Texan revolution, and brother to the heroic Fannin who was butchered by Santa Anna. Fannin had won a large sum of money of Bunch at cards, and went to his room to receive it at the time specified. Finding the door locked, he had turned to go down stairs, when Bunch opened the door and shot him in the back. The murderer was not arrested.

CATHOLIC CREDULITY.—The New York Freeman's Journal, announces that it is "an ascertained fact" that the Know Nothings are mostly Englishmen and Irish Protestants, in the pay of the British government, and that England pays their fare when they come and go between Philadelphia and New York at every chance of a riot! The New York Commercial Advertiser, in alluding to this discovery, adds that "perhaps the British government supplies them ballots also at Washington and Philadelphia."

THE ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD OPENING.—A correspondent at St. Paul's, Minnesota, informs us that the excursion party was to arrive in that town on Friday last, and great preparations had been made for their reception. Hon. Horace Greeley, Ex-President Fillmore, and Gov. Mattison of Illinois, were expected among the crowd of distinguished visitors. A grand ball, dinner, &c., were in course of preparation, and all the carriages in town had been engaged to convey the party on a pleasure visit to a neighboring lake, shortly after their arrival.—Boston Journal.

Mrs. Susan Gratiot, while on her return from Washington to her home in Illinois, in company with the family of her son-in-law, E. B. Washburn, member of congress, died at a tavern in Warren, Ill., of cholera. She was one of seven persons who organized the first Protestant church west of the Mississippi river.

The examination of the Cadets at West Point commenced on the 1st inst. On the 20th the young men are to go into camp not far from the Academy grounds. Among the new pupils is one from Tennessee, who stands six feet eight inches in height. His 'plume' may be seen towering above his fellows in any crowd.

On Monday last, the first day of the Association Races in the vicinity of Lexington, Ky., just as the horses started one stumbled, and falling, threw his rider; immediately afterwards the second horse stumbled upon the one already down, and likewise threw his rider, injuring the two youths to such an extent that their lives are despaired of.

An unusual number of emigrants, principally English and German, are said to be arriving in the St. Lawrence, bound to the West. The Toronto Colonist says:—"The tide of emigration appears to be setting towards Quebec, instead of New York. The manner in which emigrants have been plundered and cheated in New York has given rise to this change."

WARNING TO BOYS.—This morning, a barefooted boy intruded himself into a cellar window of the New England Type Foundry, 66 Congress street, and very badly burned one foot and ankle, by stepping into a kettle of molten type metal, and the other foot was badly scorched by treading on the hot iron rim of the kettle.—Boston Transcript.

The Richmond Despatch says the funeral of Joseph Abrams, a colored man, at the African Church, was the largest that has ever taken place in that city. The estimated number in and about the church was put down at 8000. Over fifty carriages followed the corpse to the grave.

The Queen of England, at her recent visit to the French Ambassador, who gave a grand fete which owed its splendor to the unusual circumstance of her presence, danced four quadrilles in the course of the evening. Poor Mary, Queen of Scotts, was denounced for her love of dancing, when she was but 18!

Matt. Ward's laundress—a slave, of course—took passage on the underground railroad from Louisville for Canada, a day or two since. She said she couldn't possibly associate with such an unpopular individual any onger—much less, do his washing.

MINUTE ENEMIES.—A correspondent of the Times writes from the Scutari that the English soldiers swear terribly at the fleas which swarm in the barracks just vacated by the Turks. The soldiers ought to select one of the biggest, and put it in the ear of the Emperor of Russia.

MAYORS AND MILITIA.

An anonymous correspondent in the Boston Courier, calling himself "a Counsellor," sharply reviews Mr. Chandler's article against Mayor Smith's manner of calling out the militia.

The Transcript says:

The writer in the Courier, whose communication is in reply to the recent article by Hon. P. W. Chandler, dodges the main points in the case, and attacks his opponent in a matter not at all warranted by his antecedents and high personal, as well as professional character.

A writer in the Post furnishes a much better article upon the same subject, but does not seem to remove the main objections urged in Mr. Chandler's argument. The great point is, that the Mayor of the city undertook to place the city, the whole city, under the authority of the military. If the Mayor may do this at one time, he may at another. If he may do it on Friday, he may do it for a whole week. The question to be decided, and the one, as we understand it, Mr. Chandler discussed with great ability, is a very simple one, viz: Were the orders given by the Mayor in accordance with the law? A more important question never was discussed in this community.

The article in the Courier says of Mr. Chandler:—

He is not content with the doctrine of the founders of our Constitution, viz; that "they reserved as much of natural liberty as was consistent with the maintenance of government and order."

We stick a pin here, and say that we admire the quotation and adopt its principle.—Behind all human laws, back of all paper constitutions, must lie in our bosoms an approving sense of right and justice,—and a condemnation of wrong and outrage, whether under color of law, or any other cloak whatever.

THE MILITIA.

Governor Baker proposes to re-establish a small military force in this State, substantially, we suppose, on the plan enacted into a law by the Coalition in 1845.

This plan was to enroll all soldiers as formerly; but only to train and pay the uniform companies.

This law was repealed as soon as the democratic party regained its ascendency, and the general trainings went on again. But on a sudden, the whole training system was again suspended, and there it has hung for some time.

We cannot predict the fate of the Governor's motion.

ELECTROTYPE CUTS.

New Stock Cuts, or a few Specimens from A. H. Jocelyn's New York Electrotype Establishment, Office, No. 58 and 60 Fulton St., New York.

From the numerous specimens in this book, it is manifest that work of the highest order is produced at the establishment of Mr. Jocelyn, at a moderate cost, and in great variety.

Bowing Out.—The Newburyport Herald, speaking of Mr. Banks's address at Waltham says:

He adheres to his anti-Nebraska opinions, and pretty deliberately took his leave of the democratic party, and shut the door after him as he retired. From present appearances the administration will have no representative in the next Congress, from Massachusetts; and the coalition now promises to be between the whigs and free soilers.

The Providence Journal inquires if imprisonment for debt prevails in Massachusetts?

The Boston Journal answers:

It does to a limited extent. If a man is able to pay a debt, but is not willing, he can be imprisoned, and his board must be paid by the creditor. If he is not able to pay, and so declares under oath, he cannot be held.

We add, that if he is ever so poor, it must cost him several dollars to take this oath, unless he is absolutely a pauper in the legal sense.

The Olive Branch.—This paper, published in Boston, from its commencement, by the late Rev. Thomas F. Norris, is now published by his son, Erasmus A. Norris, who is to be assisted in the editorial department by Mrs. Martha F. Gerry, wife of our friend Mr. C. F. Gerry, who has our good wishes for abundant success, both in making a good paper and reaping a good reward.

Ned Buntline's Wedding.—The Charleston, Mass., Advertiser, mentions the marriage in that city, on Tuesday, June 13, by Rev. Mr. Flint, of Edward Z. C. Judson—Ned Buntline,—and Miss Ione Judah, a Jewess, both of that city. The Advertiser states that the bride is very beautiful, and that the bridegroom is now married for the third time.

The Richmond Enquirer recommends to the southern people, to make their own shoes. Why don't they?

HANGING AND SPEAKING.

On Monday week, Sylvester Mayho, a free negro, was hanged at Halifax, North Carolina, for the murder of Rob Roberts, another free negro. On that day Gen. Dockery, the whig candidate for governor, had an appointment to address his fellow citizens at Weldon; but foreseeing that the execution would bring together a crowd, he postponed his performance at Weldon, and addressed the crowd at Halifax, after the hanging, and was uncommonly abusive toward his competitor, Mr. Bragg.

The Wilmington Journal hopes that Dockery's friends will not carry the joke so far as to get up negro hangings for his especial benefit, and remarks, for the information of its contemporaries out of the State, that public hangings are not the usual places at which candidates for governor of North Carolina address their fellow citizens.

All in bad taste, throughout; but that, we suppose, is the latest fashion in North Carolina.

☞ Six men were dreadfully scalded by the explosion of a boiler in the hat manufactory of Stephen T. Taylor, Brighton street, Boston, on Tuesday afternoon. The building and contents were much stove to pieces.—Sixteen men, at work in the upper stories, got out safely. The Courier says:

The accident was not unexpected by the persons doing business in the neighborhood, some of whom have gone so far as to admonish Mr. Taylor of the danger of exacting from an engine, which was registered as being of twenty five horse power, the power of a fifty horse engine. Mr. Taylor has himself employed fourteen horse power in driving the machinery used in the manufacture of hat bodies in his own establishment—and in addition to this, he has been accustomed to let, to the amount of thirty horse power to one neighbor, eight to another, and four to others. Yesterday there had been a pressure on the boiler of one hundred and forty pounds to the square inch, and it has been known to have been as high as one hundred and fifty. Mr. Beach, the person who has charge of the engine, is not a practical engineer, and has recently been called to fill the place of an experienced machinist.

FIRE IN WORCESTER, MASS.

On Wednesday, the 14th, at noon, the most destructive conflagration that ever occurred in Worcester, broke out about ten minutes after 12 o'clock, in the southern wing of Wm. T. Merrifield's establishment, situated upon Exchange, Union and Cypress streets, and occupying three sides of a whole square. The buildings were of brick, four stories high, and are occupied by various firms, among them, machinists, manufacturers of straw cutters, Massachusetts sewing machine company, carriage wheel manufactory, sash and blind manufacturers, and others. The building is entirely consumed. Very little of the property is covered by insurance.

The fire very soon crossed Union street.—The large buildings occupied by Allen & Thurber, pistol makers, were soon in flames, and were entirely consumed, with nearly all the contents. The basement story of Allen and Thurber's buildings was occupied by Thayer & Co., extensive manufacturers of machinery, and from this nothing was saved. Several men jumped from the third story, and the report is that Wm. Carey is killed; others are supposed to be among the ruins, but in the confusion which prevails, nothing can be known with certainty.

Several firemen who dropped down from exhaustion are in a critical condition. From Merrifield's, and Allen & Thurber's buildings, the fire spread in a northerly and easterly direction, consuming 15 buildings. The loss cannot fall much short of two hundred thousand dollars, and it sweeps away at least one quarter of the mechanical buildings of the city. About three acres of the most thickly settled portion of the city is swept clean. At this time the fire is got under, and no fear that it will extend farther. More than four hundred men are thrown out of employment by this fire, and many families are houseless.

Opening of Japanese Ports to American Trade.—By the terms of the commercial treaty negotiated by Commodore Perry, with the Japanese authorities, it is stated that two or more ports are to be opened to our trade. A coal depot is to be furnished and coals supplied. Provisions and water, with protection of life and property are to be guaranteed American vessels in distress upon any part of the coast; and in other particulars the treaty will closely resemble the treaty with China. The Japanese would listen to no extension of privileges to other nations. The following articles are enumerated as likely to be in demand by the Japanese:—Woolens of every description, preferable colors, red, blue and yellow. Hardware, including tools of all kinds, tin plates, stores, &c. Glass ware, window, plate and cut. Printed cottons of fine texture and high colors; carpeting; heavy cotton goods; fire arms; clocks; leather of bright colors, &c. From the Japanese we can procure silver, gold, and copper of unusual purity; tea and silk—the latter, however, of an inferior quality. The treaty was concluded on the 23d of March, after which the Princes dined with the Commodore. A private letter says:—"The Americans will rejoice to learn that their Navy has made a commercial treaty with the exclusive, the mysterious Japanese, and Yankee whalers can now pursue their gigantic game in these well filled seas, without the fear of a hostile shore upon their lee, and may put into Japanese ports to refit and refresh in confident security."

The opening of the Japanese ports is an important event, and will materially extend our foreign commerce. Its success is attributable to the wise policy of the last administration, with Mr. Fillmore and Mr. Everett at its head—and it should be matter of congratulation that the instructions of their successors in office, discouraging the expedition or recalling a portion of it, have been issued at too late a day to be received by Com. Perry, before the time appointed for negotiations. That officer has gained fresh laurels, by his shrewd management of a difficult matter.—The treaty is on its way to the United States—the Saratoga having been despatched with it to Panama, whence we must shortly receive it.—Boston Chronicle.

LOCAL.

CITY COUNCIL—THURSDAY, June 15.

The Common Council passed the usual Ordinance for raising money to defray the City expenses for the current year, amounting to $45,117, including $350 for celebrating the 4th of July.—Sent up for concurrence.

A committee of three were appointed (if the Aldermen concur) to consider the subject of fees of officers, and the time when their duties commence.

The Council non-concured in the Dog ordinance.

The Board of Aldermen concurred in appointing the committee of inquiry into the duties and pay of officers.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention, which assembled at Concord on Thursday, organized by choosing Ex-Gov. Hubbard as President, who, upon taking the chair, made an address urging the convention to a pacific course as to the Anti-Nebraska Democrats.

His Excellency, Nathaniel B. Baker, was nominated for re-election as Governor; and Mark Noble, Esq., of Great Falls, was nominated for Railroad Commissioner.

The nominations were by acclamation, and the convention was entirely harmonious.

Resolutions were passed, gently and moderately endorsing the Nebraska bill and the Ad ministration, but not drawing the lines strongly against opponents of Nebraska.

In the House—On motion of Mr. Emery of Portsmouth, the Nebraska resolutions were made the special order for Friday next at half past 10 o'clock, and the House adjourned, to meet on Friday morning at 10 o'cock.

Army and Navy.—The Boston Commonwealth says Rev. Henry Wood is appointed a Chaplain in the Army. We do not know whether this is the echo of the story about his chaplaincy in the Navy—or whether it is a fact correctly stated. We give it as we find it.

Potatoes.—There has been a decline in Bsston, of 50 cents per bushel in Potatoes during the past week, from the wholesale rates, and they are now dull of sale.

Our price-current shows a decline of 20 cts. per bushel, in this city.

The first instalment of the signatures to the Boston memorial praying for the repeal of the Fugitive Slave law, has been taken from the Merchants' Reading Room, and has been forwarded to Mr. Rockwell, the newly appointed Senator. It comprises a double row of names, two thousand nine hundred in number, and fifty-five feet in length.

Another Poison Trial.—Michael Fally and wife are on trial at Brooklyn, N. Y., for poisoning an old woman named Joanna Darby. The diseased had money, was separated from her husband and invited to live with the Fallys, and they put arsenic in her arrowroot and killed her.

Mr. Leonard, the individual, who was blown out of his bed chamber by the explosion of gas in Nashua, N. H., last spring, has obtained $433.33 damages from the Gas Company.—The case was decided by reference.

Negroes and Negro Slavery, is the title of a pamphlet, published by J. H. Van Evrie, M. D., of Washington, in which he considers negroes as an inferior race, and asserts slavery to be its normal condition.

Sagamore House.

FROST'S POINT.

THE subscriber having enlarged and thoroughly refitted the above well known House, announces that he will be ready to receive visitors on the first of July. The house is within 10 rods of salt water, with Sagamore harbor on one side, and the ocean on the other. In plain sight from the house are the city of Portsmouth, (from which it is but 3 miles distant) the harbor of Piscataqua, and seaward, an unobstructed view of the ocean.

The conveniences for bathing, sailing, fishing and fowling, are unequalled.

The situation of this house is considered by those who have visited it, to be unexcelled in beauty by any on the coast.

By prompt and personal attention to the wants of his patrons, he hopes to merit an increased share of public favor.

THOMAS CLARK, Proprietor.

Appledore House,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

STEAM having died out in Portsmouth, the subscriber has the pleasure to announce to his old friends and the public, that he has chartered the beautiful YACHT SPY, of 40 tons burden, and has had the good fortune to secure the services of Capt. JAMES W. GOODWIN, the well known pilot, as master. His skill, carefulness and attention will secure to the travelling public a more safe, expeditious, comfortable and pleasant transit to and from the islands, than has hitherto been attained.

She will leave PIER WHARF, foot of State Street, Portsmouth, every day (Sundays excepted) immediately after the arrival of the trains from Boston and Concord, and return in season for the evening trains.

Many alterations and improvements have been made in the establishment to make it more convenient and comfortable.

An abundant supply of Ice has been carefully laid in, and the facilities for fishing perfected.

To the invalid, the weary and the active pleasure seeker, this location presents attractions not equaled in New England.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, June, 14.

SENATE.—In the Senate Mr. Clayton made a personal explanation in answer to an article in the Union, touching his course on the Nebraska bill.

The bill regulating the pay of deputy postmasters was passed.

The bill for the Homestead bill gave notice that they should insist upon making it a special order daily until disposed of.

HOUSE.—The House went into committee on the general appropriation bill.

Mr. Brooks of New York made a speech on the Pacific Railroad.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN ASHTABULA CO., OHIO.—On old bachelor by the name of Lyman Sutliff, living six miles from Jefferson, Ashtabula Co., and who was well off in the world, had a fine farm, well stocked, lived in a house alone, and carried on his farm himself. About four weeks ago the old man was missing and his house closed up. Not hearing anything from him, the neighbors got alarmed. The alarm became general, and the whole neighborhood turned out to look for the missing man. Near one of the fences running across his back lot, his body was discovered buried in the ground, the corpse lying on its back, and so near the surface that one of the knees protruded out. The multitude was called together around the murdered man, and the excitement became intense.—His body was exhumed, and it appeared that a rifle ball had been put through his vital parts.

Suspicions immediately fell upon one of his neighbors, who had been seen plowing with deceased's cattle, and otherwise meddling with his property. The crowd immediately surrounded his house, and demanded his surrender. He was arrested, taken to jail, and was to be examined yesterday.—Cleaveland Plaindealer.

MILWAUKIE, WISCONSIN, June 8.—Hon. A. D. Smith, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Wisconsin, discharged S. M. Booth of Milwaukie from arrest in the Glover case, on the ground both of defectiveness in the warrant, and the unconstitutionality of the fugitive slave act of 1850: 1st, that Congress has no power to legislate on the subject of reclaiming fugitives; 2d, nor to clothe a court of commissioners with the power to determine the liberties of the people; 3d, because this act denied the right of trial by jury.

PROVIDENCE, June 14.—At the Episcopal convention, Rev. Dr. Crocker of this city, received two majority for Bishop, in the Clerical House, on the third ballot. In the other House the vote against him was 3 majority.

AFFRAY AT OTTAWA, ILL.—The Chicago Democrat of June 7, contains the particulars of a serious affray which occurred in Ottawa on the previous day, resulting in the shooting of seven men, three of whom are supposed to be mortally wounded. It seems that Captain Henry Brown, of the canal boat Flying Cloud, had a difficulty with an Irishman at La Salle, and knocked him down several times. The Irishman provoked the assault. The Captain then started for Chicago with his boat, but at Ottawa was overtaken and attacked, while ashore in company with one of his men, by about twenty Irishmen, who had followed him from La Salle in wagons. In the affray, seven of the assailants were shot—six by the Captain, and one by his companion.

ANOTHER FATAL RESULT FROM THE EXPLOSION IN BRIGHTON STREET.—Thomas Beach, the engineer at the establishment of Mr. Stephen G. Taylor, who was severely scalded by the explosion of a steam boiler in Brighton street, on Tuesday afternoon, died last evening at the Massachusetts General Hospital. This is the second death which has occurred from that explosion. Coroners Smith and Stedman will thoroughly investigate the circumstances connected with the case. The four other persons who were scalded are considered out of danger.—Boston Jour.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the Callfornia Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, opening the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes when the system has been so deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00.

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Cough Destroyer.

This invaluable Cough Remedy is for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, pains in the side and breast, hacking or tickling at the throat, spitting blood, tightness across the lungs and chest, and all Lung Complaints leading to Consumption.

No medicine yet discovered has that decided effect in curing Bronchial affections as the Cough Destroyer. It can be taken by all ages and classes, from a child six months old to the oldest man or woman, with the most happy results.

PRICE 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dr. Ordway's Pain Destroyer.

This preparation is composed of a great variety of Extracts, Gums, Essential Oils, most of which have not heretofore been united and compounded into their present form. It will cure attacks of Cramps of the Stomach, Spasms, Convulsions, Faintings, Pain in the Stomach, Bowels, Side, Back, Limbs, and a great variety of other difficulties. It is also invaluable as an external remedy. It will be found to contain nearly double the strength of any similar article, and possesses properties heretofore unknown. No family should be without it for a single day.

PRICE 25, 37½ AND 50 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Full directions for using these medicines, on the Bottles. Orders should be accompanied with full directions how it should be sent.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormentors of our nightly rest.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two sculleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equal distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,
At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

The Weekly Chronicle,
A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

A CATECHISM.

The Concord Independent Democrat gives the following extracts from a "Catechism for Slaves," which it professes to copy from the Southern Episcopalian, a staid and reputable religious monthly magazine, published at Charleston, S. C. It is taken from the April No. 1854:

What keeps snakes and all bad things from hurting you? Ans. God does.

Who gave you a master and mistress? God gave them to me.

Who says that you must obey them? God says that I must.

What book tells you these things? The Bible.

How does God do all his work? He always does it right.

Does God love to work? Yes, God is always at work.

Do the good angels work? Yes, they love to please God.

What does God say about your work? He that does not work shall not eat.

Did Adam and Eve have to work? Yes, they were to keep the garden.

Was it hard to keep that garden? No, it was very easy.

What makes the crops so hard to grow?—Sin makes it.

What makes you lazy? My own wicked heart.

How do you know your heart is wicked? I feel it every day.

What teaches you so many wicked things? The Devil.

Must you let the Devil teach you? No, I must not.

The Democrat remarks:

The humor of the questions and answers about work—particularly this:—"What does God say about work? He that does not work shall not eat,"—will be appreciated, when we remember that this is the religious instruction provided for those who do all the hard working, by those who do all the good eating. Who will not rejoice that those poor slaves are blessed with the consolations of such Gospel light.

AN INTERESTING INCIDENT.—A correspondent of the Greenfield Republic relates the following interesting instance of maternal affection in animals:

"A few days since, Mr. Joel Rice of Conway, discovered on a tree, what he supposed to be a crow's nest. But on examination, he found, instead of a brood of unfledged corn-pullers, a litter of flying squirrels. Not a little pleased with his booty, he thought it a fine opportunity to secure an acceptable present for his children. Having descended from the tree, he stood at the foot, contemplating his prize, when the old one made her appearance. A mother's temerity, when her offspring are in danger, knows no limits. She jumped upon his hat, crawled down to his hand, seized one of her young ones, and endeavored to take it away. For a moment, Mr. R. resisted her claim—yet only for a moment. Sympathy for a parent's agony made an appeal, and was successful—his better feelings triumphed, and the dam gathering into her furry folds a little one sought a new home for her family. After a short time she returned, and then again, till she had taken them all away."

A RAMBLE IN JAPAN.—A writer from the American Japan squadron states that the chaplain of the expedition, Rev. Mr. Bittinger, took occasion during the progress of the late treaty to visit the large cities of Kanagawa and Kasacca, situated some fifteen or twenty miles distant from the ships. The population of Kanagawa, he says, is from one to two hundred thousand. Immense crowds thronged the streets as he passed, and finally a messenger was sent before him to oblige the people to pack themselves close up to the houses, thus leaving the centre of the road clear to our traveller. Mr. Bittinger entered many of their houses, and found them, though furnished in primitive style, clean, neat and comfortable, when compared with other oriental dwellings of the same class. He entered several temples, and was treated courteously by all. The cities he visited were each about six miles long, wide, well formed streets. On his return, he found that everything which had occurred during his excursion had been noted by the Japanese officials, even the number of buttons on his coat being recorded.—Boston Journal.

A "HAPPY FAMILY."—One John Cary was brought before the Police Court in Worcester yesterday, on the charge of keeping a disorderly house. Although it was shown, says the Worcester Spy, that Cary, his wife, six children, two colored women, two pigs, three dogs, four puppies, and several hens, all lived in one kitchen and bedroom, there was no proof that the charge was true, and the defendant was allowed to return to the embrace of his "happy family."

SELF DEFENCE.

Some of the newspapers are extremely hard and severe in their remarks against Commissioners, Marshals, officers and soldiers, who have been concerned in catching negroes and sending them back into slavery.

One of these papers, the New Bedford Mercury, said something, (we know not what, as we do not see the paper,) which has called out quite a smart and lawyerlike letter from Mr. Commissioner Curtis, in defence of himself and Commissioner Loring.

Two or three sentences in this defence interested us more than the main argument.—Mr. Curtis says:

I have been called upon, on several occasions, to act as Commissioner under the statute for the surrender of fugitives; but I never took a fee for any service under it, and I never shall take one, whether the claimant is successful or unsuccessful. This statement may lead you to suppose that, in continuing to hold the office of Commissioner and to discharge its duties, I may be actuated by a public motive.

Truly, we suppose it is even so. Mr. Curtis, as a Commissioner, bound by the statute, and as he thinks by his oath also, does what he knows to be a hateful deed, for a public motive, viz.: to hold the union together by legalized slave catching. But Mr. Curtis, as a Man, so loathes and abhors this business in which he engages, that he will not touch and has not touched the price of a slave's bondage or freedom! We heartily thank Mr. Curtis for this resolution; it makes him look better, and the law look worse.

But hear Mr. Curtis yet again.

The Constitution of the United States has solemnly provided that fugitives from service shall be given up. Do you mean to say that that was a 'dirty' stipulation, into which we entered with the people of the slaveholding States, or do you only mean to say that it is a 'dirty and menial office' to perform any service under a law which undertakes to execute that clause of the Constitution?

If the latter is your meaning, then no law can be enacted under which a marshal, a magistrate or a juryman could act, without performing a 'dirty and menial office,' unfit for a 'gentleman.' If it is a 'dirty' employment to adjudicate or make an arrest under the present law, it must be equally 'dirty' to adjudicate under any law.

Mr. Curtis, as well as many other men who cannot write half so well as he does, seems to reason as if the clumsy and confused provision about fugitives held to labor, were really the whole Constitution, or certainly the most important part of it. They also seem to place some great solemnity and sacredness about the new act of 1850. Surely that of 1793 was quite as sacred, and was moreover enacted only half a dozen years after the Constitution was formed, by men who understood that instrument as well as we do. Besides, if any law was so indispensable on this subject, why was it not passed, even earlier than '93?

Now it appears that there are other provisions in the Constitution, as valuable to freedom as this provision is to slavery. But no acts of Congress have been passed to support them; no troops called out; no national patriotic howling or lamentation over their breach. We have special reference here, to the clause which makes a citizen of any one State, a citizen of any other, as he may remove.

We must beg pardon of our genteel readers for meddling with the 'dirty' epithet which Mr. Curtis handles with gloves, and which the New Bedford Mercury handles without them. But as we are 'in for it,' we will just say that we do consider it a 'dirty stipulation' for free men to engage that a bondman shall not be free when he flees from his bondage. Our fathers were so ashamed of it, that they would not use the word slave there at all; and we are ashamed of it; and Mr. Curtis is ashamed of it too!

The law of '93 was dirtier, for that descended to particulars and details; and that of '50 dirtier still, for it offers $5 for freedom and $10 for slavery in the Coroner's,—no—we beg pardon again—in the Commissioner's verdict. Slave catching is a dirty business every where, in Africa, Carolina or Boston. It is a dirty spot on the Constitution, the country and the people; the old and the new acts in its favor are the greater and lesser grease spots on our statute book; and it is degrading to all our respectable Commissioners, and officers civil and military, to be compelled by oath or otherwise to perform such a menial office. We are glad to find Mr. Curtis so keenly sensitive, and so much ashamed of what is really shameful.

We pity the officers who must execute such hateful statutes or lose their places; and we suppose we ought to pity the poor men who sold themselves with their votes when they enacted them.

All law should be founded on right. But a statute made to do a wrong, and to protect a fraud, has no moral force, and therefore is no law at all; and while it may be submitted to when and where we cannot well help it, is yet binding on no man who can battle its force, outwit its craft, or outrun its speed.

LIBERAL CONVENTION.

On Thursday, June 15, at Portland, was held the Mass Convention of the Liberal Democracy of Maine, agreeably to a call in the Expositor. These are the anti-Maine law Democrats, and their resolutions are distinct and pointed against that law. They nominated the Honorable Shepard Cary for Governor. The resolves did not allude to the National Administration, or the Nebraska question.

Mr. Cram of Readfield, said,

The question of Temperance seemed rather worn out, and so the other other side had taken up the Nebraska question. What had that to do with the Gubernatorial election? About as much as Russia or Turkey, and no more.

By this other side, Mr. Cram means the Morrill or Maine law Democrats, who passed anti-slavery resolutions.

Thursday was a fine day, in Portland; and the Advertiser says of the Liberal Convention, there was a pretty full turn out, embracing, however, not a few friends of the law who came out of curiosity.

The Argus says:

The attendance was quite indifferent—probably not much over two hundred, that sympathised with the originators of the meeting.—The spectators drawn there from curiosity, were probably quite as numerous as the actors. Some counties were entirely without representatives, as when nominations were asked for to act on committees, no response ensued.

Mr. Wilkinson said,

He was at Boston last winter—he is acquainted with many liquor dealers there. He questioned them as to the amount of sales in the State of Maine; they were more and at greater profit than before the law, and the law would be a boon if they could be sure of their pay. In many cases where liquor had been seized and destroyed by the ramrods, the Boston dealers had to lose it.

The law is bad in many other respects. Not only had it stove up the Democratic party, not only have the whigs been made to suffer, but look at its effects on our churches. It had broken up the Baptist Church in Biddeford, &c.

Joseph Leland, Esq., of Saco, moved an amendment, to strike out that part of the resolution which invited the convention to be held on the 21st to co-operate with this, and insert that this convention would co-operate with that of the 21st.

The Convention of the 21st is the Regular, old line Democratic convention of delegates of the Democratic party. Mr. Leland thought it possible that the regulars might adopt the nomination of Mr. Cary,—

But other gentleman had also been spoken of: Judge Shepley, Judge Wells, and Mr. Williams of Augusta. If either of these gentlemen should be nominated, he trusted the members of the Convention would acquiesce. ["No sir-ee!" shouted several voices, "I swear we won't," said another; "a little too much soft soap," said another, and loud calls for "question!"] Mr. Leland continued a few minutes longer in the same train, when several gentlemen replied to him, signifying their dissent to his proposition, and among them was Mr. Leavenseller of Thomaston.

Finally Mr. Leland's amendment was negatived, and the resolution passed without it. So the regular democrats may renominate Mr. Cary, or let it alone; the liberals go for him and no one else.

The Fugitive Burns.—The Traveller publishes an interesting account of the visit of a correspondent to Anthony Burns, in the jail at Norfolk, where he has been confined since his arrival in Virginia. The writer says:

He can read and write, and is quite intelligent for one of such limited education. He has nobleness of carriage and truthfulness of manner, indicative of a mind of more than ordinary capacity.

Although he conversed with an air of cheerfulness, and even of humor, it was easy to discover that a dark forebodeing for the future was preying upon his spirits.

When allusion was made to his accommodations in the Boston Court House, his good fare, and his smoking cigars with the officers, he said, laughingly, that "he needed the cigar to keep his spirits up;" and when asked if he wanted to go back to Boston, he said "he should like just to let them see that he was alive yet."

Narrow Escape.—The Boston Traveller says:

A fugitive slave and his wife on their way from the South in the cars to a place of safety, a day or two since, when within a short distance of this city, discovered their former owner in the same car, who, it appears, had recognized them. The fugitives were in a state of great trepidation, but a friend who learned the facts of the case, induced them to get out when they reached a neighboring village. A covered wagon was procured, and the fugitives were taken with all speed to this city, and embarked on board a vessel which soon after sailed for the British Provinces.

Don't the Traveller feel guilty of a secret satisfaction, quite seditious, almost treasonable, in telling such a story? Isn't it afraid of something with a cloven foot and tail, which may come in the dark and catch every boy that says Boo, contrary to some compromise or compact. The Traveller must be careful not to get into that way.

The Musical Repository, No. 29, contains one piece, entitled Hope; the Wanderer's Morning Song. Words by W. Bartholomew; Music by G. Preyer, Boston, published by Frederic Parker, Cornhill.

Highland Cottage.—This beautiful summer resort was opened for the accommodation of visiters, as advertised, on Thursday, the 15th. We accepted an invitation from the gentlemanly proprietor, Mr. J. H. Diman, to call out and look at his Nursery and partake of some refreshments; and found that he not only understands how to make his grounds look attractive and his trees flourish, but also how to minister to the wants of the "inner man," in the most approved style. The house is neatly furnished, and nothing can be more delightful to those who love flowers, fresh air, and the beauties of nature in general, than a ramble over the grounds by which it is surrounded. Mr. D. has recently placed a cupola on the top of his cottage, from which an extensive and magnificent view can be had of the surrounding country. The Nursery is only an hour's ride from Portsmouth, and for a party who wish to have a pleasant drive, a nice supper, and a lovely walk among all manner of flowers, shrubs and trees, we would recommend a visit to Highland Cottage, Stratham. Those who prefer riding in the cars can do so, as the P. & C. Railroad depot is but a few minutes' walk from the house.

Whereas, the second section of the act establishing this City declares that "a majority of each Board [of the City Council] shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business," and Whereas, a minority of this Board (but three of the seven Aldermen being present,) did on the evening of June 12th, 1854 in disregard and violation of the foregoing provision of the City Charter and of a rule which governs all organized political and legislative bodies, take upon themselves the powers and prerogatives which belong only to a majority and assume to meet the Common Council in Convention for the choice of certain City Officers; therefore be it

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, June 15.

SENATE.—In the Senate to-day, Mr. Rockwell from Massachusetts, took his seat.

The vetoed land bill is under consideration, and Mr. Clayton argued at length against the expediency of the President's veto on the Indigent Insane bill, contending that though the President had the power, yet when he exercised it merely to defeat certain legislation, he violated the spirit of his authority. He closed with an eloquent and touching appeal in behalf of the miserable and indigent insane.

A resolution was adopted in the Senate, providing for a recess from the 17th of July to the 16th of October.

Mr. Hunter's resolution providing that the Senate meet hereafter daily at 10 o'clock was rejected. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the House, Mr. Brooks of New York made a speech against the constitutionality of granting lands for the construction of the Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Singleton of Mississippi spoke on the Cuba question. He was for demanding instant indemnity of Spain for past outrages, and also assurance for further good behavior.

The House took up the bill increasing the rates of postage, pending the consideration of which the House went into Committee of the Whole on the General Appropriation bill, and after discussing it for some time, the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

The difficulties between the Sophomore class of Columbia College, New York, and the learned faculty of the said College, were adjusted on Wednesday to the satisfaction of all parties. The class are to report all future disorderly acts that may by perpetrated, and the authorities are to let bye-gones be bygones.

The city councils of Providence, upon petition of 600 citizens, have rescinded the vote to have the church bells of the city tolled on the 4th of July, and have appropriated $2,000 to celebrate the day in the usual manner.

A house near Vicksburg, Miss., was struck by lightning on the 9th inst, and pretty much demolished. A loaded gun was fired off and broken to pieces, and a cask containing powder exploded; a keg of powder had two hoops knocked off it, but did not explode. Six persons were sleeping in the house, none of whom were injured by the stroke.

A drunken fellow in West Utica, N. Y. came home on Tuesday evening, and fell or threw himself across the person of his sick wife, who was lying in bed, and in the morning they were found, the man dead drunk, lying across the body of his dead wife.

Sagamore House.

FROST'S POINT.

THE subscriber having enlarged and thoroughly refitted the above well known House, announces that he will be ready to receive visitors on the first of July. The house is within 10 rods of salt water, with Sagamore harbor on one side, and the ocean on the other. In plain sight from the house are the city of Portsmouth, (from which it is but 3 miles distant) the harbor of Piscataqua, and seaward, an unobstructed view of the ocean.

The convenience for bathing, sailing, fishing and fowling, are unequalled.

The situation of this house is considered by those who have visited it, to be unexcelled in beauty by any on the coast.

CHAS. W. KIMBALL, my11tf No. 36 Market St.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its curing some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; I sold to people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases in which my distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

In a lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than a year and a half ago. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

A few days since I called at the Hotel zum Romischen Kaiser to pay my respects to Jenny Lind Goldschmidt. She has a decided penchant for America and Americans; and moreover, as I happened to be well acquainted with some of her Boston friends, I was made doubly welcome. She informed me of her expectation to settle permanently in the United States, mainly on account of her child, a bright little boy. She has been giving concerts in Vienna, in a quiet, unassuming way.

She spoke of a Boston Sabbath as a delightful luxury. Here the Sabbath is made a gala-day by all classes. Public persons must keep open rooms as on other days of the week, and the people go from the church to the theatre as if both were dedicated to the Most High.

The Jenny Lind of former days has become the dignified Madame Goldschmidt of the present. She appears somewhat older, but retains the frankness and simplicity of manners which have characterized her above all others.

FRATERNIZATION.—The leaders of the French and English forces in Turkey, have strenuously inculcated a spirit of fraternization among the troops of the two nations; and the soldiers, nothing loth, have carried out their instructions with so much vigor and cordiality that the 'fraternizing' has become rather a nuisance to commanding officers of regiments. On one occasion a huge Highlander, while enjoying the height of convivial good fellowship with some French soldiers, exchanged the greater portion of his dress with an African soldier, and when the next morning brought recollection, was horrified to find himself in a fez cap, a blue jacket embroidered with red worsted, a bright blue sash around his waist, and a pair of enormous Dutch built scarlet pantaloons flapping around his legs.—The woe begone, sheepish look of the poor Highlander, as he presented himself, clad in his borrowed wardrobe, before his officers, was inimitable. What became of the African, who must have created quite a sensation in his kilt and coatee, has never been satisfactorily ascertained.

A BRITISH PROPRIETOR.—At a recent meeting at Bradford, Rev. James Sherman said he had, within the last few days, been on a visit to Mr. Peto. He found him pulling down the old village on his estates. He was pulling down the whole of the old houses that formed the village, and building on the sites some of the most ornamental and beautiful cottages. He (Mr. Sherman) observed, 'What return do you get in the shape of rent?'

'Why,' Mr. Peto replied, 'you must not talk about rent; if I get two per cent. I shall be satisfied:' adding, 'if I go to the House of Commons and talk about promoting cleanliness, health and comfort among the great body of the people, I am bound to do something to show that I am in earnest."

THE CHINESE IMMIGRATION.—The San Francisco Sun expresses much uneasiness in view of the increased immigration of Chinese to California. It says under date of May 10: "Already over three thousand of these people have been added to our population within six weeks, and we are threatened with another invasion of over five thousand additional, to arrive in six weeks more, making a grand total of over eight thousand in less than three months."

It says further that at the rate in which they have arrived within the past three months, we shall have an addition of thirty-six thousand within the year, and expresses an apprehension that when the ports of Japan are opened to the world, the overcrowded population of that empire will pour immense numbers into California. The Sun, in view of the present and prospective evils resulting from the presence of so undesirable a class of immigrants, advocates legislation to meet the evil.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Crystal Palace was crowded last night to its fullest capacity, probably 40,000 persons being present. The enthusiasm was great, and increased in intensity as the performance progressed, and reached its highest pitch on its being announced that a short series of musical congresses under Jullien would be given, commencing to-night, at half price.

☞ Capt. Josiah Rynders, of the N. Y. Empire Club, married at Baltimore on the 9th June, a Miss Phebe Shortwell, said to be young, rich and beautiful. Capt. R. is employed in the N. Y. Custom House at present.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, JUNE 19, 1854.

A DIALOGUE.

Chronicle.—There are no free States now. Freemen must not resist the hunter, lest perchance, we get our necks broken, &c.

Gazette.—Will our neighbor inform us, if there has ever been a time since the United States Government was established, when some law has not been in force relative to the return of fugitive slaves, and if penalties have not been attached to the resistance of such laws.

Chron.—There has been a fugitive slave act ever since '93; none before, we believe. Under this old act, some slaves were returned; In particular, one female slave was sent back from Portsmouth to Mount Vernon, as the property of Gen. Washington: while another, also a female, claimed by the same proprietor, was kept concealed here for a time, and lived many years in our neighboring town of Greenland, where she finally died in a good old age. Her master, however, in his will, most unaccountably, had in the meantime, given his slaves their freedom—just as if he thought they could take care of themselves.

Gaz.—Uncle Toby talks as though the fugitive law was a new feature in the legislation of the country, which it becomes the duty of freemen to resist to the death.

Chron.—Uncle Toby never called it a new feature. No, the old fugitive act of '93 was, if you please, the Nose of the Congressional face, which had been so exercised in dirty business, and so often snubbed and rebuffed by growing freedom, that it was considerably beaten down, and though pretty broad, was rather flat.

The doe faces, as John Randolph called them, or the dough faces, as others call them, in 1850, added about an inch to this old nose; and this addition rendered the whole feature altogether too prominent; insomuch that we see this nose-like statute looking up above all others, like Agamenticus above the coast of Maine.

To us, the feature is a monstrosity, "which to be hated, needs but to be seen," and which by its enlargement in '50, and its swelling in 1854, has got and kept itself before the people, as distinctly as the Old Man of the Mountain.

There used to be, only a few years ago, a great question, What has the North to do with Slavery? Nobody asks this question now. The creature pokes his gigantic, overgrown nose into every mess, religious, political and social. And no one must pull it at all, under pain of excommunication, lest somebody should sneeze or cough, and so damage the constitution or upset the body politic.

Gaz.—If the above paragraph does not encourage the mob spirit, and opposition to law, what does it mean?

Chron.—It means inflexible opposition to wrong and outrage, now and always, by all the means within our reach, moral and legal, social and political, religious and secular.

For men we keep a pen—
For dogs, a cane.

SENATOR EVERETT.—The Utica (N. Y.) Daily Observer quotes the following extract from a speech delivered by Edward Everett in the House of Representatives in 1829. The New Haven (Connecticut) Register expresses the hope that the political clergymen of New England may read it carefully:

"Sir, I am no soldier. My habits and education are very unmilitary; but there is no cause in which I would sooner buckle a knapsack on my back, and put a musket on my shoulder than that of putting down a servile insurrection at the South. The great relation of servitude, in some form or other, with greater or less departure from the theoretic equality of men, is inseparable from our nature.—Domestic slavery is not, in my judgment, to be set down as an unmoral or irreligious relation. No, sir; the New Testament says, 'Slaves obey your masters.' I cannot admit that its duties are not presupposed and sanctioned by religion. I know of no way by which the form of this servitude can be fixed but by political institutions."

Mr. Everett is a fair target for his own shot. He made the above remarks many years ago, and perhaps he adheres to them now. If he believes in the religious and sacred character of slavery, and under this conviction should become a slave himself, we don't know who should find fault. The man who advocates slavery ought to be himself a slave; no matter whether he advocates it in the character of a politician or a clergyman, or as in Mr. Everett's case, in that of a very poor soldier making a Buncombe speech in a white neck cloth.

Our argument with such a pragmatical parson, must needs be a short one, and might be expressed in a dialogue, thus:

Prag. Parson.—The New Testament says, Slaves obey your Masters.

Uncle T.—Do you suppose slavery to be a divine institution, sanctioned and approved of God?

P. P.—Certainly.

U. T.—Would you like to be a slave?

P. P.—Why no; not exactly; but——

U. T.—No buts, if you please; but don't preach slavery to me, you old hypocrite, till you are ready to wear the yoke on your own neck.

ROGUE CAUGHT.

From the Portland (Me.) Advertiser, of June 17, we learn that a police officer of Elmira, N. Y., arrived in Portland on Friday morning, in quest of a colored man by the name of Warren Victor, charged with committing several burglaries in that place. Victor had arrived the night previous, representing himself as a fugitive slave, by the name of James Bush, recently escaped from his master at Harper's Ferry, Va., and requesting aid which was freely tendered. Mr. Kelley, the officer in pursuit, had tracked him to Worcester, and there having convinced the friends of the supposed fugitive that he was an imposter and a criminal, he furnished himself with testimonials to that effect from two prominent abolitionists, and was directed to continue his pursuit to Portland.

The letters were from Stephen S. Foster and Rev. T. W. Higginson, minister of Worcester Free Church, the man recently indicted for participancy in the late slave riot in Boston, fully assuring the friends in Portland that the man was an imposter and undeserving of their sympathy.

Victor was accordingly arrested and carried before the Municipal Court.

On the testimony of Wm. D. Kelley, the police officer from Elmira, and warrants which were produced by him, defendant was ordered to recognize in $1000 for appearance for further examination in this court, on the 7th proximo, and in default to stand committed until that time, unless a requisition shall previously be made by the Governor of New York for his removal to that State for trial.—In default of bail he was committed. The prisoner is an athletic, intelligent appearing negro about thirty years of age. He persists in representing himself to be a fugitive slave and says that this accusation of burglary is but a ruse to get him back.

NEBRASKA LINE OF PACKETS.—A new line of packets to run between different European ports and this city, are now in process of construction by Donald McKay, Esq. The names of these ships, four in number, are the Japan, the Commodore Perry, the Republic of Commerce, and the Stranger's Home.—They are to be first class vessels of 2200 tons, and built in the best style of this celebrated architect. The first to be launched will be ready in August, and the others in immediate succession. The line will be fitted out by Capt. Lauchlin McKay. A chief aim in the establishment of these packets is to co-operate with the Emigrant Aid Company, established here for the colonization of Nebraska,—Boston Advertiser.

The prohibitory liquor law passed the Connecticut house of representatives on Thursday by a vote of 141 to 60. It goes beyond all other similar measures, including as it does all wines, cider, porter, ale, and lager beer.—All amendments were rejected, among others one for the appointment of three tasters in each town to test the quality of the liquors.—Boston Post.

It passed the senate by a vote of 13 to 7.

INDIANA.—A despatch from the West states that a large and enthusiastic anti-Nebraska meeting was held on the 14th inst., at Madison, Indiana, composed chiefly of Democrats, and that resolutions were passed repudiating the platform recently manufactured at Indianapolis, by the state conveniton, on the ground that it pledged the Democracy to the extension of whiskey and slavery. Senator Petit attempted to address the people of Lafayette, Indiana, on Monday, on the Nebraska bill, but met an adverse strong reception, people groaning and hissing; and when the vote was put on the series of resolutions offered, the confusion and excitement was so great that the question could not be decided. The people in his former district exhibit unmistakable disapprobation of his course on the Nebraska bill.

OHIO.—A despatch from Cincinnati, of the 15th June, says:

Twenty-three slaves from Grant county, Kentucky, made their escape on Friday night, and came down the Licking river in disguise, crossed the Ohio river below this city, and yesterday took passage in the underground railroad to Canada.

Nine fugitive slaves from Boone county, Kentucky, were arrested in the suburbs of this city, yesterday, including four men, two women, and three children, and will be brought before the U. S. Court to-day.

ARRIVAL OF BURNS.—Anthony Burns, the negro who recently fled from this city to Boston where the abolitionists made a lion of him, and killed a Marshal in an effort to rob his master of his property, arrived in this city yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, in charge of United States Marshal J. H. Riley and his assistants, George G. Cooledge, W. G. Black, C. G. Godfrey, and A. O. Butman. They came in the steamer Jamestown from Norfolk, where they had arrived in the United States Revenue Cutter Morris. On application to the Mayor the fellow was committed to jail to await the disposition of his owner, Col. Suttle of Alexandria. He is a young and tall black negro, who would be very useful in a cotton field.—Richmond Enquirer of Tuesday.

ACCIDENTS AT OLDTOWN.—On Friday last, Mr. Greene, a raftsman, belonging to Carmel, was drowned by falling from the tail of a mill in the Veazie block. He was swept away by the current. He leaves a wife and family at Carmel.

On Monday, a young man of 22, named Darwin Moulton, of Lyman, N. H.; a workman on the railroad bridge—fell from one of the piers and was drowned. He sank at once, being injured, it is supposed, by the fall. His body was recovered and forwarded to his friends.—Bangor Whig.

LOCAL.

For the Chronicle.

Messrs. Editors:—Perceiving in your paper a notice by our board of Aldermen, which probably means the majority of one of that board, that, in substance, they would not recognize the elections of city officers by the "City Council" as legal, we made some enquiry, and find the facts to be—that on the 20th of April the Common Council passed a resolution to meet the board of Aldermen, should the latter concur, in Convention on April 27, at 8 P. M., for the purpose of choosing by ballot the city officers to be elected in pursuance of the charter.

June 1. The board of Aldermen concurred, amending the resolution by inserting June 8, instead of April 27, and the Common Council agreed to that amendment of the board of Aldermen.

June 8. The Convention of the City Council appointed for this evening by the concurrent vote of the two boards for the election of city officers, in consequence of the necessary absence of the City Clerk, postponed the election of city officers until Monday evening, June 12, when the Convention of the City Council met and completed the elections.—Now we can see nothing wrong or illegal in these proceedings, unless it should turn out upon inquiry that three or four of the Aldermen wilfully neglected their duty by not attending the Convention, according to their previous vote. We would not impute to them any unworthy motive,—would rather presume they were necessarily detained; but surely, as there was a quorum, their absence should not and cannot disorganize the city government. The City Council proceeded in a legal manner to complete the elections, which might very properly have been made at an earlier day.—We hope to hear no more of mere legal quibbles, which are unworthy men of common sense.

A CITIZEN.

Note.—On the 8th of June, the postponement was by the concurrent vote of the two boards, and not by Convention.—Ed. Chron.

A GREAT MARINE INVENTION.—Mr. W. H. Foster, of Portsmouth N. H., has on exhibition, at the office of Vernon Brown, Merchants' Exchange, the model of an apparatus for reefing topsails without going aloft. The utility of the invention cannot be questioned, nor, we think, its entire practicability. It is perfectly simple in its construction and operation, and conveys herein a commendation of itself that has thus far weighed much with those who have examined it. It was visited yesterday by some of our first merchants and ship owners, who pronounced favorably on its ingenuity and the chance of its complete success. It is to be hoped that our merchants will look into its merit, as an effort of this kind towards lessening the danger or toil of the sailor, or the gain in convenience to be achieved by it, is worthy of encouragement. We learn that Mr. Foster, the inventor, has secured a patent.—Boston Post of Friday.

Among the visiters to examine this new rig is Capt. McKay, who approves of it, as the best he has seen, and will adopt it on a new and large ship.

Mr. Foster is a good practical printer, having thoroughly learned the art in the Boston Transcript office—since which, he has been for a number of years engaged in practising the profession, in various capacities, in this his native place. He was for a short time previous employed in a ropewalk, but was soon elevated to the composing-stick. He has also been something of a medicine-maker, and is at present earning a livelihood as a druggist and apothecary. He is a natural mechanic, has devoted much attention to the study of machinery, and invented, among other things, a card-press of a very cheap and good pattern for light work. Appearances now indicate that this reefing invention is to beof great benefit to him and the world. We hope such will be the result, and that those who have encouraged and assisted him in the undertaking, may "make a good thing of it."

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

FRIDAY, June 16.

HOUSE.—After the two ineffectual ballotings for Senator for the short term, an attempt was made to proceed to the election of a Senator for the long term, but the Speaker ruled it out of order.

Another for indefinite postponement was next made, but met with general objection. Finally, Wednesday next, at 3 P. M., was agreed upon for a further trial to elect U. S. Senator. The morning of the same day was assigned for the further consideration of the Anti-Nebraska Resolves, on which no final action took place to-day.

SATURDAY, June 17.

The Senate did not sit, and the House, after a short session, without important business, adjourned to Monday.

CONVENTION.—The State Convention of delegates of the Whig party in New Hampshire, will take place on Tuesday, to-morrow, at the State House in Concord.

ACCIDENT IN NEWBURYPORT.—Mr. John Emerton, a painter, while engaged upon the House of Mr. Follansbee, on Kent street, on Thursday, fell to the ground, a distance of about 20 feet, badly injuring himself internally and on the back.

Mr. Nathaniel Plumer, a carpenter, at work upon Mr. Shaw's stable, fell Friday noon, breaking his leg near the ancle, so that the bone protruded through the flesh and clothes, and otherwise injuring him.—Herald.

CHOLERA IN READING.—We learn that Mrs. Barnes, a lady aged about 70, formerly of Merrimack, N. H., who has always been remarkable for her good health, died of cholera on Sunday last. She had returned from Boston on Saturday evening. In the same house Mr. John Stevens, formerly of Billerica, was seized of the same disease on Monday evening at 11 o'clock, and died Tuesday at 5 P. M. He was about 40 years of age.—Lowell Courier.

HAIL STORM.—The Taunton Gazette says that a very heavy hail storm, accompanied by lightning, took place in Raynham, Mass., on Wednesday afternoon, continuing an hour, and doing considerable damage. Two hours after the storm some of the hail stones were picked up, and were then larger than robins' eggs.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 16.

The bill renewing patent to Moore and Haswell, for harvest machine, was rejected—22 to 13.

The bill authorizing the coinage of gold pieces, of the value respectively of 5 and 10 eagles, was passed 29 to 13. Several private bills were acted on, when the Senate adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—Mr. Houston asked leave to introduce a bill reducing the duty on imports.—Objected to.

The bill modifying the rates of postage was then taken up, when Mr. Olds spoke in its favor.

Gerrit Smith's amendment proposing to abolish the Post Office Department at the end of two years, leaving the mail carrying free to individuals, was rejected.

Mr. Havens moved to strike out from Mr. Olds substitute the first four sections, which proposed to shift the expense of the franking privilege to the Treasury Department.

Agreed—79 to 74. The remainder of the substitute was then rejected. Ayes 51, Nays not counted.

The question was then stated on ordering the original bill, changing the present rates of postage to 5 and 10 cents, according to distance, &c., to be engrossed, when, on motion of Mr. Washburn, of Me., the bill was laid on the table. Yeas 94, Nays 51. Adjourned.

This is right; let it lie on the table forever. Is it not a most contemptible business for Congress, with an overflowing treasury, to be going backward again to high postage? Let them rather abolish franking, and keep out of the mail all letters not prepaid. But let the people mark every man who votes to raise the price of letter postage.

In the House of Representatives on Tuesday, Hon. Thomas D. Elliot gave notice of his intention of introducing a bill for the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law.

WOMAN'S TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—The session of the Woman's State Temperance Convention of New York, was commenced in Utica on Wednesday, the 7th inst., Mrs. Vaughan, the President, occupying the chair. From the report of the Treasurer, it appeared that the receipts during the past year had been about $2086; expenses, $2000; balance in treasury, $86. A series of resolutions were proposed by the Business Committee, and after being discussed by Mrs. Bloomer, Miss Donovan, Mrs. Pauline W. Davis, and others, including several reverend gentlemen, were adopted. The resolutions declared Gov. Seymour's veto of the Temperance bill to be treacherous, criminal, base, a wanton insult to the people, and deserving of the severest censure; they declared that the women engaged in the work of Temperance were minding their own business; deprecated the use of Tobacco, and urged upon women the duty of checking the taste for the poisonous weed.—Boston Jonrnal.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN ILLINOIS.—An atrocious murder was committed on the night of the 27th ult., in McDonough County, Ill., upon the person of James Dye. About two o'clock at night the murderer went to the house, not into it, and placed a pistol to his breast and blew a large hole through his body. Dye sprang up in his bed, and then he received a blow upon the head with a hammer, which killed him. His wife is said to have been lying in bed with him, on the side next the wall. The alarm was given, and the neighbors soon repaired to the house. Next day a coroner's inquest was held, and Stoakley P. Rhea, one Burrows, a sort of preacher, and Rebecca Dye, were arrested for the murder. The circumstances point to these parties as the guilty ones. Dye had previously had some difficulty with Rhea and Burrows, on account of their intimacy with his wife.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT AT SEA.—A letter to the Journal of Commerce, from Lima, May 11, says:

"A large armed ship, belonging to the Peruvian navy, called the Mercado, had been sent to a small port three leagues north of Callao, to bring up troops. The steamer Semac was sent with orders to tow the Mercado back to Callao. The tow lines broke, and the ship drifted against a rock, where she bilged, and swinging clear, sunk, carrying down with her 820 men, 731 of whom perished, the captain and most of the officers among them."

SHOCKING DEATH.—We are informed that a private letter has been received, stating that a seaman named John Welsh, of Boston, on the sloop of war St. Mary's now on her way home, met with his death recently under shocking circumstances. On the 11th of May, having got drunk, and flogging not being allowed, he was placed, by way of punishment, in 'the cage'—a wretched, ill-ventilated place of confinement. He was heard to groan during the night, but the groans ceased before morning, and at 8 o'clock, when 'the cage' was opened, he was taken out a corpse! We have no further particulars.—Philadelphia Bul.

ACCIDENTAL POISONING.—The Portland Argus says:—We much regret to learn that on Sunday morning, widow Julia A. Sargent, residing in Federal street in that city, was poisoned, by taking a dose of oxalic acid, kept in the house to use for whitening bonnets) which she mistook for epsom salts. The mistake was soon discovered, and physicians called, who during yesterday, up to two o'clock P. M., resorted to every means, to save her life. At that hour she expired! Mrs. S. had been a deeply afflicted woman. Within the last three years, her whole family of promising children—consisting of two sons and a daughter, the youngest being 19 or 20 years old—have been swept away by death.

POISONED MUSHROOMS.—A family of eight persons, at Carrolton, La., were all poisoned last week by eating toadstools, which they supposed to be mushrooms. Two of them were at the point of death at the last accounts, though medical assistance was promptly at

A Change Anticipated.—A young lady in a class studying physiology, made answer to a question put, that in six years a human body became entirely changed, so that not a particle which was in it at the commencement of the period would remain at the close of it. "Then in six years you will cease to be Miss L," said the young tutor. "Why, yes, sir, I suppose so," said she very modestly, looking at the floor.

It is a pretty good story about Mr. Crane, a young clergyman who was settled, a great many years ago, in a town in Massachusetts. A maid servant in the village who attended his meetings, soon exhibited symptoms of being "in love," and, after much urging from her mistress, confessed the object of her passion by silently pointing to the crane in the kitchen fireplace! He married the girl immediately, and they had twelve children.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY, AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. Kelley, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and allgone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivaled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Price 50 Cents a Bottle.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Mosquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charle street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. MANUFACTURE OF LINEN.—A large establishment has been lately erected by the enterprising capitalists of Fall River for the manufacture of linen. The Border City, a new paper published in that city, gives the following description of this establishment:

The buildings of the Company have been erected on an extensive scale, and in a very substantial manner.

The main building is 300 feet long and 63 wide, of 4 stories. The bleaching and finishing house 176 feet long, 75 wide, of 3 stories. Store house and office building 150 feet long, 48 wide, of 3 stories.

Number of spindles	10,500
" looms	250

When in full operation about 500.

Number of males employed	190
" females "	160

When in full operation about 500 hands will be employed.

The capital stock is $500,000.

As the works have just commenced operation, it is impossible to make any correct estimate of the quantity of raw material they will consume, or the amount of goods they will produce. To meet their immediate wants they have been obliged to import from Europe several hundred tons of flax fibre. It is the intention of this company to manufacture all kinds of Linen fabrics; the Sheeting and Pillow Linens, Coatings or Bay Linens, Crash and Burlaps that they have sent into the market, have been received with such favor by the trade, that it is impossible for them to supply the demand, therefore there is no further doubt as to the success of the enterprise.

Notwithstanding the great amount of Flax raised in the West, this company will consume a much greater quantity than is now sent to market in all the United States. In Ohio alone 80,000 acres of flax are under cultivation, principally for the seed, which pays the farmer a handsome profit. The production of good flax fibre requires better cultivation than is generally bestowed upon it for the seed, but the outlay for a more thorough cultivation will be more than repaid by a greater yield of seed, therefore if the farmers of the West will take a little trouble to inform themselves respecting its cultivation for the fibre, their already good profits will be doubled.

LIGHTNING.—Lightning has often been known to cut curious capers, but rarely have we observed a more singular example of its eccentricity than occurred at the house of a Mr. Ellis, in Philadelphia, a few days ago.—The Philadelphia Ledger says:

"It came down the chimney into the library, scattering the books in every direction, and driving the plaster from one side of the room into the hard wall on the opposite side. It entered a large desk of clothing and silver ware, the lid of which was screwed down, burst the chest open in the centre, and stove the end completely out of it. It descended into the closet, scattered and broke the crockery, tore the closed door off its hinges, and piled many of the utensils in the centre of the room. A tin pepper box was shown to us, which had a small hole in the side near the bottom, perforated as if by a buck shot, through which the lightning passed, melted the solder from the lid, and passed out at the top, throwing the cover into the middle of the room. The house had fourteen occupants in it, and not one was injured, and the children were not even awakened by the explosion. The sleeping room of Mr. Ellis was so filled with dust and the smell of sulphur, that he was nearly suffocated before he could open the doors. The damage to the dwelling was small."

A census recently taken developes the facts, that west of Broadway, from Cedar to Rector streets inclusive, there are 304 lots, and that on 150 of them are Lager Beer Cellars, Groceries, Groceries, Low Boarding Houses, or other holes, in which intoxicating liquors are retailed, with a corresponding proportion of other dens of vice and iniquity, and for this foul blotch on the principal seat of business in this Commercial Metropolis, the Community are indebted to the pertinacious obstinacy of a Religious Corporation, who have at all times, when proposed, superciliously opposed their powerful influence to the opening of a commodious Avenue from Broadway to this region; which improvement would at once abate these nuisances, and prevent it from being, as heretofore, the seat of pestilence and death whenever epidemics have prevailed.—N. Y. Express.

In his inauguration address, Judge Conrad, the new Mayor of Philadelphia, said he should not appoint any naturalized citizen to office. He has about 800 appointments to make. He also says that his first official act shall be to close all taverns on Sundays.

TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 1854.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE AT CINCINNATI.—The Cincinnati papers of Friday have the following, by which it appears that the Kentucky runaway slaves were betrayed by one of their own color, for the sake of the reward:

On last Sunday night, between 8 and 9 o'clock, a party of negroes named: Shadrach, aged 60 years, claimed by Jonas Crisler; Susan, his wife, 29 years of age, and two boys, Wesley and John, 9 and 7 years of age; Almeda, aged 26 years, and her child Sarah Jane, aged 3 years; Lewis, aged 24 years, all of whom, except Shadrach, were claimed by William Walton. Lee, aged 21 years, his band of Almeda, claimed by John Gaines, as guardian of Elizabeth Ann and Jasper Blackenbecker; Anderson, aged 22 years, claimed by John P. Scott—left their houses near Burlington in Boone county, Ky., and placing some of their baggage on the backs of three of Mr. Walton's horses, the fugitive party started for the Ohio River, and arrived at a point nearly opposite Lawrenceburg.

Starting the horses back towards their home the fugitives took a skiff and rowed themselves across the river, arriving on free soil about 12 o'clock on Sunday night. They then started with their faces to the north, and after travelling about two miles and a half, they took refuge under a clump of trees during the day As soon as the shades of night came on the fugitives left their hiding places and started again. They had not proceeded far before they met a colored man named John Gyser, who promised to assist them in making their escape to the north. They accompanied him to a stable on Mr. Hume's farm, on Lick run turnpike, about 1 1-2 miles from the city, where they were to remain until evening, when he would return with assistance to aid them in reaching Canada. During the day, Gyser visited Covington, and hearing that a reward of $1000 was offered for their apprehension and arrest, he gave the information.

They were all arrested the same evening, and conveyed to Cincinnati jail, and the next morning were brought before Commissioner Pendry. Shadrach, the leader of the party, was asked by Mr. Crisler, in court—

Why did you run away? You are as well clothed as I be, have always been as well fed, and your mistress has always treated you as well as she has me. (The master and slave were clothed precisely alike, in Kentucky homespun.)

Shadrach replied:—You have always treated me well, but my wife and boys belonged to another man, and I was told they were all sold, to be carried off. That is the reason why I run away. I wanted to save them.—You and mistress always used me well.

Crisler pronounced the story a fabrication, and told Shadrach that he would do nothing for him in his old age, and remarked that he did not want to take him home with him, but would sell him if he could get any thing for him. There was very little excitement in court; about two hundred colored people were present, and on Saturday the slaves were all given up, and taken away.

One paper calls Shadrach a venerable Uncle Tom, and says:

One of the Kentucky gentlemen went up to Shadrach and asked him: "What induced you to run away and steal these people with you, You must have thought these devils over here would take care of you. You have been always kindly treated, yet you ran away. They would take you to Canada, where, in two winters you would be frozen, every one of you.

Here is something rich:—a man stole himself, his wife and his children. Uncle Tom is a romance,—but slavery is a reality, in this land of ——liberty.

☞ On Saturday evening, at Blackstone, Mass., Alexander Howitt, a drunken man, quarrelled with his wife, and shot her, and also a Mr. Orren Brown, a neighbor, into whose house she ran. Hewitt was taken on Sunday morning, but poisoned himself, and soon died. Brown died instantly on being shot, and Mrs. Hewitt cannot live. Mr. Brown was a remarkably quiet, peaceable and hard working man, and had just returned from his week's labor to spend the Sabbath with his family. He leaves a wife and two boys, one 10 and the other 12 years of age.—Hewitt also leaves four small children. Rum was at the bottom of the whole.

A floating anchor has been invented by Captain A. F. Lewis, now residing at Tuttle, Wisconsin. It is composed of planks, readily and firmly bolted together, in the form of a square-sail, say eight by ten feet, and let down over the bow of a drifting vessel to a depth sufficient to shield it from the action of surface currents; when it (as is certified by sea captains who have seen it tried) will bring the vessel's head to the wind in any sea, and reduce her drift from four miles per hour to one. The opinion of nautical men will doubtless be taken with regard to it.

A BELL BUOY.—A new article of this kind is seen off the Battery, and is intended for the S. W. Spit, where it will be of invaluable service, in thick weather, particularly to steamers. The buoy is in the shape of a whaleboat, about 28 feet long, and is made like a steam boiler, of boiler iron. The hull is suspended on a frame work 12 feet high, and is struck by 4 hammers,—the slightest motion being sufficient to cause an alarm. There is also a "crow's nest" attached below the bell, with a ladder to ascend it—for any party in distress. —N. Y. Mirror.

In Barnstead, N. H., on Wendesday afternoon during a violent shower of rain and hail, as a man named Holmes was riding in a carriage his horse was struck by lightning and killed, and his carriage was stove in pieces, but Mr. H. escaped without any serious injury.

CITY COUNCIL.

Messrs. Editors:—When an individual volunteers to enlighted the public, it certainly is not unreasonable to expect from him a sufficient acquaintance with his subject and sufficient candor to at least state the facts in the case. But not so is it with your correspondent "A Citizen," who undertakes to justify the recent extraordinary action of the whig members of the Common Council, in attempting the choice of city officers.

The truth in the case is contained in a nutshell. There was no Convention of the City Council on the 8th of June, and consequently the postponement of the election of city officers until Monday evening, June 12th, was not the act of the Convention, as "A Citizen" states, but as you explain in your note to his article, it was the act of the two Boards, in their separate capacity, by concurrent vote.—Neither was there a Convention of the City Council on Monday evening, June 12th, when the elections are assumed to have been made. There was but a minority of the Aldermen present at the meeting of the Board that evening, while a majority is by the charter made indispensable to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Hence there evidently could have been no convention of the two Boards. A minority of either Board can vote to adjourn or compel the attendance of absent members, and this is the extent of the powers of the minority under the law. They have no power to transact business—certainly none for so important an act as to go into convention for the choice of city officers.

The "legal quibble" then is, that there was no convention of the City Council on Monday evening, June 12th, the Board of Aldermen, in consequence of being without a quorum, having no power to meet the Common Council, and consequently that there was no legal election of City Officers, as the charter distinctly provides that the elections shall be made by the City Council in Convention. In other words, the position of the opponents of Monday night's action is, that there must be a Convention before there can be any elections, and they believe this position defies refutation.

COMMON SENSE.

GOVERNMENT IN DIFFICULTY.

Such readers of the Chronicle as are familiar with the Book of Exodus, may remember the scene described in the 14th chapter, where the Egyptian army in the Red Sea were troubled by the loss of their chariot wheels, so that they "drave them heavily."

Our Governments, City, State and National, at this moment, seem to be much in the same condition. The chariot wheels are off, and the friction and wear and tear are troublesome indeed. We seemed, in the city, to get the chariot on a pair of wheels, but just as they had made one revolution, one of them split in two, fell off the track, and brought the whole machine up with a jerk.

When we read the Aldermen's protest, in our advertising columns, we did not exactly see where the difficulty was, nor the way out of it. When we read the Amendments to the City Charter, approved July 1850, we began to see better; and now, having read ex-Mayor Greenleaf's Statement of Facts, printed in 1851, we see it all as plain as daylight.

The officers elected on Monday evening were the selection of the Whigs, and were generally elected by a vote of 14 to 10—the whole of the democratic side of the board of Aldermen absenting themselves.

The expectation was, that by thus absenting themselves they could further impede the progress of the city organization—and already have the absentees entered a protest against the election as illegal!

It would have been illegal under the city charter as originally granted—but by a corrupt amendment made by the democratic party against the wishes of the Whigs, the Common Council can legalle proceed in elections, though every Alderman and even the Mayor be absent. The amendment was an outrage, and if Haman swings on his own gallows, no blame can be attached to Mordecai.

We confess we don't see the outrage. On the contrary, Section 2d of the Amendments, seems to be an excellent provision, devised to reach the present case exactly, and also another case, wherein the Mayor might happen to be absent.

And as to Section 2d, it must be quite a refreshing scene to see the City Marshal and his aids rushing out to compel the attendance of fugitive Aldermen or Councillors. Then suppose they resist: the Mayor, we presume, calling out the military to aid the civil posse, a la Boston, will march in the front rank, having the fugitives in the centre of the hollow square, guarded by the Marshal and his deputies. A piece of artillery brings up the rear, the gunners having lighted matches.

In this style they march by Jefferson Hall down Pleasant Street to the city rooms; then compel the prisoners to go up stairs—and we suppose, (for the book don't say,) vote for city officers, or look on and see them chosen.

Luckily, however, this third section does not say all this must be done; for the sentence tapers off with the verb may.

The State of New Hampshire has many wheels, and they fly round pretty fast in these days: but they operate like Dr. Edward Beecher's steamboat, in his Conflict of the Ages, where one wheel rolled one way and the other the other, so that the boat revolved in a circle, but made no headway.

From the Great National Chariot at Washington, the wheels have not come off yet, but the fierce teams are rushing down into the Red Sea, as if driven by Phaeton or Jupiter, determined to achieve something, but no mortal can tell what.

COMING HOME.

CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH OF JULY AT PORTSMOUTH AND NEWBURYPORT.—It is now pretty evident that we are to have little or no public celebration of the 78th Anniversary of American Independence, in this city. The $350 appropriated by the city, will fire salutes and give us some fire-works; and we presume this is about all that will be done publicly. The Odds and Ends, we hear, are expected to turn out in large numbers and outre style; and the Continentals are preparing to parade. Our citizens, by apparent general consent, seem to say: We have done enough for a few years past—let us rest on our oars this once, and see what others can do.

The citizens of Newburyport and of Portland, sometime since, proposed to invite home and publicly receive and entertain their absent children from abroad, on the coming "Fourth," as Portsmouth did last year. Portland, we believe, has abandoned the idea; but Newburyport is making great arrangements for the successful carrying out of this pleasing thought.

And here we must render a merited acknowledgement to the originator of these most agreeable of all public festivities—the reunion of old friends—B. P. Shillaber, Esq., of the Boston Post. He it was who first conceived and breached the idea of having all our absent sons and daughters come home; and throughout the whole preparation and celebration, his able and sparkling pen aided much in making things go as they should.—Mrs. Partington should be kindly remembered by all who enjoy these reunions, as the designer of this most charming mode of celebrating the Nation's anniversary.

And what Mr. Shillaber did for our celebration, last year, in the Post, Mr. Haskell of the Transcript, is now doing for the gathering at Newburyport, his native place. The Transcript states that the Oration at Newburyport is to be by Rev. George D. Wildes, now of Boston. At a meeting of the Newburyport Sons, in Boston, last week, during discussion as to the legality of some of the claimants for the honor attendant upon a birth at Newburyport, it came out that Mr. Charles W. Storey was born, by accident, in New Hampshire, but he claimed, nevertheless, to be a native of Newburyport, and he had his 'claims allowed.' Mr. Storey moved that 'henceforth, whenever a Newburyport man meets another Newburyport man, it shall be considered an act of politeness to take his hand and ask him his name.' This proposition, which excited great laughter, was unanimously incorporated in the principles of Newburyport politeness. A book of record was opened for a registry of the 'sons,' and the date of their leaving home.

Considerable interest is felt in this coming celebration, by those who were engaged in ours last year; and Portsmouth will doubtless have a large delegation in Newburyport on that occasion.

THE WORD OF GOD IS NOT BOUND.—This is at once the text and title of a sermon by Rev. Dr. Peabody of this city on Sunday, June 4, 1854, and published by Messrs. Foster and Shores.

It was delivered just after the author had witnessed the slave excitement in Boston; and while it is anti-slavery in all its expressions of opinion and sympathy, is yet thoroughly conservative and conciliatory in its tone and manner.

MR. MORRISON.—A telegraphic despatch from Concord, dated Sunday, has the following:

Mr. Morrison, it is asserted, resuses to allow his name to be used in connection with the Senatorship by the bolting Democrats.

Notice has been given of the introduction of a liquor bill.

The session will probably be a protracted one.

No Senators can be chosen except the Caucus Candidates; because the Senate stands 10 to 2. The House must either choose Wells and Hibbard, or virtually resolve to choose nobody.

A LITTLE SPOOK.—The workmen who are digging near High street, a cellar for the enlargement of Mr. Wm. Simes's store, found a few feet below the surface, a silver tea spoon, not more than one fourth as capacious as those now used, marked with the maker's name, Whittemore, and the owner's initials, E. R. It has doubtless laid there more than 50 years; perhaps 70 or 80. The house which stood there was burnt in 1802.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on Friday, the act regulating the pay of Deputy Postmasters was received from the House, signed by the Speaker, and was thereupon signed by the President pro tem.

It was stated by telegraph that the House bill to increase the price of postage—after being cut down to a bill for charging the price of conveying franked documents to the United States treasury, was laid on the table, on Friday, by a vote of 94 to 51. A motion was made to reconsider the vote for the sake of clenching it, and the motion was laid on the table at the request of the mover. Thus killing the bill.

SATURDAY, June 17

HOUSE.—The House to-day passed a large number of private territorial bills. The bill to provide a weekly mail to California was taken up, but was postponed till Tuesday week. Mr. Mace, Chairman of the select Committee appointed to investigate the steamship frauds, stated that they would in a few days make a report showing frauds and swindling in the existing California Mail contract.

CONGRESS TODAY.—SENATE.—The Chair presented communications from the Interior Department relative to the removal of Florida Indians; also from Navy Department in relation to the establishment of a national armory near the coal fields of North Carolina. Referred and ordered to printed.

Senator Seward presented the memorial of a citizen of New York, claiming to be the inventor of a battering ram of most tremendous force, thirteen of them being capable of defending the coast from Maine to Texas.

The Senate took up the bill reorganizing the Navy Department.

Mr. Mallory moved a substitute for the bill, which was agreed to. The bill was then read a third time, and its passage postponed till to-morrow.

Mr. Douglas's bill changing the time for the annual meeting of Congress from the first Monday in December to the first Monday in October, was taken up.

In the House no business of any interest has been done.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The principal features of Mr. Bocock's bill for reorganizing the navy, reported to the House on Saturday, and the establishment of a higher grade of officers than Captains, namely Flag Officers; a reduction in the whole number of officers so as to leave as few idlers in the service as possible; a retired list; a board of reform; increased pay for sea servive; stringent rules to prevent as far as possible continued leave of absence.

THE NEBRASKA BILL.—The provision in the Nebraska bill, which it has been reported was fraudulently inserted, is embraced in the words italicised in the folloying proviso;

"Provided, That the right of suffrage and of holding office, shall be exercised only by citizens of the United States, and those who shall have declared on oath their intention to become such, and shall have taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and the provisions of this act."

The telegraph stated that the bill provided that aliens should take an oath to support "the principles of this act"—a material difference. The Washington Union asserts that the bill as it passed the Senate contained the above proviso, which was also inserted in the acts establishing territorial governments for Oregon and Minnesota.

THE CUBAN EXPEDITION.—New York, June 18.—The Washington correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer, writes that "yesterday a conservative member of Congress from Georgia related as a fact, of which he was personally cognizant, that 2000 men were armed and organized in his district, awaiting the signal from Washington for a descent on the Island of Cuba. They expect to receive the authority of the Government for their enterprise, and to be aided by its co-operation, but they are none the less resolved to act if they do not obtain its sanction."

Gen. Quitman has sent a telegraphic despatch to one of his friends in Congress, declaring that he has not authorized the disclaimer of filibustering interventions, which some person has published in his behalf in the Union. The despatch further announces that he is proceeding in organizing his force, and shall take Cuba, whether the government oppose or assist his design.

LORD ELGIN IN CANADA.—RESULT OF HIS MISSION SHADOWED FORTH.—Lord Elgin arrived at Sherbrooke on Saturday, 11 A. M. Sheriff Bowen, the Mayor, received Lord Elgin on his alighting from the cars, and introduced him to the Councillors and other citizens, and to several ladies who were present—and then addressed him a congratulatory and loyal address, to which Lord Elgin replied as follows:—"My visit to Washington, although not precisely in my official capacity of Governor General, but rather as envoy extraordinary—it it has not accomplished in every particular all I could have wished, I have reason to believe the result will be beneficial to the inhabitants of the British provinces. It has ever been one of the leading objects of my efforts in Canada, to promote commercial intercourse and kindly feelings between the people of the provinces and the neighboring states. I was met in Washton in the most cordial and liberal spirit, and at Portland the people received and treated me in the most handsome manner. On crossing the frontier and looking at the forests, I thought the proprietors would not be unwilling to have their lumber pass free of duty to the United States markets; and when I saw some fine horses and cattle in the fields, it occurred to me that the owners would be pleased to send them over the border free of duty.—And again, when looking at the houses by the waysido, I thought that perhaps the inmates might have some eggs and poultry which they would be glad to send to market without paying duty. So that, however, some may be disposed to look upon reciprocity, I am sure the people will not be displeased with it."

The Eastern Railroad Co. have declared a dividend of 4 per cent., payable in East Boston Ferry stock. The share holders in the Eastern who receive the Ferry stock for their dividends, will also receive a dividend on that of probably 4 per cent., July 1.

WILLIAM H. FOSTER,

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to depart. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its selling some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling goes, you will feel as if you yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1852, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1852, I sold 6192 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that had tried every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 70, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of the most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Pamus Fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

In Lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in a mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime.) For Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin, what ever only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes, by any one.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the preceding day. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

FOR SALE.—The two story wooden House, No. 3 Raitt's Court, containing 9 rooms, with a good dry cellar, and provided with aqueduct, &c. Has a good yard, barn and out buildings. For information apply on the premises, to apl1 JOHN M. DAVIS.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, No. 9 School street. This is a well built house, two (high) stories, in good repair, and is convenient for one family or two families, or for a large Boarding House. It contains nine or more rooms and two ecclleries, and has an excellent cellar under the whole house. The situation is central, being about equi-distant from the markets, factories and railroads. Connected with this house is a building which has been and may be occupied both as a barn and a work-shop. If not sold soon, a part or the whole of the premises will be let.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 6 Green street. This house is fitted for two tenements; it is well built, was thoroughly painted and put in good order the last season, and is well calculated for two families, (having about 6 rooms each) and may be considered a good location for persons employed at the north end. It is centrally located between the different ship-yards in that section of the city, each tenement will be sold separately, if desired.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 7 Liberty street, corner of Charles street. This house was formerly owned and occupied by the late Peter M. Lowd and is in good order. Attached to it is a lot of land large enough for a Stable or for another dwelling house. It would make a good place for the residence of a person employed at the shipyards across the river, or at the Navy Yard.

The DWELLING HOUSE No. 47 Bow street.—This house has been built but a few years, is well finished off, and is very convenient. In the rear is quite a large garden spot. This would be a desirable place for a person employed at the shipyards, or at the Navy Yard nearly opposite.

Also, for sale, a BUILDING LOT, on Mount Vernon street, (opposite No. 2,) with a small building thereon, which can be finished off into a Dwelling house.

All of the above property will be sold on liberal terms, if applied for soon. For further particulars apply to JOSEPH M. EDMONDS,

Feb. 27. No. 9 Islington street.

TO LET—The STORE on the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. It was occupied as the first Union Store in this city, and is considered as a good stand for business. It is within a few rods of the Boston and Concord Railroad Depots. Possession can be had immediately.

FOR SALE—The HOUSE in the rear of the above, on Vaughan street—a convenient house for two families, and has been occupied for about six years, by the same tenants. It rents for $160. For information, terms, &c., call on JOSEPH L. LOCKE, on the premises, or JOSEPH M. EDMONDS, 9 Islington st. m29

MISS TODD, M. D.,
OR A DISEASE OF THE HEART.

(From the Portfolio of a Young Lawyer.)

The days of my clerkship were ended; my examination was over; I was admitted; wrote myself 'Nehemiah Hubbs, Attorney,' put up my new bright little sign, and in my native village began my professional career. No I did not either. I am mistaken; I intended to pursue the honorable practice of the noble profession to which I had dedicated my birth, but never was truer word penned than the time honored proverb, 'A prophet has no honor in his own country.' I believe if I had remained in the village of Green Briar till my head was white, they would have thought of me as nothing but a boy, and would have feared to trust me. Even after my sign was put up, nobody called me Mr. Hubbs; I was still Ne, with old and young, and Ne I would have remained to this day, had I remained in Green Briar. Only one case claimed my attention during the three months of my patient continuance in Green Briar, after being admitted to the bar, and that was the case of an unjustly impounded pig; 'feloniously abstracted, your honor, from the small but secure spot in which my client had trustingly deposited him, and maliciously driven to the public enclosure called a pound, for the vile purpose doubtless of compelling my client in his poverty and destitution to pay the enormous fee which has been demanded of him, in order to extricate the animal from his unpleasant position and restore him to the bosom of his family!'

By this I mean the client's family, the pig having none of his own; it was a figure of speech undoubtedly, the family not inhabiting an Irish cabin, but still it rounded off the period, and sounded well to me, as I repeated over and over again my maiden speech, pacing up and down the floor of my little office.

In this, my first case, I was successful so far as to rescue the impounded animal and save my client from the payment of an unjust demand; but it brought no silver to my pocket, neither, to my surprise, did it seem to bring honor to my name. The eloquence of my speech did not form the theme, as I fondly hoped it would, of paragraphs in the village papers, or of discussion at the corners of the streets, neither did it bring to my office the rush of clients for which each day I vainly made ready. It was plain that I should never rise to distinction in Green Briar, and so I came to the sudden determination to remove from that pleasant spot, and settle in some great city where nobody knew or had ever heard of me; where, above all, there was not a soul to call me 'Ne.'

There I was more successful, and soon had the opportunity of forming a very advantageous partnership; business increased; money began to come in slow at first, but after a time more plentifully, and all things seemed prosperous in my outward circumstances. But alas! as we are so often told poetically, there is no sweet without its bitter, no rose without its thorn; and trouble came to me in the shape of disease, insidious, and slow in its approaches at first, long feared and suspected, but at length betraying itself so plainly, that I could blind myself no longer to the truth.

Yes! I was without doubt a victim of disease of the heart; not metaphorically, dear reader, for never had that organ beat with a quicker pulsation at the approach of mortal woman: so far as the gentle sex was concerned, I was a perfect stoic; but that there was organic disease about my heart, I could not doubt, and if ever the symptoms disclosed themselves unmistakably, they did so in my case. There was fluttering, palpitation, irregular action, and at length pain; I could not work; life had lost its zest; the fear of sudden death was ever with me; I could enjoy nothing. If I had anything to leave, or anybody to leave it to, I should have made my will, for I was quite sure now that I should either drop some day lifeless in the street, or that the morning would soon come when the power to rise from my bed would have left me.

I remained at my boarding house; and found no comfort in anything but my cigar, and my dread disease grew worse and worse.

As yet I had consulted no physician, partly, I think, from the apprehension of having my fears confirmed; but as I sat by my window one day, smoking as vigorously as ever, gazing abstractedly across the street, my attention was arrested by a modest little sign upon an opposite blind 'C. L. Todd, M. D.' While thinking whether or not it would be best to make trial of a physician's skill, a sudden tinge and flutter decided me; I yes, I would send for Dr. Todd, and know the worst at once!

Summoning the only male servant belonging to the establishment, I told him to step over and ask Dr Todd to come and see me as soon as possible.

The boy grinned.

'What are you laughing at?' I asked, 'is not Dr. Todd a good physician?'

'Oh, yes sir,' he answerd, 'I believe she is a very good physician, but ha'nt never teaded nobody here.'

'She!' said I to myself, 'the boy surely has Welch blood in his veins, they always she everything.'

In the course of the afternoon, as I lay upon the sofa with my hand pressed upon my heart, to still its irregular pulsations, there was a soft tap at my door. 'Come in,' I called out, and to my surprise in came the neatest, brightest, most cheerful looking little woman, it had ever been my lot to meet.

'You sent for me, I believe, sir?' she said, in a quick, brisk, pleasant way.

'Ah! I beg pardon,' said the little woman, 'I found on my slate the name of Mr. Hubbs, number fourteen, Mrs Grey's boarding house, with a request that I would call and see him.'

'Your slate, madame? I exclaimed, my astonishment increasing every moment, 'you surely are not a——'

'Physician! yes sir:' she interrupted quickly, I'm a Physician; Dr Todd.'

Ex-traordinary! was all I could say, for though I had heard at a distance of the existence of such beings, this was the first introduction to a female practitioner of the Esculapian art. It was rather awkward, but since she had come, I determined to make the best of it, and acquaint the lady doctor with my case.

She felt my pulse, asked numerous questions as to my symptoms, and then in her quick, bright way, exclaimed ——

'Nervous! nervous! that's all, depend upon it. Excuse me, sir, but by the air of your room I presume you are much given to smoking.'

I plead guilty.

I could not tell; I never counted; as soon as I threw away one, I took another, usually.

'Hum! cigar in your mouth pretty much all the time, eh! Chew too?'

Again a reluctant confession was wrung from me.

'I presume you sit up late, smoking all the time?'

'Yes, ma'am, smoking and reading.'

'That's it! No disease of the heart at all, sir; nothing but tobacco; it'll make you fancy anything; it'll drive you crazy if you don't take care. Now will you promise to follow my advice closely, or not? If not, I will take my leave immediately.

I promised, submissive as a lamb.

'In the first place, then, throw away all your cigars and tobacco, and promise to buy no more.'

With a sigh given to my sole consolations, I said I would do as she directed.

Many more directions she gave me as to diet, exercise, early hours, &c. Perhaps she saw too that cheerful companionship was one thing I needed, and so she remained a while, talking with great glee and spirit, about matters and things in general; and promising to call and see me the next morning, she left.

I had not felt so well for a great while; indeed I had not given my heart a thought since the little woman entered the room.

The next morning I found myself watching impatiently for the arrival of my little Doctor. She came, bright and cheerful as the day before. What a perfect little sunbeam she was. I could not help growing better under her care, and the influence of her cheering presence, and yet I managed to contrive some ache or pain every day, as an excuse for the continuance of her visits.

At length I found that my heart, which had long been quiet and apparently free from disease, began to flutter and palpitate again, but I observed it was only when I heard the little woman's tap at my door, or felt her soft fingers on my wrist. In short, as she had driven the disease out of my heart, that little woman herself had walked into it. I could no longer blind myself to the fact; and when she one day told me that I was now off the sick list, and out of her hands, I determined that she should not so easily get out of mine.

So I told her that as she had now given ease to my heart in one respect, she must not leave till she had done so in another, or I should be worse off than I was before. The little woman looked perplexed.

Then I stated my case, and explained my symptoms a second time, showing her the distressed state of my mind which she alone could cure. The former disease she had removed by an occasional visit, the latter could only be cured by her promising to come and take up her abode with me, as resident physician. She understood me now, and by the way she pressed her hand on her own little fluttering heart one would have thought the disease contagious; and I verily think it was. So now we determined to cure each other, and next we are to apply to a clergyman, who is to form between us a life-partnership, as lawyer and physician.

But one thing troubles me, of which I had not thought till now; that it is necessary to have our cards. Married people are usually 'Mr. and Mrs. so and so,' or 'Mr. such an one and lady,' but, will any one please to be so kind as to tell me how I and my little wife are to be designated. Will it be 'Mr. and Dr. Hubbs,' or 'Mr. and Mrs. Hubbs, M. D.,' or as the ladies are going ahead so fast in these days of Woman's Rights, will I sink into still lesser insignificance, and shall we be 'Dr. Todd and gentleman,' or must I drop the name of Hubbs altogether, and become a Todd, too? Somebody please tell me how to have those cards engraved!

POETRY AND BUTTER.

Kate, a poetical dairymaid, jotted down a Song of the Churn, and sent it to the Boston Chronicle, where it was published. We copied it from that paper, and appended it to the result of our experience in Butter Making, with a recommendation of the Thermometer Churn. Our article was extensively copied; and the Boston Chronicle of June 20, shows that Kate has got her churn.

WHITE MOUNTAINS, N. H., June 15.—Kate returns her thanks to the Editor of the Portsmouth Chronicle—inasmuch as she has got one of the new churns recommended by him, and yesterday made with it fourteen pounds of butter in less than half an hour—leaving her time to write a long letter and read the Boston Chronicle. KATE.

SPEEDY AND JUST RETRIBUTION.—The Memphis Whig tells a terrible story of a negro slave in Marshall county, Miss., who ravished and murdered Mrs. Redman, a respectable white woman. Her body was soon found, and the murderer was tracked by hounds; he then confessed his crimes to the people who rushed together, by whom he was castrated, hung up, and finally shot through with a dozen balls from as many marksmen. "He shall have justice without mercy, that showed no mercy."

JOSIAH PERHAM, the gift enterprise man, has been arrested and held to bail in New York city, together with his associates, for violating the State law against raffling and lotteries.

REPLY TO "COMMON SENSE."

"Common Sense," while he denies that the postponement of the election of city officers June 8th was the act of the Convention, freely admits that "it was the act of the two Boards, in their separate capacity, by concurrent vote." This admission is fatal to his own position, unless he can show that the two Boards could not legally pass that concurrent vote. He does not deny that there was a quorum of each Board when the vote was passed.—And we understand there was a quorum. It is clear that the two Boards could not get into Convention, in order legally to constitute "the City Council," without such vote, concurred in. The time fixed for the convention of the two Boards was June 12. Will "Common Sense" point out the law, or clause in the Charter which prevented or prohibited the meeting of the members of the two Boards, at the time specified and harmoniously agreed upon? They met on the 12th June in pursuance of that "concurrent vote"—but he denies that this convention constituted "the City Council," and if correct in that position, the elections were illegal. There was a quorum of the City Council. Why, then, could not the Board proceed in the elections? The only objection raised by "Common Sense" is, that "there was but a minority of the Aldermen present at the meeting" June 12th.—Whether that be a fact or not, how can it appear by the records of the City Council? The latter is a distinct Board, and the two Boards, acting separately prior to its organization, are merged in it, and its constituent members are not recognized separately as Aldermen, or Common Councilmen.

The 2d section of the amendments of the Charter provides that "a majority of the city council shall constitute a quorum for proceeding in elections" &c. There being a quorum, it was not requisite to resort to the compulsory process to compel the attendance of any refractory absentees, Whig or Democratic. In charity, it should perhaps be presumed that they were necessarily detained, and not governed by partisan motives, after being sworn to the faithful performance of their official duties. Whether there was a formal "Convention of the City Council on the 8th June," is not a material issue. The members of the two Boards were convened in the same building, and then assigned on the record a sufficient reason for the postponement; at least their constituents will so believe. In our municipal affairs let us be governed by pure motives to promote the public good.

A CITIZEN.

PRESENTATION.—Capt. Joseph K. Hayes, of the Boston Police, who resigned his place rather than to make a part of the guard for returning Burns to slavery, has received a purse of $153 from Boston ladies; an illustrated copy of Uncle Tom's Cabin from Mrs. H. B. Stowe; and a valuable gold watch and chain from citizens of Plymouth.

The watch has the following inscription:—

"Citizens of Plymouth, descendants of the first fugitives for Liberty to New England, to Joseph K. Hayes, for his prompt sacrifice to the cause of freedom on the 2d of June, 1854."

The donors say—

In these degenerate times, if persons in authority were like you, the Fugitive Slave Bill would find none to execute it; and men would no longer shelter their conscience under the so called "duties" of office. So far as our knowledge extends, you are the first person in public or private station called upon to join in its execution, who has peremptorily declined. We have, therefore, deemed your conduct worthy of especial remembrance.

Mrs. Stowe says,

Permit me to present you with this book as a slight expression of my admiration for the noble example you have so recently set to our whole country in preferring worldly loss rather than a loss of manhood and honor.

May the blessing of God ever follow you and yours for your steadiness in refusing to execute the infamous and irreligious Fugitive Law.

Yours with admiration and esteem,
H. B. STOWE.

TEMPERANCE DINNERS.—The Portland Advertiser learns that Lord Elgin remarked, there was one feature of the reception given him in Portland with which he was particularly pleased—that of a public dinner without liquors of any kind. This, he added, was the first public dinner of which he ever partook which was strictly a tetotal affair, and from the handsome manner in which this passed off, he was satisfied that for a company called together as that was, it was better to exclude liquors than to admit them.

Every man who will cherish a sober second thought, and who has ever been at many public dinners, must also be satisfied that sober men are better companions than those who are drunk.

NEW YORK, June 20.—All the Engineers of the Erie Railroad quit work at 12 o'clock last night.

LOCAL.

SUMMER RESORTS.

Our pleasant city, with its delightful suburban attractions of land and water scenery, is yearly becoming more and more a resort for pleasure and health seeking travellers to spend their summers. This has led to the erection of many fine public houses, in all directions—some of which are just beginning to be known to the public. Quite a complete list of the best in the neighboring towns, will be found in another column.

The new Sagamore House, at Frost's Point, comes first in our list. This is situated on the first point southward from New Castle, and is easily accessible by water, via Little Harbor, or by road over Sagamore and Seavey's Creek bridges. The scenery is very beautiful either way. The distance by land is between three and four miles,—and we know of no ride, and especially no walk, more pleasant. Mr. Thomas Clark, the landlord, has just finished a large addition to his house, and with good management, this will be a popular place of resort.

The Appledore House, at the Shoals, opens again this season, under the charge of its well known proprietor, Hon. Thomas B. Laighton. It has been much improved; and Capt. James W. Goodwin is to run the fine yacht Spy out and in daily, for the accommodation of the patrons of the Appledore. This location is too widely and favorably known, to need a word of commendation.

The Ocean House, on Rye Beach—by Mr. Job Jenness—has also re-opened during the last week. This hotel has been enlarged and enlarged, till it will accommodate nearly all "the rest of mankind." Some of its parlors are splendidly furnished; and every thing here is done up in the most approved style. The popularity of the place is sufficiently proved, by the fact that, in spite of its enlarged borders, it is overflowed with visitors every season. Every body rides to "the Beach," of course.

The old and favorite Gerrish House, on Kittery Point, is in the charge of Capt. J. W. Weston, whose management gave entire satisfaction last year. This place can be conveniently reached by water; and the Kittery Stage makes two trips daily to Portsmouth and back.

Last on our list, but by no means least, comes the new Highland Cottage, at Stratham. Mr. J. H. Diman, the successful Nurseryman, has fitted his beautiful Cottage for the accommodation of visitors. We have already given our opinion in favor of his arrangements.—Few understand better how to manage a garden, or render an afternoon's visit pleasant. Mr. Diman is particularly well aware of the privileges due the fraternity of the quill. The proximity of the Highland Cottage, by railroad, the beauty and nicety of all its arrangements, and the free good-nature of its gentlemanly landlord, must render this a very popular resort.

MARBLE CHIMNEY PIECES.—The owner or builder of a new house, or the beautifier of an older one, may look at once with an eye to beauty and an eye to economy, upon a dozen or two of patterns of the Penrhyn Marbles at Mr. Carleton's, as advertised this day. They combine the qualities of safety, elegance and cheapness, in a remarkable degree.

☞ The Sagamore Mill, and its appurtenances, are to be sold at Auction To-Day.—A fair chance for speculation by some persons who understand the business.

☞ The first green peas raised in this vicinity were brought to our market last Saturday by Jonathan Laighton of Eliot.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Convention assembled at Concord on Tuesday, and organized by cheosing Hon. Ira Perley, President.

On taking the chair, Judge Perley made a speech strongly condemning the recent violation of the public faith, in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

The Convention filled the entire Representatives Hall, and was one of the largest and best ever held, embracing among the delegates many of the most prominent men in the State.

MAINE LAW.—The Concord, N. H. Phenix of Saturday, June 17, says:

We learn from men who profess to know the views of the Senate, that they will not take the responsibility of defeating another bill, and that if the House shall send to them anything in the shape of a law, that is at all respectable, they will pass it. If this be true, the passage of a law may be expected. A bill has been prepared that meets the wishes of Temperance men. It will undoubtedly pass the House, and if the Senate will not defeat it, we feel assured that the Governor will sign the bill and it will become a law.

In Savannah, the subscription in aid of the widow of late James Batchelder has reached nearly $1000.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 19.

SENATE.—Mr. Douglas's Bill, changing the time of the annual meeting of Congress, was debated at some length and postponed for the present.

The consideration of the Veto Message of the President was then resumed.

Mr. Seward made a lengthy and able argument against the course pursued by the President.

When Mr. Seward concluded his remarks, Mr. Clay got the floor, and the further consideration of the Bill was postponed.

After some unimportant business, and a short Executive session, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—After the usual opening of business, Mr. Churchill made a personal explanation to some remarks made by Senator Bell. He said the Senator had used language which he should consider in a different manner, were it not for his age.

Mr. Campbell of Ohio also made an explanation in reply to the speech of Mr. Churchwell, made some weeks ago, in which he termed Mr. Campbell an Abolitionist.

Mr. Churchwell replied with much warmth, and an exciting scene followed.

Mr. Stanton of Kentucky, presented memorials contesting the election of Mike Walsh, on the ground of his being a subject of Queen Victoria, which were laid on the table, and the committee on elections were discharged from further consideration on the subject.

Mr. Hillyer of Georgia, introduced a bill fixing the time for the meeting of Congress, on the first Monday in November instead of the first Monday in December, which, after considerable debate, was finally passed and the House adjourned.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

Abridged from the Patriot.

SATURDAY, June 17.

HOUSE.—A resolution offered by Mr Garland of Barhstead, concerning an enquiry, by the committee on education, into the character of certain dictionaries, and the expediency of introducing them into the public schools, was referred to that committee.

Notices of Bills.—By Mr. Emery of Portsmouth—a bill in relation to spirituous liquors; a bill in amendment of chapter 190 of the Revised Statutes, also a bill to incorporate the Pembroke Mills.

Committee on State Reform School.—The Speaker appointed the committee on the State Reform School as follows:

Messrs. Adams of Portsmouth, Hubbard of Washington, Clark of Manchester, Clough of Danbury, Moody of Dover, Marsh of Gilmanton, Pitman of Bartlett, Brackett of Epsom, Eggleston of Troy, and Twitchell of Milan.

Executive Pardoning Power.—Mr. Weeks of Canaan, offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That His Excellency, the Governor be requested in all cases of Petitions for pardon of a convict from the State Prison, to cause notice of said petition and of the time of hearing thereon to be published in such newspaper or newspapers as the Governor may deem proper, and that the expense of the publication of such notice be paid by the State.

MONDAY, June 14.

Bills Introduced.—By Mr. Adams of Portsmouth—a bill creating a lien upon buildings for labor and material.

By Mr. Emery of Portsmouth—a bill for the relief for the insane.

Petitions presented and referred.—To select committees on the subject.—By Mr. Adams of Portsmouth, that of Benjamin Cheever and 44 others, of Portsmouth, for the establishment of a State Reform School.

On the Judiciary.—By Mr. Adams of Portsmouth, that of Andrew Anderson and others, for the passage of a law giving to mechanics a lien upon buildings.

The report of Warren L. Lane, one of the Insurance Commissioners, sent down by the Governor, was laid on the table and ordered to be printed; as was also the report of the Adjutant General, with a Militia Bill, also sent down by his Excellency.

On motion of Mr. Flanders of Manchester, the House adjourned at a quarter to 5 o'clock, until Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The Washington correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer telegraphs that the Senate confirmed yesterday a treaty with the Winnebagoes, by which they cede half a million of acres of land in Minnesota.

Five Indian treaties, providing for the cession of several millions acres of land in Kansas, are in the hands of the Indian Commissioner.

No territorial nominations have yet been submitted.

Senor Rafael arrived from Mexico on Sunday evening, and confirms the report that Santa Anna regards the modified treaty unfavorably. Having prostrated his enemies, he is less anxious to receive the ten millions.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Instructions have been received by the Mexican minister from Santa Anna. He does not reject the Gadsden treaty, but proposes amendments which will carry it to the Senate.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—A correspondent at New London, N. H., writes that George Whitney of New London, aged 29 years, was killed by lightning, in Wilmot, June 14th.—He had been pealing bark, and made a roof of bark to shelter him from a shower, and was under the shelter when a tree near him was struck by lightning. The lightning followed a root of the tree to him, scorching and killing him.—Daily Patriot.

Two men were killed at Sandusky City on Monday last by the falling of a platform from the spire of the new Presbyterian church. One man, named Alex. Derr, stepped on the platform, and it gave way, and he fell with it 65 feet to the ground, and was instantly killed. A plank, in falling, struck Michael Whitten, at work on the ground, and he died in fifteen minutes.

FISHERY TREATY.

The Gloucester Telegraph, published in the very focus of the cod fishery, says—

We have long been of the opinion that if the high contracting parties succeeded in concluding a treaty upon the fishery question, some obstacle would finally be thrown in its way by some section which was not particularly interested in the affair, but which from a spirit of jealousy is afraid those who were to be benefitted would obtain too much advantage. This fear is now likely to be realized. The curse of slavery which is upon our country must put its blight upon every thing on which it can lay its hands. And as the North will be benefitted mainly by the fishery and reciprocity treaty, the South must derive some advantage from it, or else the whole must be defeated. We therefore see it announced that a provision must be inserted for the rendition of fugitive slaves, else the treaty cannot receive the sanction of the Southern Senators. If this is insisted on, which we do not doubt will be, the provision will be inserted, as there are slavery ultraists and Northern doughfaces enough to reject the treaty without such a provision. It would, however, certainly be rejected by the Provinces, and the fishery question will therefore be left just where it was before the negotiation.

A letter writer from Washington, apparently intelligent, says, on the same subject:

Apart from the fact that it is entirely too illiberal to command the sanction of the Senate in its present shape, it is provided that after the Senate shall ratify it, it shall then be submitted to the English Parliament and the Colonial Parliaments.

We are very much mistaken in our estimate of Mr. Mason, the able and distinguished chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, if he will agree to any such terms as to submit the proceedings of the United States Senate to the approval or rejection of the petty colonial assemblies. The idea is absurd on its face.

It is provided in the treaty that it shall be submitted to the Senate and to the British government, and to the Colonial Parliaments, and if it passes all these ordeals, then the House of Representatives is to be called upon to amend the tariff so as to allow the articles enumerated in the treaty to be entered free of duty.

The most serious opposition to the arrangement is not to be looked for in the Southern States by any means. Efforts will be made here to defeat it by procrastination, or by raising specious objections to individual provisions. Maine, too, will be apt to oppose it because of the competition her citizens will suffer from it in the lumber trade, and the fishing Provinces, which are supported almost entirely by their fishery monopoly, will offer serious if not fatal opposition.

Now we would like to enquire who this amiable Mr. Mason is, that he should turn up his nose aristocratic, in utter scorn that the legislature of a British Colony should have any voice in making a treaty to operate on themselves.

This same spirit might prompt the gentleman to treat with the same scorn, all the fishermen in New England, and all in the country, should they presume to offer a memorial, protest or petition, to our great Senate, on the same subject.

There is an old quotation about men, clothed in a little brief authority, which is almost too familiar to need repetition here; but we would ask one question, in all seriousness, viz.: Are our legislators, state and national, the people's servants, or are they our masters?

If they are servants, or even agents, don't let them fly off the handle when we presume to talk to them in a patriarchal manner; but if they are our masters, and made of finer mould, then let us silently obey them, according to Mr. Everett's gospel.

For the Morning Chronicle.

IS THE FUGITIVE SLAVE BILL—LAW?

It is often said, we hope truly, that the people of New England are a law-abiding people, and that the majesty of the laws should be maintained. We heartily approve the sentiment, and denounce mobs, and violent resistance of the laws. But legislative acts or statutes are not always law. The latter is correctly defined to be "a rule of action."—The constitution prescribes limits to the legislative authority, and should the legislature pass a statute which exceeds its authority, of course it would be unconstitutional, and void. No sound lawyer or judge would pretend that such a statute or act would be law. It would not be a rule of action—no person would be bound to support that which is void. In relation to the fugitive slave bill, Judge Curtis in his argument in defence of the bill just before his appointment to the Supreme Bench, admitted that if the act is unconstitutional, it is not law. Others, equally learned in the law, have made the same admission. This point admits of no question. But the question whether the act of 1850 be constitutional, has been argued with much ability, but not before the Supreme Court of the United States. Some of the judges of that Court, alone holding the Circuit Court, have held the act to be constitutional, but their separate opinions can be no decision by the Supreme Court. The learned and elaborate argument of Senator Sumner in the United States Senate, August 26, 1852, to repeal the bill, affords more conclusive evidence of its unconstitutionality, than any other argument upon the subject. We think that no one has ever attempted to refute, or succeeded in refuting his main positions.

A legislative act, in order to justify resistance to its execution, should be manifestly unconstitutional. Many cases may be stated, where the people would not be bound to wait for a repeal, or a decision by the judiciary.—But under our institutions, as a general rule, the people will demand of their public servants a repeal of obnoxious or unwise measures, rather than be driven to resistance. Our present object is not to discuss the question of the unconstitutionality of the fugitive slave bill—but merely to lay down the position, that if it is unconstitutional, it is not law, and the people are under no obligation to support it. This position is, perhaps, too clear to admit of controversy; but should its truth be denied, it can be maintained by the highest judicial authorities, as well as the authority of reason and common sense.

We hear much said recently in respect to the majesty of the laws, and while we would render a cheerful obedience to any statute, which is law, we hold that it is not inconsistent with our moral duties to resist any act passed by a reckless legislative majority, in violation of the grand Charter of our rights, or the revealed laws of God. The latter are supreme over all, and should be the only true basis of human ordinances. T.

SUNDAY POLICE.

The manner in which the Sabbath is kept by the people of a city, though it may not be an infallible moral thermometer, is nevertheless a sort of index to the degree of law and order there prevalent.

Nothing tends so much to disorder in a city on the Sabbath, as the unrestrained and abundant sale of liquors on that day; and nothing so greatly endangers the heads of policemen and the peace of families.

The Boston Post says:

Capt. Eaton, of station No. 4, arrested several drunken men on Saturday night, each man having in his pocket a flask containing half a pint or more of various fiery fluids, one of which was unfortunately broken in the capture. The men were not together when arrested. The peace of seven families was secured for one day by the timely arrest of the —spirits.

The Boston Mail of Monday says:

As three of the South Boston officers were returning from the Common, yesterday afternoon, where they had been on duty, they found a drunken Irishman, named William O'Brien, making a disturbance in Sea street. Knowing he lived in South Boston they took him to his residence, where he showed his appreciation of the kindness of the officers by commencing an assault upon them. The officers then concluded to take him to the Station House, and while on their way thither they were attacked by a mob of several hundred Irishmen, who poured a perfect shower of stones and brickbats upon them.—The American population immediately rallied in support of the officers, and nine of the rioters were arrested and taken to the Station House. Officer Perkins was knocked down, and other officers were injured. Several of the citizens, who volunteered their service, were also injured.

A Philadelphia despatch of Sunday says:

As a general thing the proclamation of Mayor Conrad has been respected by the tavern keepers, although several are selling to customers entering through back doors, while others are selling openly, with a design of contesting the constitutionality of the law.—Most of the drinkers have resorted to Camden, N. J., and Windmill Islands, where immense sales are going on at double prices. The lager beer saloons are also closed, and several have their signs craped, and flags displayed at half mast and craped. One exhibits a placard—"Gone to church for the rest of all creation. Open to-morrow" The city has been uncommonly quiet all day, not a drunken man seen. The mass of our citizens are gratified at the result of the experiment, and will sustain the movement to the utmost.

A New York despatch of Sunday evening, mentions the amount of street preaching, but attended with no excitement whatever:

Not the least disturbance has occurred, so far as we have heard, in this city or Brooklyn. The summary punishment inflicted upon the drunken blackguards who have been arrested during the past two weeks, has doubtless put an effectual stop to Sunday riots.

ARRESTS.—Dr. David R. Brown, Charles Whitney and Charles Washington, were all arrested and imprisoned on Monday in Boston, on a charge of murdering Charles Gouge, in Cooper street, a few weeks ago. Washington is supposed to be the principal, the others accessaries.

CADETS.—The Graduating Class of Cadets at West Point, numbering 46 persons, received their diplomas on the 16th of June. Among them was Thomas J. Treadwell, son of Hon. Thomas P. Treadwell of Concord, N. H.—Mr. F. stands No. 5 in his class.

An Indiana paper states that one David Van Alstyne has been mulcted in $3000 damages in a breach of promise case, in which Miss Hand was the plaintiff. Served him perfectly right. David had no business to indulge in any such slight of hand performances.

LOCAL.

PEDLAR NABBED.—A man named Jeremiah Mahoney, one of the pack Pedlars who go into houses without knocking, to sell goods if they meet with the inmates, and to steal goods if they do not, was arrested on Wednesday by officer Adams, on a charge of stealing ten dollars from the house of a widow named Bean, in State street, and also for pedling without a license. He was examined before Justice Parker, and bound over for trial at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas in the sum of $200 on each count; in default of which he was furnished with quarters at the expense of the County in the hotel kept by Capt. Towle.

SALES BY AUCTION.—On Wednesday, Geo. W. Towle & Co., Auctioneers, sold the Sagamore Mill and Land, with the Engine, Boilers and Steampipes, to Geo. W. Pendexter, Esq., for $5000. The Machinery and other property connected therewith, sold for about $6000, in lots, to Wm. Stearns, Esq., and others.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

CONCORD, June 21, 1854.

Much interest was manifested in the doings or sayings of the House of Representatives to-day. The members generally were in their seats, and spectators filled every allowable space. This morning was the appointed time for further consideration of the Anti-Nebraska Resolutions. Mr. Clark, whig, of Manchester, finished his speech begun on Friday last, urging their adoption. It was an able effort, and elicited close attention throughout. He closed by expressing the hope that the last resolution of the series might be so amended as that the names of Morrison and Kittredge should be recorded to their lasting honor, and the names of others of the New Hampshire delegation in Congress be written on their enduring infamy, on the records of the House—so that in coming time the voice of the people, thus expressed, may encourage some promptings of good, and perhaps prevent some false steps, in those who profess to represent New Hampshire in Congress.

Mr. Herbert of Rumney, democrat, replied to—or rather followed, Mr. Clark, and occupied the time till the adjournment of the House at 1 o'clock, He groped about among all sorts of political matters—mentioned frequently the Mis-sis-souri Com-prom-is—and among other profound announcements, stated that John P. Hale voted in Congress for the admission of Florida, with her slave-holding constitution. On being corrected, he stated that at any rate Mr. Hale did vote for something which involved the same principle. Mr. Herbert spoke half an hour, but did not refer to the resolutions or the principles involved therein—dwelling merely on the bounden duty of all democrats to stick to their party and the administration. The unfinished business, (the resolutions,) on adjourning, was postponed till Thursday morning.

In the afternoon, the House proceeded to ballot for Senators for the short term, with the following result:

Whole number of votes	304
Necessary to a choice—	153
John S. Wells had	144
Joel Eastman,	89
M. W. Tappan,	44
G. W. Morrison,	22
Daniel Clark,	2
C. L. Woodbury,	1
Ichabod Goodwin,	2

When the mail closed, the House was proceeding to ballot again. F.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—Serious Fire.—The large cotton and woolen mill on Jefferson and Mifflin streets, Kensington, was totally destroyed by fire this afternoon. The cause was said to be friction of the machinery.

There were 130 operatives in the building when the fire commenced, and as the stairs were almost immediately enveloped in flames, a terrible scene ensued among those in the upper stories, mostly females, who commenced jumping from the windows, and but for the active exertion of the firemen with their hooks and ladders all must have perished. It is reported that 15 persons are missing, and two lives, a man and a woman, are certainly lost. Thomas Hill is amongst the missing, he went to sleep in the building about three o'clock and has not been seen since. A man named McLean jumped from the third story and broke both his legs. Three sisters named McBride were terribly injured; a large number were severely burned about the hands and face. The building was occupied by Mr. Rivers, Messrs. Houghton, Roe and Phillips, and Mr. Holt; each firm had large stocks of goods and materials, all of which were entirely destroyed. The dyery of Mr. Hill, the former owner of the factory adjoining, and another unoccupied building were destroyed.—Loss estimated at $60,000.

In Darbyville, Pickaway county, Ohio, Miss Fuller, a victim of misplaced affection, drowned herself because her lover sent her a note stating his intention not to marry her. She threw her arms around the neck of the faithless one, kissed him, and in a few minutes after plunged into some water fifteen feet deep and was a corpse.

TUESDAY, June 20.

SENATE.—Mr. Seward gave notice of a bill regulating the navigation to the coast of Africa in vessels owned by American citizens, the object being to break up the African slave trade in American vessels.

The Naval bill was taken up, when Mr. Hunter moved to reconsider the vote ordering it to a third reading. He thought the bill needed amending in some important particulars.

Mr. Hunter's motion to reconsider the Navy bill was agreed to, and the bill was then postponed.

The vetoed Insane Bill was taken up, when Mr. Clay of Alabama argued the constitutionality of the bill. Pending a motion of the rejection of the bill, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the House, Messrs. Cullom and Churchwell of Tennessee came near to blows, growing out of the personal explanations of yesterday.

Mr. Churchwell charged Mr. Cullom with adding to the published report of his speech statements that were not uttered in the House, and which were false. Mr. Cullom immediately leaped over the desks towards Mr. Churchwell, and shaking his fists in his face, called him a "liar and scoundrel; whereupon Mr. Churchwell drew a pistol and cocked it, when friends interfered, and the Seargeant at-Arms coming up, order was restored. A duel will probably grow out of this affair.

When order was restored the Minnesota Land bill was taken up, and after discussion, passed, by 95 to 71.

Mr. Wilson gave notice that he should to-morrow introduce a question of privilege to recent violations of the rules and decorum of the House. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 20.—The Committee on Patents has renewed the Morse telegraph patent of June, 1840, for the term of seven years, Professor Morse having disclaimed so much of his 8th specification as brings it within the decision of the Supreme Court in the recent case of Morse vs. O'Reilly.

Despatches from Mexico show that the principle demanded by Santa Anna is the payment of ten millions in cash instead of five monthly instalments.

Much excitement exists amongst members of Congress in regard to the conduct of Mr. Churchwell, that he should, as is alleged, have entered the hall armed, and with the intent to commence a quarrel with Mr. Cullom. The matter will be the subject of investigation to-morrow, and Mr. Wilson will offer a resolution for the immediate expulsion of the offending member. Mr. Churchwell's course is pronounced entrageous and inexcusable.

The cholera has made its appearance here, one death having occurred to-day. This will hasten the action of the House on the Senate resolution for a recess.

ANOTHER TARIFF PROJECT.—New York, June 21.—The correspondent of the Courier & Enquirer gives the subjoined synopsis of the minority tariff scheme submitted by Mr. Robbins of Pennsylvania and Appleton of Massachusetts.

The minority bill has but three schedules, of which the first, at 25 per cent., embraces all the other dutiable articles, and it is estimated will produce forty-five million dollars. The free list proposed by the bill of the minority is similar to that suggested in the secretary's report, that is to say, it contained about 300 articles instead of 30 or 40. Like the bill of the majority, the 25 per cent. schedule of the minority embraces the mass of those articles named in the 25 per cent. schedule of the majority. The majority report is sanctioned by only five of the nine members of the committee. Mr. Havens of New York, one of the committee, assents to it without signing the minority report.

FROM EUROPE.

By the steamship Canada we have Liverpool dates to June 10, a week later than previous advices. Cotton had advanced 1-8d.—Breadstuffs are quoted in some circulars a little lower, in others a little higher; sales small and dull, prices uncertain.

There is nothing decisive by this arrival from the seat of war.

Marshal St. Arnaud has sent 70,000 Anglo French troops to the relief of Sillistria. They were expected to reach there by the 14th of June, and all interest centered in the question whether the fortress would be able to hold out until that time.

There were some deep political moves going on at Vienna between the Emperor of Austria and King of Prussia.

Several changes have taken place in the British Cabinet.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Advices from Barbadoes of May 30th, state that the cholera was raging there to a considerable extent, confined principally to the colored population. On the previous Sunday there were 20 burials in one gave yard.

A letter from one of the Japan squadrons says:

"If our first commercial adventurers go to Japan under the impression that the Japanese are ignorant because they are inexperienced in commerce, they will find themselves mistaken, for not even the Chinamen understand the art of making things appear to the greatest advantage, with more tact and skill than the Japanese. The presents of fruits and sweetmeats they made us, were so arranged in the boxes as to appear of thrice the real quantity, and everything is so contrived as to be over estimated by all but the closest observer."

Four earthquakes in one day, recently spread much consternation among the inhabitants of the country between Florence and Rome, in Italy.

The steamer Crescent City, at New York, brings latest Havana papers. The Diario gives President Pierce's proclamation, and speaks of it as a document of more political signification than at first appears, and gives him great credit for his stand in opposition to the filibusters, who are traducing Cuba throughout the United States.

FREE NAVIGATION OF THE ST. LAWRENCE.—The Montreal (C. W.) Herald says: "A citizen of Chicago has obtained from the government the privilege of loading his vessels at Quebec. We presume a like privilege will be granted to all those who apply for it, so that in reality the St. Lawrence is at last opened to the vessels of the United States coming from the Upper Lakes. We understand that there is no law by which an American vessel can be prevented from going to Quebec, and there is no penalty. If this is so, it would be difficult to say how much we have lost during the last five years by preventing American vessels from navigating the Lower St. Lawrence."

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. It has never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never could suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 18 lbs.; another 16 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference forty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were completely cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Plymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside and inside (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for months.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is THE REALDEAD SHOT for these noxious tormenters of our nightly ease.

JUDICIAL DECISION ON THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW.—We have already stated that Judge Smith, of the Wisconsin Supreme Court, has pronounced the Fugitive Slave law unconstitutional. The case in which this decision was delivered, was that of S. M. Booth, who was arrested in Milwaukie last March, charged with aiding in the rescue of a fugitive slave, and who was brought before the Supreme Court of Wisconsin on a writ of habeas corpus, and discharged from custody. The following summary of the opinion of Judge Smith is taken from the Milwaukie Sentinel:

"His Honor first recites the form of the mittimus from the commissioner, by which the defendant was held in custody, giving the fact of his surrender by his bail, &c. In the application for a writ of habeas corpus, the petitioner alleges that he is illegally held, because, 1st, the Act of 1850 is void; 2d, Congress has no authority to punish the act of which he is charged; 3d, the Act of 1850 is in violation of the ordinance of 1787, in Wisconsin; 5th, that the warrant is defective in describing Glover as 'property,' instead of a 'person held to service,' &c.

The Judge thinks the petitioner to blame in not having presented his petition before the bench of justices of the Supreme Court, which he had two opportunities of doing. As the petition was made to him, however, by a citizen of the State, he had no alternative but to grant a hearing.

He holds that no U. S. Commissioner has a right to imprison a citizen of the State by any process which bars the authorities of the State from inquiring into his proceedings. That every citizen has a right to try every enactment of the legislative power by the fundamental law of the land, and to resist unconstitutional enactments, though he does the latter at his peril.

After examining at length the law of the United States and the writ, his honor concludes the latter is clearly defective, and for that reason alone the petitioner is entitled to his discharge.

He then proceeds to an examination of the question of the constitutionality of the Act of 1850, discussing the origin and history of legislation on the subject of persons held to labor or service. He holds that this article was merely a compact by the contracting parties to the constitution, by which the free States were to be bound to provide legislation under due course of law, and after examination of facts, for the return of such persons, but that no power was conferred upon Congress to legislate upon the matter, and that it is the duty of the States to provide such legislation, is a proof that the matter remains in form of a compact. That it is clear that Congress cannot constitutionally act upon this subject, while it is clear that the States cannot pass laws discharging fugitives from service. All such laws must be void.

That the constitution contemplates an examination into the claim of the claimant of the fugitive, to be made where he is, by presumption, free, while the act of 1850 makes the decision or warrant of a judge or commissioner a judgment in fact, without trial or examination. That in order to ascertain to whom 'such labor or service is due,' examination and inquiry must be made. If service or labor is due, the fugitive must be given up; but the fact must be ascertained. There is an issue of fact to be tried.

The suit to try this fact is not a suit in equity or admiralty, and must be at common law; hence a trial by jury is demanded properly.

The act of 1850 is unconstitutional in that it violates the principles which provides that persons shall not be deprived of their liberty without 'due process of law.' The summary proceedings under this act of 1850 clearly violate the provision."

WITNESS FEES IN CERTAIN LIQUOR CASES.—There was a liquor case before the Police Court in Worcester, on Thursday, in which the defendant, George A. Upham, was convicted on three complaints, by the testimony of informers. The witnesses having acknowledged that they purchased liquor of Mr. Upham, for the purpose of making complaints, the Court passed an order, in accordance with the law of the last session, under which any witness who has induced or procured the defendant to commit the offence whereof he is charged, shall receive no fees for travel or attendance. Informers, who depend on fees for pocket money—and there are not a few such—will soon find their business a somewhat losing concern under the new law.—Boston Chronicle.

Very likely; but this will remove one great objection to the law, and aid its operation. No small amendment could have been devised, which would have helped it more.

A curious question will present itself when Cuba comes in: Shall all her freemen be represented, or not? For it is said that Cuba contains about as many free negroes and men entitled by the laws of the United States to their freedom, as there are white inhabitants. There are actually 200,000 negroes, recognised as freemen, many of whom were born free, and who have accumulated property, and are intelligent and even educated; and there are 180,000 negroes illegally held in bondage, who would be liberated by our laws; and 250,000 slaves; and to offset all these there are only 500,000 whites in the island of Cuba.—Lowell Courier.

Mr. Thrasher publishes a letter in the N. Y. Herald, in which he expresses his opinion that there will be no war with Spain. He thinks the authority given to General Pezuela to declare the emancipation of all the slaves of the island in the event of an attack by the United States, will be conclusive in preventing any fillibustering experiment.

The city of New York has increased since census of 1850 at a greater ratio probably than at any other time in its past history. Its gain of population in the four past years would exceed the entire population of Boston. The increase of its suburban and surrounding population has also been very great, and the growth of the single city of Brooklyn is probably much larger than in the entire adjacent country for ten miles round Boston.

LOVERS OF GOOD ORDER.

Attorney General Cushing has given an opinion on the payment of the expenses incident to the recent fugitive slave trial in Boston. He maintains that when it is necessary for the Marshal to call the citizens to his assistance to ensure the enforcement of the law, they become themselves officers and agents of the United States, and as such entitled to be liberally compensated for their services.—Boston Courier.

The opinion of General Cushing supplies the only thing necessary to inspire the lovers of law and order with confidence in their triumph in all similar emergencies; it shows that whenever the riotous or treasonable spirit of abolitionism renders it necessary for the marshal to call the citizens to his assistance to insure the enforcement of the law, they become themselves officers and agents of the United States, and as such entitled to be liberally compensated for their services. This decision arms the marshal with a power which enables him to call around him a body of order-loving and law-abiding men, capable of resisting successfully the utmost efforts of mobs to thwart him in the execution of his duties. These citizens will obey his summons not as mere volunteers, but in obedience to a high and sacred obligation that rests upon every man to serve his country whenever its honor or the majesty of the law is endangered or seriously threatened.

The best possible commentary on these remarks, would be a vision of the "order-loving and law-abiding men" who were actually gathered by Marshal Freeman for the "high and sacred duty" of the last slave hunt in Boston.

Dana, one of Burns's counsels, stigmatized them as a set of miscreants and criminals;—and the opposing counsel did not attempt to defend them in his reply, but only said he would not enquire into their private character!

No newspaper has attempted, so far as we have seen, so much as to intimate that any of them were respectable men.

MAINE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION.—The regular old line Democrats in Maine, held their delegate Convention at Portland on Wednesday, and by a unanimous vote nominated Albion K. Parris as their candidate for Governor.

We have looked over the report in the Argus, and see a committee of fifteen appointed to report resolutions, but we see no resolutions reported, and no reason given why there were none.

The State of Maine says:

No resolutions, no address, or declaration of principles, was made or offered. No allusion was made to the national administration. Nothing was said endorsing Franklin Pierce or the Nebraska bill; and the committee on resolutions presented a single issue, viz: an adjournment to meet their fellow Democrats at the polls.

Upon the great question of the day, the extension of slavery, the Convention was upon the fence. * * * * * *

A call was made for resolutions, a declaration of principles; or something of that sort.—Charles Jarvis of Ellsworth declared they wanted no resolutions,—they had nominated a candidate for Governor, and this was enough.

Have we no principles? Shall we not endorse the administration? were the enquiries on all sides, when the chairman put an end to this by calling for nominations for the State Committee. This went on harmoniously till they reached Waldo, on which an exciting debate sprung up, which was only broken by adjournment to the polls, introduced as above.

The Argus says:

Votes on thanks were presented to the officers, and the Convention adjourned with three cheers that rung the knell of whiggery and its adjuncts.

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

WEDNESDAY, June 21.

Our report of Wednesday afternoon's convention, which we published on Thursday morning, left off about five o'clock, just as the first balloting on that day, for Senator, had closed. We now take up the telegraphic report at that point, as follows:

Wells, had the House been full, would have had one more vote than he received at the last trial.

Second Ballot.—Whole number, 305; necessary for a choice, 153. Chas. L. Woodbury had 2; Ichabod Goodwin, 2; Geo. W. Morrison, 32; M. W. Tappan, 34; Joel Eastman, 91; J. S. Wells, 145—and again there was no choice.

A motion to postpone the whole subject was made, and after a long and warm debate, a proposition to lay it on the table was carried by a vote of 154 to 145.

A motion to adjourn was negatived by a majority of four votes.

The indefinite postponement was then carried by 164 to 149. Seven democrats absent or not voting, not counting the Speaker.

A reconsideration was moved by a Democrat who had voted with the majority, with the object of making such motion.

THURSDAY, June 22.

The House has agreed to the motion to reconsider the vote indefinitely postponing the Senatorial election, and has specially assigned Thursday next at 11 o'clock, for its discussion.

This arrangements was entered into by general consent; and it was understood that a final effort will then be made to choose Senators; that on Friday the other offices are to be filled; and on Saturday the legislature will probably adjourn.

LOCAL.

For the Chronicle.

THE CONVENTION, AGAIN.

Messrs. Editors:—It is a difficult task to enlighten a wilfully perverse intellect; and while, therefore, I do not hope to accomplish this, I must crave your indulgence to say a few words in rejoinder to "A Citizen," by way of preserving the subject of the pretended Convention of the City Council from mystification:

"A Citizen" abandons his statement that the elections were postponed from the 8th to the 12th by vote in convention, but says that my admission that the postponement was the act of the two boards in their separate capacity is fatal to my position that there was no convention. This, I need not say to any candid reader of his article and mine, he fails entirely to establish. His blunder here is that he appears to regard the votes of two bodies assigning a time for a convention, as in fact creating the convention, without requiring farther forms or action, and that when the appointed time arrives the members of the two bodies have only to tumble promiscuously together into one, to the number necessary for a quorum properly assembled, when the convention is duly formed and ready for business; but who ever heard of the formation of a convention in this way, until the whigs in the Council of this city established the precedent?

Now I think it must be evident to every person of reason that a thousand agreements merely, cannot create a convention, and consequently that the votes appointing a convention of the City Council, or postponing it from one night to another, afford no justification of the course of the Common Council and minority of the Aldermen on the 12th inst. Before there can be a convention, there evidently must be a meeting of the bodies to compose it; if there is no meeting of these, there certainly can be no convention—no matter what the agreement may have been. There was no meeting of one of the bodies, in the case under notice, and this fact I maintain is fatal to the position that there was a convention. To say the two boards met in convention when one of them had no legal existence, is the rankest absurdity. It avails nothing to cite the provision of law which defines the number necessary for a quorum in convention, in justification of the course pursued. This provision does not touch the manner of going into convention, and was not intended to, but was designed simply to prevent the conventions of the Council, after having been duly and properly formed, from being broken up by the improper withdrawal of members. Instead of being intended to justify usurpation, it was designed to guard against it.

That this is the correct view, and that there was no convention of the City Council on the 12th, (without which "A Citizen" concedes the elections were illegal,) I think a little simple reasoning, in addition to the known facts, must make plain to the dullest comprehension. Suppose that the Aldermen had met on that evening in full board, and upon receiving the notification from the Common Council (which that board could not have sent up without first having a quorum) that they were ready to meet the Mayor and Aldermen, the latter had voted not to go into convention, and the Mayor and the three whig Aldermen had thereupon proceeded to meet the Common Council; or suppose that immediately after his Honor, with his three friends of the Aldermen, and the City Clerk, had left the Aldermen's room and joined the Common Council, as they did, the four absent Aldermen had appeared in their seats, as they might have done, (no record of a meeting and adjournment of the board appearing) and organized by the choice of one of their number as chairman, sent for the City Clerk or chosen a Clerk pro tem., and proceeded to business, all of which they could legally and properly have done.—In either of these cases could there have been a legal convention of the City Council? Can anything be more absurd than such an idea? In either case the anomaly would have been presented of a body sitting and acting in one end of the city building, assuming to be a convention of the two boards of Mayor and Aldermen and Common Council, while at the same time the Board of Aldermen would have been lawfully sitting and transacting business in the other end! In view of these tests can absurdity go farther than to contend that the assemblage in the Common Council room on the night of the 12th inst., was a convention of the two boards of the city government?

As to the intimation of "A Citizen," that the majority of the Aldermen were influenced by unworthy partisan motives in being absent from the meeting of the board at the time of the pretended convention, I will only remark that the imputation might be deserving of some reply did it come from any other source than a member evidently of a party whose agents have been ready to rush over law in their eagerness to thrust an almost thoroughly partizan list of officers upon the city.

Having made this communication much longer than I intended to, I must omit to notice one or two other immaterial points in "A Citizen's" article.

In the Common Council, the subject of laying out a street from Pleasant street, at the Universalist church, to Auburn street, was referred.

Voted, That the Committee on Public Buildings be directed to make inquiry in regard to placing the Clock in the new North Church. [Aldermen concurred.]

☞ Those in want of a perfect likeness on canvass, will do well to call on Mr. Conner, an artist who has been among us long enough to have his talent and skill as a painter put to a very thorough and satisfactory test. His room is in Congress Block, where he is to be found every day in the week, Sundays excepted.

☞ A petition to Congress for the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Bill, already signed by 350 of our citizens, will remain at J. P. Morse's until Monday next, for more signatures.—The friends of Liberty will please call and sign. Although it may be true, as often said, that the present majority in Congress are heedless of the petitions of the people, yet it is also true that the expression of the public sentiment will have an influence upon the future elections.

THE MENAGERIE.—The Broadway Menagerie, the best collection of animals ever exhibited in this country, it is said, will enter this city this forenoon, and be exhibited in the afternoon and evening. A sight of the two beautiful giraffes alone is worth the price of admission, and there are many other animals which students of natural history will look on with pleasure. The great elephant Hannibal, who a short time ago run a muck in Fall River, forms a part of this collection. He has become quite docile again, and is perfectly harmless, by reason of the quieting influence of heavy chains.

☞ The New York Journal of Commerce apprehends evil and danger from the Concerts of Sacred Music to be given on Sunday evenings at the Crystal Palace. The Boston Handel & Haydn Society have given similar concerts on Sunday evenings for more than thirty years.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyrenee, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, June 21.

SENATE.—Mr. Seward's bill provides that any American vessels which shall be sold in any of the W. I. Islands shall return to the United States before making any voyage, and obtain a register; also declares any commerce carried on in American vessels, between the Spanish West Indies and the coast of Africa, unlawful. Laid on the table.

The vetoed Land bill was taken up, when Mr. Toucey spoke in defence of the veto and against the bill.

Mr. Bell followed in support of the bill.—Finally postponed, and Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Messrs. Churchwell and Callom each apologized to the House for the scenes of yesterday.

Mr. Brooks gave notice that he would introduce a bill expelling, by a two-thirds vote, any member bringing concealed weapons into the House.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Canadian Reciprocity Treaty was submitted to-day, and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, and ordered to be printed. The prospect of its ratification is better.

The Mexican Treaty is finally ratified.—The President announces the fact in a message and asks the House to make immediate provision for the payment of the $7,000,000, and for the other $3,000,000 within six months.—These propositions are badly received, and fierce opposition expected from both Whigs and Democrats, on the ground of corruption in the negotiation of the treaty, and second, that the land acquired is entirely worthless.—A resolution calling for the instructions and for all the papers relating to the treaty will be presented.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Liverpool dates to June 10.

The advance of the Russians towards the position of the allied armies is announced, and has created considerable uneasiness in the monied world at Paris.

It is stated that all the better class of persons are flying from St. Petersburg. They fear the troops now arriving, composed of Cossacks.

The Times Paris correspondent alludes to the existence of the injurious intrigue in the Turkish council, and mismanagement of the war department in Constantinople. Russian bribery is hinted at.

THE EAST.—Intense anxiety hangs on the fate of Silistria. The Russians are making desperate efforts to take it, and Marshal St. Arnaud has sent 70,000 men to relieve it, namely, 24,000 French, 15,000 British, and 30,000 Turks of Omar Pasha's force.

The Russians have 70,000 besieging, and the assault continues day and night.

The Russians had made a practicable breach, but a freshet in the Danube prevented storming.

Advices of May 25th reported that it might hold out for 15 days.

The commandant, Mussa Pasha, says he will blow up himself and the fortress rather than surrender. During the night of May 29 the Russians made three attempts to storm, but were repulsed with fearful loss, leaving 1500 dead beneath the ramparts. The Turks also made a sortie and effected a dreadful massacre of the Russians. The number of their wounded and slain is reported to be 4500.

The headquarters of the allied army are at Varna, and it is calculated that by the 7th the Anglo French force would be at Shumla, thence to Silistria, being three days march; consequently, by the 10th, or say 15th of June, would be in face of the enemy, when battle must ensue.

There has been considerable fighting elsewhere. The Governor of Widdin writes that on May 31st a severe affair occurred at Slatina, where the Turks defeated 2000 Russians, killed 500 and captured their artillery.

ASIA.—Letters from Kars of May 5 report the effectual force under Gen. Guyon and Karim Pasha 20,000 men, with 64 guns and two regiments of Arab cavalry. There have been no movements except skirmishing.—Some sickness, but abundance of food and ammunition, and two months' pay had lately been distributed among the troops, leaving six months due.

GREECE.—An Athens despatch, of May 29, confirms the report that the insurgents had gained a victory in Thessaly. The Turks lost 700 killed, many prisoners, and five guns. The Turks however, were successful in other quarters, and in Epirus was tranquil.

The new Greek ministry have taken the oaths and satisfied the requirements of the Porte by issuing peaceful orders, and dismissing all functionaries implicated in the insurrection. Among those disgraced are four aids-de-camp of the king. The Porte consequently refrains from further measures against Greece.

Mr. Hume asked if government would also lay before the house any documents received from the British consul at Havana, in order to ascertain if those anti-slavery decrees were enforced, as within the past three months three cargoes of slaves had been landed in Cuba.

Lord John Russell replied that the treaty decree just laid on the table, being dated March 22d, could not have practical effect in Cuba at the date Mr. Hume referred to.

Another miracle was reported from Rome. The picture of the Madonna at the church of San Antonia di Padova, Civita Vecchia, has been winking at worshippers.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW ORLEANS, June 20.—The steamship United States arrived at the Balize at 1 o'clock this afternoon, in four and a half days from Aspinwall, bringing California dates to the 1st inst.

She reports that the steamship Illinois sailed for New York on the 16th, with 400 passengers and nearly $1,000,000 in treasure, brought down to Panama by the John L. Stephens.

FORCE OF HABIT.—It is curious to observe how one's habits of thought constantly break out and exhibit themselves in what ever he does or says. In one of our colleges it was customary for the professors to take turns in making the chapel prayers. Once upon an occasion, this duty fell upon a learned professor of chemistry, and the students were astonished to hear him introduce an illustration thus: "Thou knowest, O Lord, that for tipping lightning, silver is better than platinum, so is the mind, touched by thy grace, made the most ready to receive the principles of science."

On another occasion the mathematical professor asked "Divine goodness to enable us to know its length, its depth, and its superficial contents!"

In China, if a young man is not married by the time he is 20, he is drummed out of town. No place for bachelors among the flum flums.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV, late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.

If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.

Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.

One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.

Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head

One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth

One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.

Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.

Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.

One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.

One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS.

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES.

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, &c., it is unrivaled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

RESTITUTION.—On Tuesday last, a Catholic priest called at the office of the National Insurance Company, in New York, and stated to the President that he had a sum of money which he was directed to pay over to the company. He declined answering any questions as to the source whence he received the money, or giving any information whatever concerning it; but asked for a receipt from the company, to the effect that they accepted the amount so paid, viz, $2,289, as in full for the sum which the parties would have wished to pay, including interest. Such a receipt was accordingly given, and the money paid over to the President.—Jour. Com.

There was once an old man who believed that "what was to be, would be." He lived in Missouri, and was once going through a region invested at that time by very savage Indians. He always took his gun with him, but this time he found that some of the family had taken it out. As he would not go without it, his friends tantalized him, saying there was no danger of the Indians—that he would not die till his time, anyhow. "Yes," says the old fellow, "but suppose I was to meet an Indian, and his time had come, it would not do not to have my gun!"

BIG BEAR CAUGHT.—On Monday morning, in Offord, a very large Bear was shot by a party of hunters composed of C. Savage, S. W. Savage, John Chase, H. Stevens and Messrs. Davis. He was driven, the evening previous, into a piece of woods containing about twelve acres, where he was watched during the night, and was shot in the morning. He measured 8 feet in length, 4 feet in girth, 20 inches round the leg, and two feet round his thigh, and weighed 350 lbs. Such "critters" are not very plenty in these parts.—Daily Patriot.

A slave belonging to Oliver Fresly recently attempted to blow up the gas works in Richmond, Va. Two distinct explosions were heard, and the negro was found with his head and breast crushed, and both legs broken. It is supposed he purposely applied the match to avenge himself upon his new owner. He was, however, the only victim.

The citizens of the town of Groton have accepted the proposition of Hon. Abbot Lawrence, who gives to them $500 for a town library, if they will raise as much more. Mr Lawrence also offers to Groton another $500 for the same object, if the town will raise the same amount of money for the same purpose.

SAILOR APPRENTICES. The new clipper ship Swallow, which sailed from New York on Saturday for London, took out eight boys from the country as apprentices. Their berths are separated from the present evil influences of the forecastle, and they are to receive instruction in navigation.

The verdict of the Coroner's jury in the case of the killing of Callin in Manchester was that John Marshal of Manchester, on the evening of the 11th inst. with malcie aforethought, did kill and murder Michael Callin, by striking him on the head with a monkey wrench.—Daily Patriot.

A REVOLUTIONARY RELIC.—A cannon ball, embedded in the earth, was recently found on Bunker Hill, on the premises of David Snow, Esq., which is undoubtedly one of the missiles sent by the British on the memorable 17th of June. It looks old and rusty, and is an interesting memorial of other times.

A correspondent of the Syracuse Standard, writing from Rochester, New York, says that "Fred" Douglas, probably the ablest colored man in the United States, is to be brought out for Congress in the Monroe district, and expresses the opinion that he will be elected.

The St. John, N. B., papers express themselves strongly in opposition to the proposed reciprocity treaty with the United States.—They say Nova Scotia may derive some benefit from it, but not New Brunswick.

RHODE ISLAND.—The Supreme Court of this State has given a unanimous opinion that the act of the last Legislature, expunging the record of its conviction of Thomas W. Dorr for treason, is unconstitutional.

BALTIMORE, June 20.—The second branch of the city council has passed an ordinance consolidating the Susquehannah railroad over the mayor's veto by a three-fourths vote. The first branch will do likewise to-morrow.

The editor of the New Orleans Creole says: Let an eloquent, learned, evangelical, French Protestant clergyman be obtained to fill a pulpit in the midst of our Creole population, and thousands would listen to his ministration."

The Rockland Gazette thinks the shipping now on the stocks and to be built at that port the present summer, will amount to 17,000 tons, which is some 5000 tons more than was built last year.

AWFUL BEREAVEMENT.—Wm. Colliss, a resident of Philadelphia, lost his wife, seven children, and upwards of twenty thousand dollars, in the steamship "City of Glasgow." All his property was in the steamer.

New York and Boston engross about all the foreign commerce of the United States, those two cities importing five-sixths of all the goods entered into the United States.

Matt. F. Ward, the murderer of Professor Butler, has sought refuge from the public scorn by going to the Hot Springs of Arkansas, his health being very bad.

A Convention of Sunday School Teachers in New York city have decided that it is improper for Christians to attend the theatres, even if 'Uncle Tom' is to be the play.

COD FISH, &c.

The fishery and reciprocity treaty was sent to the Senate to-day. Action will doubtless be delayed until after the provincial parliament decides upon it. The opposition here promises to be very active.—Washington correspondence of N. Y. Times.

"The opposition promises to be active."—Are we to understand by this that any treaty which has regard to the rights and the privileges of the New England fishermen, is to be knocked down by a sectional opposition in Congress. It will be well to know this at the present time.—Boston Courier.

We have no doubt of it; and New England richly deserves it too. She has bowed, in the persons of many of her statesmen, divines, lawyers and politicians, great and small, to the passage of some most unjust and infamous acts of Congress, to aid the cause of the oppressor, and to crush down the oppressed, not merely when he rose, but even when he fled from the face of those who spoiled him.—Thousands of our people, too, have tamely, silently and basely submitted to this state of things, and some have even aided in the process.

Now, our own turn has come; the oppressor threatens that we shan't catch cod fish unless we help him catch negroes in Canada as well as Boston; and we begin to snivel, do we? as if somebody was trod upon. We think it is high time for men in New England to be men, rather than tools, and partisans, and dupes. If we have done battle for the wrong, let us not complain when the tyranny which we helped to strengthen, turns its strength upon us, and tries to crush us also.

Tyranny can be nothing else than tyranny. And freemen ought to act like freemen; if not, they deserve to be slaves, and to be scoffed at as well as buffeted.

VERMONT.

Resolutions were passed complimenting the administration of Franklin Pierce in strong terms, but declaring the support of or opposition to the Nebraska bill should not be considered a test of party faith.

Resolved, That the democracy of Vermont, believing that our free Constitution sanctions no proscription on account of birth, openly and emphatically condemns any organization, secret or otherwise, that would aim to deprive any citizen, native or adopted, of his civil, political or religious liberty.

The convention was quite fully attended, and the members claim for it a good degree of harmony.

MASSACHUSETTS.

A great temperance convention was held at Lowell, on Tuesday, the Hon. Samuel Hoar, presiding. We take the following brief report of the proceedings from the Boston Chronicle. The reader will remember it is in the language of an opponent of the convention, and will interpret the document accordingly.

Mr. Hoar spoke at some length in regard to the duties of the friends of the Liquor Law, at the present crisis. He thought that, notwithstanding the obstacles in the way, such as the refusal of the Legislature to pass the supplementary bill, things would come out right, if every man used personal exertion, &c. The report of the central committee states that the one per cent. fund had yielded for use during the year the sum of $9,327.87. A new State committee having been appointed, Mr. Trask of Fitchburg, made an address against the use of tobacco, and was particularly severe upon the cigar stores in Boston and elsewhere. A series of resolutions was then introduced, drawn up in the usual style of rapid declamation, and containing nothing of interest excepting the reference to political action. The State committee are instructed to call a Convention four weeks before the election, for the purpose of nominating independent candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and also county meetings for the nomination of Senators.

Among the speakers were Rev. A. A. Miner, who charged or intimated that brandy originated and carried the Nebraska bill—Mr. Senator Douglas having formed a coalition with it. Mr. Miner, as an ardent Universalist, holds that all will be finally saved, notwithstanding their violations of the Maine law. Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, who followed in the afternoon on the same side, is so strongly Orthodox that he cannot admit that Mr. Miner, however eloquent he may be in denouncing intemperance, or in supporting the Maine Law, stands any chance of escaping perpetual torment hereafter. Rev. Dr. Gannet supported the resolutions in the afternoon. The Convention appears to have been well attended.

The Musical Repository, No. 27, contains Hope, the Wanderer's Morning Song. Words by W. Bartholomew. Music by G. Preyer. Published by F. Parker, Boston.

A destructive fire occurred on Mill street, Long Dock, Baltimore, on Thursday morning, which consumed no less than nine warehouses. Loss $50,000.

James Connelly has been sentenced to the State Prison for five years, for setting fire to the printing office of the Hampshire Gazette.

For the Chronicle.

THAT CONVENTION.

Messrs. Editors:—We must be excused from making any reply to the many supposed cases in respect to the organization of our city council, which "Common Sense" supposes might possibly have arisen, because he has, of his own accord, very ingeniously exposed their absurdity; nor are we disposed to indulge in any criticisms or witticisms at his expense. The attempted overthrow of the city government becomes a serious matter, when we consider that should the taxes not be assessed and collected, the State and County Treasurers could and would levy their extents upon the property of individuals. We therefore take the case as it appears by the records.

There was no legal meeting of either of the two boards of Aldermen and Common Council on the 12th of June—no such record appears—for the reason that the two boards, by a concurrent vote (which the board of Aldermen alone, could not afterwards rescind,) passed June 8th, had agreed to meet in convention on the 12th of June. Each board had "a legal existence," and a quorum, and was competent to pass that vote. The record shews that they did meet in convention in pursuance of that vote so concurred in, there being, of course, a quorum of each board when it was passed. When the time specified arrived, it was not necessary that a majority of the Aldermen should be present—no such record is made, for the legal existence of the two separate boards is, for the time being, merged in the city council as a distinct board.

But although the record of June 12th does not show any separate organization of the two boards, it does show that "the City Council" convened, which in the legal sense means a quorum, or majority of the combined boards, and proceeded to elect the city officers. These are the simple and only material facts—and we have not yet heard any valid objection to the city council being legally constituted for the purpose.

But "Common Sense" is supposed to contend that the two boards should have been separately organized at the time previously fixed for the meeting of the city council, and thus holding a separate legal meeting at pleasure, (although there is no record that either board had adjourned its separate meeting to the 12th of June) either board could, in this mode, or by then declining to meet the other board, have virtually rescinded the previous vote concurred in by the two branches. If this be common sense, surely it cannot be law. He also holds that certain forms and ceremonies under the auspices of a herald with a proclamation, to prevent "the members tumbling promiscuously together into one" body, should be gone through with, before the grave Aldermen could be called to the presence of the appointed convention. Will he point to the clause of the charter making such ceremonies, although, perhaps, useful, a prerequisite?

A CITIZEN.

N. B.—We did not assert that the Aldermen, whom flying report says were absent, "were influenced by unworthy partisan motives." If any, sworn to the performance of their official duties, were absent, we would rather impute such absence to a sudden ill turn, than wilful neglect. But if otherwise, their constituents may require the true reason to be assigned.

For the Chronicle.

CITY OFFICERS' POLITICAL COMPLEXION.—Messrs. Editors:—Your correspondent "Common Sense" in substance, charges the City Council with thrusting an "almost thoroughly partisan list of officers upon the city." The principal offices of the city were divided among our parties as follows:

Democratic.	Whig.
City Clerk,	Collector & Treasurer,
City Messenger,	Super. City Farm,
Street Commissioner,	Chief Engineer,
City Marshal,	City Solicitor,
	City Physician.

FAIR PLAY.

Mr. Chronicle:—One Citizen writes ingeniously; but Common Sense much more so: for the former only tells us plainly what the letter of the law says and means, but the latter tells us what it intends and designs. I would like to be informed how he knows all those things. I cannot think of any way, unless the man who made the law has told him.

Section 2 of the Amendments to the Charter says, "A majority of the city council shall be a quorum for proceeding in elections,"—and Common Sense says,

"This provision does not touch the manner of going into convention, and was not intended to, but was designed simply to prevent the conventions of the Council, after having been duly and properly formed, from being broken up by the improper withdrawal of members."

The book does not say one word about this intention, and does not make any distinction between the two cases, but applies equally to both. I do not know what was intended.

Again, Common Sense supposes that four Aldermen, who did not go into Convention, might meet and organize on their own hook. If so, why might not the same four, or any others, meet and organize in like manner, when they should happen to walk out of a convention?

ANOTHER CITIZEN.

THURSDAY, June 22.

In the Board of Aldermen, as we learn from the Gazette, the following resolution was passed, and Messrs. Jenkins and Rundlett were appointed the committee in accordance with its provisions:

Resolved, That the majority of this Board desire an early adjustment of the rupture which unfortunately exists in the government of this city, and which they believe can be effected only by a competent and conclusive interpretation of the law, which in their opinion has been flagrantly disregarded, and that therefore a committee of two be appointed by this Board with authority to take such action, after consulting competent legal authority, as they shall deem best to bring the difficulty to a speedy decision and adjustment.

☞ Rev. Mr. Moore will deliver a course of short practical sermons to the young men of this city, in the Temple, commencing on Sunday afternoon. The object of these sermons will be to impress upon the young, the importance of religion as the only conservative element of life, and as the only principle which will induce the foundation and development of happy and useful character.

FOURTH OF JULY.—It has been stated that $350 is appropriated by our City Council to celebrate the coming 4th of July; but no such appropriation has been made. The Aldermen have not passed the appropriation bill, which includes this $350—and we understand our city authorities have very properly decided not to expend a dollar in the matter, until the requisite funds are appropriated. So if much more delay is made, the day will be here before we are ready for it, and we shan't even have the bells rung, a gun fired, or a rocket let off, by the city. The Odds and Ends, the Fantastics, and the Continentals are "preparing to pucker."

N. H. Legislature—June Session.

Abridged from the Patriot.

THURSDAY, June 22.

HOUSE.—A petition was presented by Mr. Adams of Portsmouth, of Ichabod Rollins and 44 others, for authority to the city of Portsmouth to subscribe to the capital stock of the Portsmouth and Dover Railroad.

The election of Senators was assigned for Thursday the 29th, at 11 o'clock, without a division.

Election of State Printer, &c.—Resolved, that information be given to the Senate, that the House will meet the Senate in Convention on Friday, the 30th day of June instant, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of proceeding in the election of State Printer, Commissary General, and Warden of the State Prison.

Dog Tax.—On motion of Mr. Winthrop Pickering of Newington, the committee on the Judiciary were instructed to report a bill authorizing the taxation of dogs.

A good deal of debate ensued on a proposal by Mr. Hughes of Nashua to add, after the word "dogs" the words "and bachelors," which was withdrawn, after several useless speeches had been made on the subject.

The bill to incorporate the Rockingham Ice Company was read a third time and passed.

Mr. Marcy of Portsmouth introduced a bill to authorize the erection of a bridge to Pierce's Island in Portsmouth, which was read and referred to the committee on Roads, Bridges and Canals.

Final Adjournment.—On motion of Mr. Emery of Portsmouth, the resolution concerning the final adjournment, which came down from the Senate, was taken from the table, and passed without a division—so the Legislature has decided to adjourn on the 1st of July.

The Nebraska Resolutions.—On motion of Mr. Benton of Lancaster, Tuesday, at eleven o'clock, was specially assigned for the consideration of the resolutions concerning slavery.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.—CONCORD, June 23.—The Senate has rescinded their share of the joint resolution for adjournment, and the House will probably follow the same course. The session will probably extend to the middle of July.

NEWBURYPORT FIVE-CENT SAVINGS INSTITUTION.—The Herald says the opening of the Five Cent Bank this week has caused quite a sensation among the little folks. The number of deposits up to Thursday noon, were one hundred and forty-five, and the amount rising $937.00. The institution has opened favorably.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday evening, as Mr. William T. Merrill was bathing in the Merrimac at Newburyport, by Collins's mast yard, where he was employed, he dove a distance of nine feet, where the water was less than four feet deep, and by taking a more perpendicular direction than he intended, he struck the bottom with such force upon his head as to paralyze his entire body below the heart, by the concussion or fracture of the spine, so that he afterwards experienced not the least sensation in the trunk or extremities. He was fully conscious of his condition, and upon being taken from the water directed a companion to call a physician, remarking that he believed he had killed himself. In the full possession of his senses and able to converse as usual, he lay till Thursday afternoon, when he died. Mr. Merrill was a young man of good character, and leaves a wife and several children.—Herald.

ARITHMETICAL PROBLEM.

Three numbers, if divided by a certain divisor, and the sum of the numbers, quotients and divisors are added together, give the sum total 2325. The sum of the divisors is 7-768 of the sums of the numbers and quotients, and the sum of the quotients is 1-7 of the sum of the numbers. The smallest number is 1-8 of the largest and 1-7 of the next largest, or 1-8 of the first number and 1-7 of the second.

Required the three numbers, the three quotients and the three divisors.

ANSWER.—The common divisor is 7.

California and India Sealing Wax.

THIS WAX, made by Hyde & Co., Manufacturers to the Queen, affords the only security to Foreign Correspondence,—Wafers, Gum, or ordinary Sealing Wax being alike insecure for Letters to or from hot climates.

Hyde's India Wax possesses the peculiar property of remaining hard in the hottest climate, the seal impression being found uninjured after passing twice through the Tropics. A perfect security to Foreign Letters is thus obtained by the use of this Hard Wax, the peulier properties of which obtained for Hyde & Co. the Exhibition Prize Medal of 1851.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, June 22.

SENATE.—Mr. Rockwell presented a memorial, signed by over nineteen hundred persons, principally of Boston, asking for the immediate repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law. He said the signers were persons of all professions and occupations, and mostly persons who had been disposed to support the Compromise measure of 1850, but were now induced to ask the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law because of the late act repealing the Missouri Compromise. He moved it be referred to the Committee of the Judiciary.

Mr. Dixon said that before the motion was adopted, he, as well as other Senators, desired to be heard. He therefore moved it be postponed till to-morrow.

Mr. Sumner hoped the memorial would be referred.

Mr. Dixon's motion was agreed to.

Mr. Seward reported a bill for the establishment of a line of steamers between California and Shanghae, in China, and gave notice he would call it up to-morrow.

Mr. Clayton presented proceedings of meetings in Delaware, remonstrating against the treaty or other measures for a reciprocal trade in breadstuffs.

Mr. Sumner introduced a bill granting land warrants to Massachusetts, to aid in constructing the Hoosac Tunnel. Referred.

The vetoed Land bill was taken up, when Mr. Bell finished his speech, and the bill creating the office of Surveyor General of Washington Territory was amended and passed.—Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Houston, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill to enable the President to carry into effect the Gadsden treaty, appropriating $1,000,000 for the purpose. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Benton said he was not willing to go into consideration of the bill until they had an opportunity of inquiring whether the privilege of the House has not been invaded in the negotiation of the treaty.

Mr. Houston of Texas replied it was a distinct bill, and was not designed to be taken up with the general appropriation bill; there was an express provision which requires bills to carry treaties into effect to be separately considered in a Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union.

Mr. Olds, from the Committee of Post Office and Post Roads, reported a bill to amend the postage law, charging three cents on single letters for any distance not exceeding 3000 miles, over that distance ten cents. Ocean postage to foreign countries under 3000 miles five cents, over that distance ten cents. Drop letters one cent. Advertising one cent additional. Mr. Olds moved that the bill be put on passage, but further action was deferred till to-morrow.

The House went into committee on general appropriation bills.

Further personal explanations were made, growing out of the Cullom and Churchwell affair, after which the House went into committee on the civil and diplomatic bills, and after acting on several, adjourned.

CONGRESS.—The House is engaged in consideration of private bills.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Part of the territorial nominations have been sent to the Senate. Andrew H. Reeder of Easton, Pa., has been nominated as Governor of Kansas, and Gen. Wm. O. Butler of Ky., as Governor of Nebraska. A Mr. Woodson of Va., has been nominated as Secretary for Kansas.

ADDITIONAL CALIFORNIA NEWS.—New Orleans, June 21.—The steamer North Star sailed for New York on the evening of the 16th, with $100,000 treasure.

Acapulco was still blockaded by the war vessels of Santa Anna. The city was in possessio nof Alvarez.

A destructive fire had occurred at Marysville, Cal., consuming the theatre, post office, New Orleans hotel, Presbyterian church, and other buildings. Loss $200,000. Another fire occurred in San Francisco in Dupont street. Loss $70,000.

Mining accounts are still flattering.

Passengers from San Francisco arrived through to this city in 19 days.

PROVIDENCE, June 22.—LIQUOR SEIZURE.—Fifteen hundred gallons of liquor were seized yesterday in this city, the first under the new law.

The Horse Show closed this afternoon. It was very successful. The first premium for stallions was awarded to Matchless, owned by Wm. Bradford DeWolf, of Bristol; for trotting horses, to Lady Litchfield, owned by Daniel Mace of Boston.

CINCINNATI, June 22.—Rape Case.—Father Kruyer, a Roman Catholic Priest of Trinity Church, was before the Police Court to-day, on a charge of assault with intent to commit rape on a girl of fourteen, at the confessional.

SINGULAR DEATH.—A young man by the name of Daniel H. Dunham, lost his life by drowning in the Androscoggin River on Monday last. The young man stole two dollars from the money drawer of John Goss, Jr., some time last week, but was detected at the time, and refunded the money, promising at the time to leave town and behave well in the future. But on Monday last, he still being in town, a warrant was issued, and an officer proceeded to execute it upon him, when he in attempting to evade the officers by wading out into the river accidentally stepped into a hole and lost his life. The body was recovered some three hours afterwards.—Portland Advertiser.

The "Shepherd of the Valley," a Catholic newspaper of the most intolerant character, in St. Louis, that openly advocated the establishment of the Inquisition, and affirmed that religious liberty was a prolific source of evil, and the general reading of the Bible no better, has stopped for want of support. This is a good sign, and shows that even Catholics will not pay for the advocacy of such doctrines as these.—Newburyport Herald.

French Conversational Classes

MONSIEUR G. H. LEON, A. M., from Paris, resident Professor of the French Language at Portland, Me. having been often requested to visit Portsmouth and give instruction in his native language, is happy to announce that he has so arranged his classes in Portland that he will be able to be in Portsmouth and give lessons on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week.

Ladies and Gentlemen desirous of gaining a thorough knowledge and pure pronunciation of the beautiful language of France, are respectfully informed that the subscription paper, with terms, &c. may be found at Mr. J. F. Shores, Jr.'s Bookstore.

The method of instruction pursued by Monsieur Leon is such as cannot fail to give his pupils fluency in conversation, as they are required to speak in class after the third lesson. A long experience in teaching his native language emboldens Mons. Leon to express his belief that he will be able to give entire satisfaction to, and deserve the patronage of the citizens of Portsmouth.

He is permitted to give many highly respectable references in Portland, where he has been engaged in teaching French for the last four years, and still has a large number of Pupils.

All who wish to receive instruction are invited to sign the subscription paper as early as convenient, as his coming to Portsmouth will depend upon the encouragement he receives. je22 1w

HAS induced several persons, who do not possess the least medical knowledge, to assume the title of Doctor, and put before the public an article in imitation of my Medicine, which they call Sherry Wine Bitters, and attempt to palm them off under the pretence that I have retired from business, and also that they manufacture an improved article of the same name.

I would say to those in pursuit of health, to be sure that you obtain the REAL article, which may be known by the Fac Simile of my signature upon the outside wrapper, covering each bottle, and also by the copyright border of the same covering.

The New Orleans Delta tells a story of a man in that city, who being about to enter upon a doubtful speculation, disposed of all his real estate, and deposited the proceeds thereof in the Bank, in the name of his wife, that the money might be beyond the reach of his creditors, should his speculation prove unprofitable. The wife, finding herself the sudden possessor of wealth, in her own right, ran away to Havana, with a good looking masculine friend, leaving her loving spouse to consider at his leisure, the truth of the old adage.

The steward (a free negro) of the steamer Magnolia, running on the Mississippi river, recently held half of the ticket which drew $50,000 in the last drawing of the Havana Lottery.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, humo and has's about its curing some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. It gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the column of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put of sick at two hours, and one bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she could not sue lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant it to cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., MONDAY, JUNE 26, 1854. VOLUME 4. NO. 124.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,

At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,

Pleasant Street, ...PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published every Saturday morning—at $1 a year in advance.

ADVERTISING.—For a Square of sixteen lines nonpareil, or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated—and their advertisements inserted in both papers without extra charge, thus affording unequalled facilities to business men.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING.—The Newburyport Herald says:

Deputy Marshal Riley and his associates, who conveyed the slave Burns to Virginia, have returned with loud praises of the slaveholders and the treatment of their slaves. As officers of the law, no person could find fault with their service in surrendering Burns—they were sworn to do so, and it was their duty to do it, though a very disagreeable duty it must have been; but when they add to that the folly of applauding slavery, they sink beneath contempt. Let the sheriff hang the condemned, when the law requires it; but he makes a complete fool of himself, when he undertakes to prove to some men, that the sensation of suffocation is pleasant, and that a man is better with his neck broke than he was before.

We thought it likely that such a heavy dose would sicken somebody. But the Herald don't know Mr. Deputy Marshal Riley very well, nor probably, most of his associates, if it deems their late duty disagreeable. They are not such men.

POLITICAL TEMPERANCE.—The Meredith Bridge Democrat says:

What has become of the whig zeal for temperance? Before election they had something to say about it, to the effect that the advancement of temperance principles depended upon the success of the whig party in electing representatives! Now they brag of a majority in the House, but they are mum on liquor. O! Juvenus, brilliant bird of New Hampton, wake up! Stir up the distinguished temperance representatives from the first and second divisions of Meredith, and extend thy pure vision to Gilford. Why don't you pass the Maine law, and then come yourself and try its virtues upon half a dozen whig liquor liquor dealers in this village, and see how it comes out.

We don't know how close a personal application this item may have round Meredith and Gilford, and have no need to care. In this city and neighborhood, so far as our knowledge extends, no issue whatever was made on the subject of temperance, by any party. But there are signs, throughout the State, that a great majority of the people are in favor of more stringent liquor laws than we have ever had yet. Politicians, moralists, and business men may open their eyes to these signs, if they please, or they may keep them shut. The event is coming, and even now "casts its shadow before."

MORE SUBLIME.—Some time ago, the following item went round in the papers:

"Rev. Uriah Clark, formerly and for a number of years associated with the Universalist denomination in the capacity of a public religious teacher, has at length virtually dissolved his former connection, by adopting a more sublime, living and spiritual faith."

It appears from good authority, that the reverend gentleman's connection with the Universalist denomination was not only virtuall, but actually dissolved some time age, i. e., his brethren in the ministry withdrew their fellowship from him, on account of his unchaste and immoral conduct.

CUBAN FILLIBUSTERING.—The Boston Chronicle says:

It is difficult to believe that a gentleman of General Quitman's standing, should lend himself to a piratical attempt of the kind, but there are, at the same time, abundant reasons for supposing that an invasion of Cuba is contemplated. We cannot credit the statement, so confidently made by several journals, that the President of the United States countenances invasion. He would undoubtedly like to have his own administration signalized by the acquisition of Cuba, but if we understand the man aright, such acquisition must be openly and honorably achieved.

Time will show us how well this confidence is founded.

POLITICAL CREED.—The New Hampshire (Meredith) Democrat says:

The democracy can now rally upon their old ground, and to pursue their own policy—the policy of equal rights and popular legislation.

Let us see: Equal Rights, Popular Legislation? We like this creed, and hope the democracy of New Hampshire will stick to these two principles. If so, a brighter day is dawning than we have yet seen.

MORE DIALOGUE.

Chron.—Perhaps he did, then, but altered his mind before he made his will, which freed the whole of them. Whether he was afraid of it or not, the one who staid here did not starve, for Uncle Toby took tea with her forty years afterwards.

Gaz.—General Washington a slave catcher!

Chron.—Not he, indeed. Honorable slave holders leave such work to the meanest men, both north and south.

Gaz.—How this fact will horrify the abolitionists.

Chron.—"This fact" is no fact at all, and therefore need not horrify anybody. But if it were a fact that Washington was a slave catcher, as indeed he was a slave holder, what then? Is a wrong any less a wrong, because a Christian Statesman did it? David, on the testimony of the scripture, was a good man, a man after God's own heart,—but was his adultery less adultery? or his murder less murder on that account? He must be rather a sorry Christian who copies David only in his crimes; and quite as sorry a patriot who admires Washington chiefly as a slave holder, but forgets that by one of his last solemn acts he became a practical abolitionist.

Gaz.—A correspondent threatens to give us the particulars of the Fourth of July abolition oration by Uncle Toby, and the great mob of the occasion, to which the latter so feelingly alluded a short time since in the Chronicle. We await the account with interest.

Chron.—Well, so do we; bring him along: he can't execute his threat a day too soon.

RHODE ISLAND.—The Rhode Island Senate has passed the anti-Nebraska resolves of Mr. Watson by a vote of 19 to 9. Mr. Anthony offered as a substitute resolves endorsing President Pierce, but they were voted down by the same majority.

The House of Representatives has passed—44 to 12—a stringent addition to the prohibitory liquor bill. It provides that an intoxicated person may be prosecuted, fined, and imprisoned, and that any person whom he shall charge on oath with having sold or given to him any intoxicating liquor, shall be subject to all the penalties contained in the fourth section of the original act. The Legislature was expected to rise on Saturday, without electing at this session a Chief Justice in place of Judge Green, resigned. The body will meet again in October, when amendments to the Constitution will be acted on.—Boston Courier.

CONFUSION OF PARTIES.—Francis P. Blair of the Washington Globe, during Gen. Jackson's administration, and his son, the editor of the Benton Organ, at St. Louis, are among the foremost opponents of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. The Elder Blair is strong for a union of men of all parties, who are opposed to the extension of slavery, and for building the Pacific Railway, and for other Great Western and commercial interests in the next Presidential election. He is for uniting upon Col. Benton, and for running him as an independent candidate.

The Fall River Monitor (Whig) is in favor of the "breaking up of party lines, and the formation of a party, anti-Nebraska and anti-slavery in character, for the purpose of checking the inroads of the slave power, repealing the Fugitive Slave Law, and bringing back the nation to the true policy of its founders."

The call for a meeting of the people of Ohio to organize a new party on the basis of opposition to the further extension of slavery, has already received twenty thousand signatures, including the names of men of all parties. In one locality in Stark county it is signed by forty-five Democrats, ten Free Democrats and sixty two Whigs. Another paper comes from Lucas county, with the names of thirty-two Hunker Democrats, fourteen Free Democrats, twenty-eight Hunker Whigs, four Free Soil Whigs and five Abolition Independents. The Convention will be held on the 13th of July.

NEWS FROM BOSTON.—Parson Brownlow of the Knoxville (Tenn.,) Whig, in his last received papers, enters his protest against the Nebraska bill in the following manner, adding some Tennessee news for Boston people:—

We are in for the season, and sink or swim, we are dead out against this whole Nebraska scheme! The recent alarming riots in Boston are the first fruits of this Nebraska scheme. Col. Suttle of Virginia arrested a slave of his under the fugitive slave law, and the fugitive was willing to return home with his lawful owner, but the Abolitionists, encouraged by the passage of this infamous Nebraska bill, got up a fearful row—murdered the United States Marshal, killed one of his guard, and caused scenes of disorder and confusion, never before equalled in New England!

THE WAY THE MORMONS DO.—The last election for delegates to Congress from Utah, took place on Sunday, in church. Brigham Young was speaking, when it suddenly occurred to him, "as brother Bernhisel does first rate as delegate in Washington," to move an election, and he accordingly called for all in favor to raise their right hand, and "brother" Bernhisel was unanimously elected. It does not appear that they had any previous notice, or that the women and children did not vote as well as the men. Brigham Young thought it was all right, and the rest of them could not disagree with their anointed.

STRIKE OF RAILROAD ENGINEERS.—At 12 o'clock last night, all the engineers on the first three divisions of the New York and Erie Railroad, struck work by preconcerted arrangement. They do not demand increase of wages, but require the company to rescind a recent regulation which causes the discharge of every engineer whose engine runs off the track; and after his discharge, from obtaining employment on any other road by posting him. The engineers on the Susquehanna, Delaware and Eastern divisions, have rebelled against this order, as being unfair in its operation. They claim that an engineer should not be held accountable for accidents at switches, &c., against which, they claim, he cannot be prepared. Accordingly they have banded together, to the number of one hundred, to compel the Superintendent to recall the order. Notice of their intention to quit work on the whole line between Susquehannah and this city, was given to the Company a week since. The names of the engineers were signed to the remonstrance in a "round robin," so that the ringleaders of the rebellion cannot be known. Each man has bound himself to stop his train on the road, at the hour named, at whatever point he may be, and to take no engine out of the yards at the hour unless the company agree to the demand.—Eve. Mirror.

PARIS SUICIDE.—A late letter from Paris says:—"The mania for suicide is reaching a point that is positively alarming, in this city. Day before yesterday there were no less than five cases. A Prussian officer blew out his brains, during the performance of the Prophet at the Grand Opera. A disappointment in love, deafness and approaching blindness were his reasons. A woman, 81 years old, plunged a knife into her heart because she had waited long enough for a natural death, and she could wait no longer. A servant suffocated herself because she was born to command and not to obey. Two girls threw themselves into the Seine, because their mother had forbidden them to put on their new gowns before Sunday. These young women are both rescued, and were restored to their parents "after a severe reprimand from the commissary of police."

ANTHONY BURNS.—The U. S. deputy marshal John H. Riley and his assistants have arrived from their journey south to return Anthony Burns. The Post says Mr. Brent and Col. Suttle both assured the officers that Burns would not be punished. They say he is a negro of unusual intelligence. He appeared to be religiously inclined, and upon the voyage to Norfolk avoided all use of profane language. The officers confirm the statement that Burns denied all knowledge of Jones, who testified to his being at South Boston prior to the time when it was alleged that he escaped.—Boston Transcript.

KENTUCKY ITEMS.—A Dr. Marks of Sacramento, Ky., who has recently been signing and uttering forged endorsements, was detected by the fact that the cashier of the bank to which a note of $4800 was offered, wrote an apology to the apparent endorser, when the circumstances came out. The Doctor discharged $1700 which he had obtained by forging. An attempt was made to arrest him, but he armed himself, shot down one of his pursuers, and fled.

Dr. Frendell, who was arrested about a year since for stealing slaves and selling them at New Orleans, and admitted to bail in $13,500, was delivered up to court by his sureties last week, and died soon afterwards of delirium tremens.

AN OLD SETTLER.—Officer Goodwin, while engaged in an exploring expedition yesterday, for sanitary purposes, discovered an old colored woman, aged 100 years, engaged in washing clothing in the rear of No. 24, Southac street. This ancient female, whose name is Catharine Boston, was born a slave, in Reading, in 1754, and was freed when twenty years of age, in this city, where she has resided ever since. Her eyesight is still good, and she can read without glasses.—Boston Mail.

COURT RECORD.—In the Circuit Court of the United States, at Boston, on Wednesday, Judge Sprague presiding, Capt. Henry Pease, of the ship Menkar, having been found guilty of assault upon seamen, on board his ship, was sentenced as follows: to pay a fine of $70 in the case of 'John;' $60 in the case of Antoine Santo; $40 in the case of Robert Boyd.

Thomas R. Bloomfield, mate of same ship, was sentenced to pay a fine of $40 for assault on Robert Boyd.

LIGHT HOUSE ON MINOT'S LEDGE.—A minute survey of this dangerous ledge has recently been made for the U. S. Light House Board. The base of the outer Minot will permit the construction of a stone Light House of sufficient dimensions to resist the force of the most powerful waves, and it is expected immediate measures will be taken to commence the work.—New Bedford Standard.

A HARD STORY.—The Haverhill Gazette says:—"During the shower on Thursday afternoon, a tortoise, three inches in length, and weighing two and a half ounces, fell upon the sidewalk near the Universalist church on Summer street. It was seen by a lady as it came through the air, and its movements noticed after reaching the ground. The little fellow seemed alarmed, and at the same time rather pleased with his safe arrival on terra firma, and, after taking a hasty observation, began to travel."

THE WORCESTER FIRE.—The number of shop hands turned out of employ by the late fire in Worcester, is eight hundred and fifty-nine, and the whole number dependent upon the various establishments which were destroyed is over one thousand.

The burnt district at Worcester will be soon covered with buildings. W. T. Merrifield has contracted already for the rebuilding of his large blocks; and others whose property was lost, instead of repining, are going to work to restore it. The Spy makes some appropriate reflections upon the good will which prevailed among all sorts of people during the fire. Natives and foreigners mutually assisted each other, and even religious differences were forgotten in the common calamity.

LOCAL.

THE CIRCUS.—Attraction enough is held out at the entertainment by Spaulding and Rogers's troupe this afternoon and evening.—To hear Ned Kendall alone is worth the price of admission, to all who have any music in their souls. See the advertisement on our outside to day,—and the procession when it arrives this forenoon—and you will be convinced that the exhibition is one of the best which ever visited our city.

LAUNDRY.—Individuals interested in the establishment of a Laundry in Portsmouth, are requested to meet at the Police Court Room this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

CHANGE.—The afternoon trains to Boston leave Portsmouth 15 minnies later than is stated in the advertisement on our outside today; and the trains for Portland start 10 minutes earlier.

BRASS BAND IN PORTSMOUTH.—The Gazette says:—"A brass band is being organized in this city, and the preparatory meetings are held directly over our head. We find music a great aid to editorial facility and accuracy, and a brass band in its infancy is a luxury too rare to be lightly appreciated. But seriously, a Band is one of the many needful things in Portsmouth, and we have no doubt that it will be well encouraged and patronized by the people. A room will be needed by and by, which the city will probably furnish."

ACCURACY.—One of "the city papers," which is not slow to note any misstatement in the Chronicle, last week announced, (on what authority we can't say) that the corner stone of the New North Church would be laid on the 10th instant. The stone mason work has been suspended during the past week, on account of the non-arrival of a vessel load of stone, including, we believe, the important one above-named.

We also perceive, by the same authority, that a meeting of the stockholders in Piscataqua Bridge will be holden on the 21st instant. We have published the proceedings of that meeting.

NEWBURYPORT FREE LIBRARY.—We are happy to learn that new efforts are making to establish a Free Library in this city, and with good prospect of success. A large and valuable collection of books, worth several thousand dollars, has been donated by one gentleman, and $5000 by another, as a foundation, and the matter is now being canvassed by several wealthy gentlemen, whose public spirit will not allow it to sleep.—Herald.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.——Under this head, the Sacramento Journal states that Marshal White of that city, has commissioned N. A. Haven Ball, Esq., formerly of Portsmouth, as Deputy Marshal and Tax-Collector. The editor says:

There is probably no gentleman in this city more competent to correctly discharge the varied duties of this office than Mr. Ball.—Having been directly connected with city matters upwards of four years, he is minutely acquainted with all their intricacies; and in relation to the financial affairs of Sacramento, he is a perfect encyclopedia. During the past year he was an assistant of the Duputy Collector.

COUNTERFEITS.—Counterfeit bills on three different banks were detected among three parcels of money offered at the Newburyport Mechanics' Bank, on Monday, by different depositors—namely, 10's on the Franklin County Bank, Greenfield; 5's on the Tremont Bank, Boston, and 1's on the Union Bank, Boston.—Herald.

Washington, June 24.—A despatch has been received from Mr Gregg, our Commissioner at the Sandwich Islands, that the Native Government throws itself into the hands of the American party for protection from French, English and other foreign settlers. The Commissioner has been empowered to accept the Islands for the United States, and assure the Native Government of American protection.

Mr Borland's resignation has taken effect. His successor will soon be appointed.

It is understood that Hon W. H. Polk will succeed Mr Green, our Charge at New Grenada, who is about to return.

The ultra Free Soilers, Giddings and Wade, will take exceptions to the moderation of the Congressional Anti-Nebraska address, and propose to issue one of more decided hostility to the Southern policy.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The steamship Illinois has arrived. She brings the California mails, $965,000 in specie, and 500 passengers.

MURDER.—In New York, on Friday, Jas. Clossey, an ex-policeman, and John McIntyre, a porter house keeper, quarreled about one of them being a Free Mason, and the latter knocked Clossey down. His head struck the sidewalk, and he died on the way to the hospital. McIntyre was arrested after some resistance.

CENTS.—Seven casks of cents (over 70,000) notwithstanding the constant use of nearly 50,000 tickets, have been taken at the toll houses of our bridges. The are sold in casks containing about ten thousand five hundred each, at 3 per cent. discount.—Charlestown Aurora.

The wife of W. A. Richardson of North Adams, died in that village on Thursday, the 15th inst., while under the influence of chloroform, administered for the purpose of removing teeth.

The True Delta says that though there is on an average a murder committed in New Orleans every twelve hours, there have been but two convictions for the crime in eigh years.

California and India Sealing Wax.

THIS WAX, made by Hyde & Co., Manufacturers to the Queen, affords the only security to Foreign Correspondence,—Wafers, Gum, or ordinary Sealing Wax being alike insecure for Letters to or from hot climates.

Hyde's India Wax possesses the peculiar property of remaining HARD in the hottest climate, the seal impression being found uninjured after passing twice through the Tropics. A perfect security to Foreign Letters is thus obtained by the use of this Hard Wax, the peculiar properties of which obtained for Hyde & Co. the Exhibition Prize Medal of 1851.

FRIDAY, June 23.

SENATE.—The bill for the relief of the owners of the brig Gen. Armstrong was rejected—yeas 12, nays 21. Adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—The House was engaged all day on private bills, and at a quarter to 4 o'clock, no quorum being present, adjourned.

2 WEEKS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, June 23.

The steamer North Star arrived at 4 o'clock to-day, from Aspinwall, bringing $550,000 in specie.

The steamer Yankee Blade arrived down at Panama on the 14th, having brought passengers through from San Francisco in less than twenty-two days.

The most prominent news from California was anticipated at New Orleans.

The trial of M. Dillon, French Consul, for violation of the neutrality laws, ended in disagreement of the jury, whereupon a nol pros was entered by the District Attorney. Proceedings against the Mexican Consul were also discontinued.

The steamer Arispee was wrecked at Punta Arenas on the 25th of May. Passengers and crew saved; boat total loss. Value $50,000. She was owned by Ryan, Duff and others of San Francisco.

The trial of Edward H. Avery, for the murder of Susannah Russel, on board the Yankee Blade, resulted in a disagreement of the jury, and a new trial was ordered.

It was reported at San Francisco that the Russian frigate Diana was cruising off the Heads.

A fire in Dupont street, San Francisco, had destroyed thirty or forty buildings.

Business in California for the fortnight has been quite limited, and prices generally unchanged. Money easy.

Advices from Australia were up to the 31st March at San Francisco, Gold yields continued satisactory. The wheat crop had turned out better than anticipated.

The shipment of specie in the Sierra Nevada at San Francisco was $1,500,000; in the John L. Stephens, $1,082,000; in the Yankee Blade, $355,000.

SED DEGENERACY.—A well educated physician from the north of Ireland, who has been for a long time addicted to intemperance, and thus gradually lost both reputation and business, was brought before the police court this morning as a "common drunkard," and received a sentence of two months in the house of correction. For some time past he had been entirely dependent on a widowed sister for his support.—Boston Transcript.

A PRETTY LITTLE CROWD.—Mr. Frederick Kemble, from the neighborhood of Rumney, Harrison county, Ohio, arrived in Steubenville last Wednesday, by railroad, with his wife and nineteen children—twenty one in all. It is said that he owns land enough in that State to give each one of his family one hundred and sixty acres, and retain a "slice" for himself.

The African Institute at Paris—an association for the diffusion of civilization and christian light in Africa, has recently issued a circular, in which the number of blacks held in slavery in different countries is seven and a half millions, of which 3,095,000 are in the United States, 3,250,000 in Brazil, 900,000 in the Spanish colonies, 85,000 in Holland colonies, 140,000 in the republics of Central America, and 30,000 in European establishments in Africa.

Illinois would make forty such states as Rhode Island, and Minnesota sixty. Missouri is larger than all New England. Ohio exceeds either Ireland, Scotland or Portugal, and equals Scotland, Belgium and Switzerland together. Missouri is more than half as large as Italy, and larger than Denmark, Holland, Belgium and Switzerland. Missouri and Illinois are larger than England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales.

VICIOUS CRIMINAL.—A notorious Ann street rowdy, named James Kane, was arrested last night for drunkenness and disturbance of the public peace. Being a stout, muscular fellow, weighing over 200 pounds, he was taken to the North station house with much difficulty, and on arriving, as officer Palmer was proceeding with him down the steps, Kane suddenly seized him and threw him headlong down the whole flight, striking violently on the stone floor. Mr. Palmer's injuries are quite serious, his head being wounded and body severely bruised.—Boston Trans.

The New York Express says that the steam carriage invented by J. R. Fisher, the artist, had a trial trip on Thursday night, from Twenty-sixth street, near North River, down to Liberty street, on Broadway, travelling at the rate of six miles an hour on the common pavement. Mr. Fisher thinks his experiment entirely successful, and means, now that it has been proved, to put it to some practical use as early as possible.

BOYS' Work.—Judge Roesevelt of New York, recently made a decision in regard to the custody of a boy, in which he remarks that the rural duties of milking cows and fetching water, are more wholesome and less demoralizing than attending bar and cleaning tumblers in a city grog shop.

A letter from Naples states that on the 14th inst., M. J. Delius, of Bremen, having ascended Mount Vesuvius with a party of his countrymen, went too near the edge of the crater, and the ground giving way under him he fell into the abyss. His groans were heard from the bottom, but when some persons descended by means of ropes, he was dead.

DEATH OF C. C. DEAN.—Christopher C. Dean, for twenty years the Treasurer and Agent of the Massachusetts Sabbath School Society, died in Boston, on Saturday last.—He had been ill for some time with disease of the heart. He was formerly of Taunton, and was much respected as a consistent christian and faithful friend.

THE CANADIAN PARLIAMENT, at Quebec, was dissolved by the Governor General on he 23d of June, amid great excitement.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. Mrs. Robinson, the lady found guilty of a little poisoning transaction in Troy, N. Y., and who so obstinately remained veiled during the whole trial, has been discovered to be a Mrs. Campbell, from Quebec, where she kept a public house. The rumor went that she had mingled in good society, was of a high family, &c., and many reports were circulated calculated to lend a very romantic character to her history.

No doubt there is a romance about her, which might be entitled High Life below stairs.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to the Medical Discoveries of California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where persons have much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

MR. AND MRS. SPARROWGRASS

Retire from the City to Enjoy Rural Life.

When Mrs. Sparrowgrass and I moved into the country, with our heads full of fresh butter and cool crisp radishes for tea, with ideas entirely lucid respecting milk, and a looseness of calculation as to the number in family it would take a good laying hen to supply with fresh eggs every morning; when Mrs. Sparrowgrass and I moved into the country, we found some preconceived notions had to be abandoned, and some departures made from the plans we had laid down in the little back parlor in avenue G.

One of the first achievements in the country is early rising, with the lark, with the sun, while the dew is on the grass, "under the open eye-lids of the morn," and so forth. Early rising! What can be done with five or six o'clock in town? What may not be done at these hours in the country, with the hoe, the rake, the dibble, the spade, and the watering pot? To plant, prune, drill, transplant, graft, train, and sprinkle? Mrs. S. and I agreed to rise early in the country.

Early rising in the country is not an instinct; it is a sentiment, and must be cultivated.

A friend recommended me to send to the south side of Long Island for some very prolific potatoes, the real hipppopotamus breed. Down went my man, and what with expenses of horse-hire, tavern bills, and breaking a wagon, the hippopotami cost as much apiece as pine-apples. They were fine potatoes though, with comely features and large languishing eyes, that promised increase of family without delay. As I worked my own garden, (for which I hired a landscape gardener at $2 per day, to give me instructions,) I concluded that the object of my first experience in early rising should be the planting of the hippopotamuses. I accordingly rose next morning at five, and it rained! The next, and it rained! It rained for two weeks! We had splendid potatoes every day for dinner. "My dear," said I to Mrs. Sparrowgrass, "where did you get those fine potatoes?" "Why," said she innocently, "out of that basket from Long Island!" The last of the hippopotamuses were before us, peeled and boiled and mashed and baked, with a nice thin brown crust on the top!

I was more successful afterwards. I did get some fine seed potatoes in the ground.—But something was the matter; and at the end of the season I did not get out as many as I put in.

Mrs. Sparrowgrass, who is a notable house wife, said to me one day, "Now, my dear, we shall soon have plenty of eggs, for I have been buying a lot of young chickens. There they are, each one with as many feathers as a grasshopper, and a chirp not louder." Of course we looked forward with pleasant hopes to the period when the first cackle should announce the milk-white egg warmly deposited in the hay which we had provided bountifully.—They grew finely, and one day I ventured to remark that our hens had remarkably large combs, to which Mrs. Sparrowgrass replied, "Yes, indeed, she had observed that; but if I wanted to have a real treat I ought to get up early in the morning." "Crow," said I faintly, "our hens crowing!" Then, by "the cock that crowed in the morn to wake the priest all shaven and shorn," we might as well give up all hopes of having eggs," said I, "for as sure as you live, Mrs. Sparrowgrass, our hens are all roosters!" And so they were roosters, that grew up and fought with the neighbors' roosters until there was not a whole pair of eyes on either side of the fence.

A dog is a good thing to have in the country. I have one which I raised from a pup. He is a good stout fellow, and a hearty barker and feeder. The man of whom I bought him, said he was a thorough-bred, but he began to have a mongrel look about him. He is a good watch dog though, for the moment he sees any suspicious looking person about the premises, he comes right into the kitchen and gets behind the stove. At first we kept him in the house, but he scratched all night to get out. Then we turned him out, and he scratched all night to get in. Then we tied him up at the back of the garden, and he howled so that our neighbor shot at him twice before daybreak. Finally we gave him away, and he came back, and now he is just recovering from a fit, in which he has torn up the patch that had been sown for our spring radishes.

A good strong gate is a necessary article for your garden. A good strong heavy gate, with a dislocated hinge, so that it will neither open or shut. Such a one had I last year. The grounds before my fence are in common, and all the neighbors' cows pasture there. I remarked to Mrs. S. as we stood at the window in June, how placid and picturesque the cattle looked as they strolled about cropping the green herbage. Next morning I found the innocent creatures in my garden. They had not left a green thing in it. The corn in the milk, the beans on the poles, the young cabbages, the tender lettuce, even the thriving shoots on my young fruit trees had vanished. And there they were, looking quietly on the ruin they had made. Our watch-dog, too, was foregathering with them. It was too much, so I got a large stick and drove them all out, except a young heifer, whom I chased all over the flower beds, breaking down my trellises, my woodbines and sweet briers, my roses and petunias, until I cornered her in the hot bed. I had to call assistance to extricate her from the sashes, and her owner sued me for damages and recovered. I believe I shall move into town.—Knickerbocker for June.

TUESDAY, JUNE 27, 1854.

EARLY CRIME.—The report of the Warden of the New Hampshire State Prison shows one melancholy and startling fact, and that is that one half the number of convicts now in the prison have not reached the 25th year of their age, and that nearly one third of the whole number are less than twenty years of age. During the past year a boy only nine years of age has been confined within the prison.

Truly, these are melancholy and startling facts; and they call loudly for a Reform School. But may we not properly raise the question, whether the greatest difference, in the last forty or fifty years, has been between the amount of crime, or the kind of punishment. Look back forty years. There were juvenile thieves, youthful drunkards, and precocious robbers then; and the old schoolmasters used to thrash them with reds or withes, and sometimes with a cowhide. Some bad boys went from the common school to the common jail and back again; and sometimes they did not come back. We shall not say there is no more juvenile delinquency now than there was then; but we are by no means positive that there is any more in proportion to the number of people.

Criminals are more exposed now, doubtless, by the press, telegraph, &c.—and we think a larger percentage get caught and punished.—But we do not consider this an evil.

AMALGAMATION.—The recent decree by the Governor General of Cuba, raising free blacks to the same civil and social privileges with the whites, appears to have produced some consternation among the old Spaniards or Habaneros. The goverament organ, "El Diario," of the 31st ult., (says a letter,) "announces to all other authorities in the island, that there should be no confidence placed in the rumor circulated in such a ridiculous way as to make our young marriageable Havana ladies shed tears from the belief that it had been ordered that whites, mulattoes and blacks were all to be levelled to an equality before the altar of Hymen. Such untruths raised the indignation of the honorable old mothers, and honest house keepers."—Boston Chronicle.

"Ye that have tears, prepare to shed them now." But really we can't see what there is so cry about. The white citizens of the Black Sea in Boston, have the same civil and social privileges, so far as the law goes, as do the citizens of Park and Bacon streets. But we never remember to have seen anybody cry about it, or distress themselves greatly for fear of any hymenial equality in actual life.

A CALIFORNIA DUEL.—The duel of Messrs. Hunt and Hurbert has been mentioned. The particulars are—

Mr. Hurbert, ex-member of the Legislature, attended the Metropolitan Theatre, San Francisco, entered that part of the parquette set apart for members of the press, and not finding a chair he requested a Mr. Hunt, an attorney who was there, to allow him to take a chair on which that gentleman's legs were resting. Mr. Hunt refused, and thereupon Mr. Hurbert forcibly took the chair. Mr. Hunt then arose and struck Mr. Hurbert.—They were both arrested, but this did not heal the difficulty. They went out on Sunday morning and fired at each other three times, the third fire proving fatal to Mr. Hunt, who was mortally wounded in the abdomen, and died shortly after having been brought back to the city. Mr. Hurbert was deeply affected at the result!

A BAD STORY.—The Daily Patriot states that the coalitionists are guilty of iniquitous doings in Concord about these days, and says,

"They have been guilty of all the sins which they charge upon the democrats, and more too. They have brought three times as many men here to influence and 'overawe' members; they have used money, or raised and attempted to use it, to corrupt members; they have resorted to the meanest and most disgraceful tricks, in the House and out, to effect their purposes; there is good reason to believe that their 'unclean birds' have attempted to keep democrats from the House by foul means, even by putting drugs into the liquor which they drank!"

We don't know exactly what to think of all these enormities; but in regard to the last, we recommend the teetotal pledge, by a strict observance of which all drugged liquors may certainly be avoided. We charge nothing for the advice.

ARREST OF A CRIMINAL.—The Portland Advertiser states that one Charles Blake was committed to jail on Thursday, on a charge of rape, of which he is undoubtedly guilty.—The crime was committed in Gorham, and the victim was a girl of 12 years, on her way to school. The States prison for life is his portion, richly earned.

The National Magazine, for July, 1854, Vol. 5, No. 1, contains 31 illustrations and 21 articles, besides small matters. Luther and the Reformation, and a Trip from St. Petersburg to Constantinople, are articles of great value. Rev. Mr. Spaulding is agent in this city.

COUNSEL FOR THE SLAVE BURNS.—The "Vigilance Committee" of Boston tendered to Messrs. R. H. Dana, jr., and C. M. Ellis, the counsel for the fugitive slave, Anthony Burns, checks for the sum of $200 each, but both gentleman declined to receive any reward, and stated that they considered it a duty to render their professional services gratuitously in any similar case.—Courier.

A BRUTAL SLAVEHOLDER PUNISHED.—At the Spring term of the Circuit Court of Sumter Co., Ala., Richmond M. Eskridge was indicted for disabling a leg of a negro woman slave in his possession. The defendent, while intoxicated, attempted to whip the woman. She retreated with an axe in her hand, when he seized a gun and shot her in the knee, rendering amputation necessary.

The Court (Hon. Alex B. Clitherell)—charged the Jury that if they believed, from the evidence, that the defendant intended, unlawfully and maliciously, to disable the leg of the slave, he was guilty of the charge. That the master had not absolute dominion over the slave, and to authorize a resort to such extreme force, he must show that he acted in self defence, or that the slave was in a state of rebellion, and the means used were absolutely necessary to reduce her to subjection. The Jury, after an absence of five or ten minutes returned a verdict of guilty, and the brutal monster was sentenced to eleven years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.—Boston Journal.

DELIA WEBSTER AGAIN.—Delia Webster, the female Abolitionist, who has been several times arraigned in Kentucky on a charge of aiding the escape of slaves, (she was once sent to the penitenary, and after remaining there some time was pardoned out by Gov. Crittenden,) was again arrested last week on an old indictment. The warrant found her "so very sick that she could not be removed" from her lodgings, and a guard of three men was selected to remain, tend and watch her. One of the papers says the guard "slept at their posts, or were careless, or were seduced,"—at any rate Miss Webster escaped, en some secret branch of the underground railroad—leaving the guard to watch an empty house. It is said a party of men from the other side of the State line, in Indiana, were her rescuers—they having suddenly crossed over into Kentucky for the purpose, and escaped the vigilance of the guard. She appears to have very suddenly recovered her health.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION IN NEW YORK.—A State Temperance Convention was held in Albany, N. Y., a day or two since. Edward C. Delavan was elected President.—Resolutions were adopted to the effect that the friends of temperance should not be discouraged by the veto of Gov. Seymour to the liquor bill, but should adhere more firmly to, and labor more earnestly for, the great principle of prohibition. They further resolved that "we have no wish or purpose to injure or to benefit any political party as such—and we desire the co-operation of all, and shall cordially approve of all, so far as their action is promotive of the principles of the reform we advocate—so far as it is antagonistic to that reform, we will oppose and repudiate all."

EMIGRATION TO NEBRASKA.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes:

"I learn that one day last week seven hundred Germans, new immigrants, passed through Cincinnati on their way to Kansas. I am credibly informed that this is only one small party out of the many parties now on their way for Kansas and Nebraska, and that all these bodies, numerous in the aggregate, are but the advanced guard of an overwhelming foreign force. When Col. Mosepenny was in Nebraska last year he found there but three white men; soon there will be some hundreds of thousands, all anti-slavery men."

NEW ORLEANS, June 21.—In the Circuit Court, Judge Campbell charged the grand jury in reference to the intended infringement of the neutrality laws, as set forth in the president's proclamation, and ordered several pernesses to appear before the grand jury, including Samuel I. Peters, Mr. Thrasher, General Quitman, &c.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The attendance at the various places where street preaching was held yesterday, in this and the adjoining cities was very small. There was no disturbance and no excitement whatever.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The Prometheus, from San Juan, arrived last night, and brought $1,141,000 specie on freight, and it is estimated, $300,000 in the hands of passengers.

MURDERER TO BE HUNG.—The Connecticut House of Representatives has refused by a large majority to commute the punishment of young Michael Jennings, who murdered Mrs. Bradley of North Haven last summer. He will therefore be hung on the second Tuesday in July.

The Episcopal church in New York have established a female association called the Sisterhood, for offices of charity and mercy, such as providing for the sick, instructing destitute children, etc. It is well that love to God should be thus manifested in good will to man.

LOCAL.

For the Chronicle.

AN OPERATION.

Mr. Chronicle:—In your paper of last Saturday, a Majority of the Board of Aldermen bring out the statement that there is a rupture in the city government, and also express their desire to have the rupture adjusted. Good Mr. Editor, if it is true that our body politic has been burst asunder, we must ask who did it? There is an out-door story, that the same majority of the Aldermen gave a sturdy kick with intent to rupture, but were successful only in part, that is they kicked hard enough to upset themselves and not quite hard enough to upset any thing else;—and if they desire to close this "rupture," they can best do so, by letting it alone, and attending to their regular duties as Aldermen and citizens.

Whatever difficulty there may be felt or apprehended in the whole affair, had its origin in their own acts, and as I think in their own error of judgment. ANOTHER CITIZEN.

THE FOURTH.—The Sons of Newburyport resident in this vicinity, are invited to meet in Exchange Reading Room this evening at 8 o'clock—we presume to arrange for a visit home in a body, to join in the proposed celebration on the Fourth of July.

A notice will be seen in our advertising columns, of a social gathering to be held in the woods at Greenland, on the afternoon of Tuesday next, the 4th of July. We are informed that a train of cars, on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, will run to accommodate visitors there—leaving our station at half-pas one, and returning at seven o'clock.

"WHERE SHALL I WANDER?"—A cook at the Rockingham House in this city, a day or two since, perceiving a bantam hen desirous of entering that hospitable and popular stopping-place, opened the door to her. Biddy entered, and while being fondled by the cook, dropped an egg into the hand on which she was perched! Well, she couldn't have left it in better hands.

MORE GIFTS.—The Mercantile Library Association in this city, last week received about thirty volumes of valuable books, from Mr. Geo. S. Walker, of Boston, a native of Portsmouth.

The society a short time ago also received a valuable donation from Geo. W. Towle Esq. of this city, among which was a beautiful quarto bible.

NED BUNTLINE COMING AGAIN.—We perceive by handbills and otherwise, that the "Captain of the Guard of Liberty," otherwise termed Ned Buntline, is to speak in this city on Wednesday evening. The other day we published his marriage with a Jewess; pretty soon afterwards we saw a statement in some paper, that another woman, claiming to be a previous wife, had come down upon him for bigamy, whereupon he had fled. The latter part of the statement certainly is not true; and this circumstance rather throws doubt or discredit over the whole of it. He still lives; and will probably show his hearers that he is neither dead nor speechless.

☞ Some of our readers are doubtless still uninformed of the fact that persons having good daguerreotypes of deceased friends, can call on Mr. Conner, in Congress Block, and have them transferred to canvas, in all the apparent warmth and vigor of life. Many of the citizens of Portsmouth can testify to Mr. Conner's truth and fidelity in copying from daguerreotypes, and their perfect life-like appearance when colored.

FEMALE FIGHTERS.—Two women were engaged in an altercation about their characters, near the circus, yesterday afternoon; and suiting the action to the words, proceeded to a personal encounter. Some vitriol was scattered on a nice dress, and one woman was taken into custody by the police, but let off on a verbal recognizance to appear before the Police Court.

A MEETING of the Subscribers of the Floating Bath will be held at the Counting Room of Anthony F. Nowell, Esq., THIS MORNING, at 11 o'clock.

Veterans, Attention!

THE Members of the Company of Veterans, are hereby notified that an adjourned Meeting of said Company will be held at JEFFERSON HALL, ON THURSDAY EVENING, June 29, 8 o'clock. A full and punctual attendance is requested, to hear the report of the Committee of Arrangements. Per order. GEO. W. TOWLE, Sec.

STEALING FROM A DEPOT.—A person named Robert Stanwood, was arrested on Saturday afternoon, charged with stealing a trunk belonging to a lady, from the Providence railroad depot. He carried the trunk to the Sailor's Home, where it was found. It contained $208 worth of clothing and jewelry, the property of Arabella and Charlotte Rice of Portsmouth, N. H. The prisoner was brought before the Police Court this morning, and in default of bail in $1200, was committed for trial. —Boston Transcript.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Atlantic, at New York, brings Liverpool dates to June 14. Cotton inactive, decline of 1-16d on some qualities. Wheat and corn, rather easier, flour unchanged.

There was considerable fighting at the outposts of Silistria. The Russians were making immense sacrifices to carry the place before the arrival of the allied troops, but it was thought without effect.

It is reported that the Turks made a sally from Silistria on the 8th inst., destroying the approaches of the besiegers and filling up mines before Silistria. The Russians suffered serious loss by the springing of Turkish countermines.

Russian reports say that Missa Pasha, commander of Silistria, had been killed by a cannon ball.

The reported Insurgent victory in Thessaly, Greece, is said to be fiction.

An unconfirmed report states that an English vessel had destroyed a large amount of property in the harbor of Brabstah, Finland.

Sir Charles Napier was at anchor off Sveaborg, on the 7th June. The Russian fleet, consisting of ten line-of-battle ships, was anchored behind the batteries.

Admiral Dundas telegraphed government that the Russian authorities had voluntarily permitted the French and English vessels to leave Odessa.

Schamyl had taken the important Russian fortress of Usurghet, and was marching with 60,000 men against Tiflos.

Reports concerning peace negotiations were conflicting. One says Russia has offered to evacuate the principalities on condition the Western powers will re-establish the "status quo ante bellum." Another report states that Russia has unconditionally refused.

The London Standard states that the British War-steamer Encounter and the United States sloop Plymouth were engaged in the attack on the Imperialist forces at Shanghae, on the 4th of April. On board the Plymouth, George McCorkle was killed, and four others wounded severely. Capt. Pearson of the American ship Rose Standish was severely wounded. The victors captured two twelves, four sixes, and four eighteen pounder guns. As yet we have no detailed account of the engagement.

Latest accounts from ship Oriental report that both ship and cargo, 12,000 chests of tea, would be a total loss.

FROM VALPARAISO.—Advices at Panama from Valparaiso, to the 15th of May, report heavy weather on the 5th and 6th of May, doing great damage to shipping. Many vessels, principally Chilian, were sunk or stranded in the harbor. The American ship Corsair was stranded at Papudo; she had 2,000 quintals of copper, and a quantity of ore.

Total loss of property at Valparaiso is estimated at $300,000. Damage extended along the coast. Three whalers were lost at Talcahuana. No names or sailing ports given.

United States frigate St. Lawrence arrived at Callao on the 12th. The sloop-of-war St. Mary's was to sail on the 25th from Lima for Valparaiso.

PERU.—Political matters in Peru were still unsettled. Trouble had broken out at Lima between the Americans and Peruvians, owing to fillibuster reports. Several attacks had been made on Americans, and the papers were discussing the propriety of allowing them to remain in Lima.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, June 24.

HOUSE.—In the House to-day, several private bills were passed, including the Senate bill to reimburse New York city the expenses of the first regiment of New York Volunteers.

The House then went into committee on the General Appropriation bill.

The amendment making appropriations for carrying on the Washington water works was debated, but without taking action the committee arose. Adjourned.

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—The Board of Health report nine cases of cholera during the last week, and one death from the same disease. One death from cholera occurred to-day in the county prison, where seven female prisoners have been attacked during the week. No new cases heard of to-day. Total mortality for the week in the city, 222.

The Sunday law has been enforced more rigidly to-day than on any previous Sunday. The rummies had to go to the Island and to Gloucester for liquor. The Sunday law was also enforced in Camden, N. J.

PUNISHMENT OF DUELISTS.—The Louisville (Ky.) Courier states that Messrs. Pepper and Carlisle, the two gentlemen from Woodford, who were concerned in challenging Mr. Purley, in Lebanon, during the last fall, appeared to answer a prosecution of the Commonwealth against them at the present session of the Marion Circuit Court. The gentlemen confessed judgment without going into a trial, and were fined $500 each and disfranchised for seven years.

THE ENGINEERS' STRIKE.—No arrangement has been made between the Erie Railroad Company and their striking engineers, and the company has been put to much trouble as well as expense in the loss of perishable goods on their loan, &c.

CONNECTICUT.—The Senate of Connecticut has passed a bill, by a party vote, providing that hereafter no Jail, Court House, or other public building of that state shall be used for the custody of a fugitive slave. A bill is also before the same body which inflicts a fine of $5000 upon any person who shall lay a claim to a fugitive slave in that state, and shall not prove to make his claim good.—Boston Courier.

PRETTY CHEAP.—A writer in DeBow's Review says, in a comparison of South Carolina with Massachusetts, that the former "has an advantage of more than one hundred per cent. in the cost of labor necessary to carry on her manufactories."

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Italian, Egyptian, Pyronee, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, buns and ha's about its sulting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I have it to show children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, cankery, worm looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I have seen some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853. I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 16 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 70, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why should we make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I would tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fever two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

In A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it says so. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonful. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels and Boarding Houses, by a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV, late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates of letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's office, 240 Green St. Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. wich street, New York.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pasture and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not others. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in circumference thirty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years, sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put of the fit two hours. One bottle cured him. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to cleanse the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

THE CONFESSIONAL.

We have often seen it objected to the Confessional in the Roman Church, that it might be, and probably was, abused, by the betrayal of family secrets, &c. Though this might be true, we have never deemed it so important or so mischievous as some have thought.

It has also been urged against the confessional, that the buildings were often so constructed, and the confession so managed, as to afford opportunity and offer temptation for the commission of criminal acts between the priests and the devotees. This we were loth to believe, especially as it was stoutly denied by the paper organs of the Roman Church.—A recent occurrence, however, shows that there is a basis of fact on which such assertions rest. This is shown most distinctly, by the testimony of a Romish priest, Father Ritter, who takes the stand as a witness for the defence of his brother priest, Father Kroeger.

The case came before the Police Court of Cincinnati, for examination, June 21, and is reported in the papers of that city, from which we make the following extracts:

Rev. Peter Kroeger was arraigned upon a warrant which had been sworn out, for assault and battery upon Katharine F. Myers. This was, by request of the Prosecuting Attorney, dismissed, and a charge of assault with intent to commit a rape preferred.

The defendant is about fifty years of age, of rather a florid cast of countenance. The girl, Katharine Myers, is turned of fourteen, a rather stout built, good looking German girl, of a very modest appearance, with remarkably large speaking black eyes. She did not understand English, and her testimony had to be translated by an interpreter. She appeared to be laboring under an excess of fright.

She stated, in substance, that she went to school on Monday afternoon, to the Catholic school attached to Trinity church, and that the Sisters of Charity told her to go into the church to confession—that she went into the church and found Father Kroeger in the confessional. He asked her if she wanted to confess, and she replied yes. He asked her if she had sinned, and she said no. He then asked her if she had ever sinned —— ——, and she said no. He then left the confessional, and telling her to follow him, went into the room to the right hand side of the altar. He locked the door after him, and they were in the room alone. While there, Kroeger informed her that he had a right to whip her, and also to examine her person, both of which he did. This caused the girl to scream so loud as to attract the attention of the neighbors; he then told her to go home and tell her mother to come to him; he then unlocked the door, and she went home and told her mother very reluctantly all that had occurred; Kroeger said that was not the place for her to see him.

The other witnesses were the girl's mother, a carpenter who was at work on the church, and who heard the screams, and a woman living hard by, who also heard them.

By far the most important witness, however, is Rev. Father Ritter, a priest, called for the defence, whose testimony we copy from the report of the Cincinnati Gazette.

For the defence, Father Henry Ritter was sworn—On Monday afternoon he was part of the time in the house and part of the time in the church; when he went into the church Kroeger was in the confession room; went through the door; it was not locked; was in the church as long as they were in the room; knows the girl well; left the door open going out of the church into the room; heard no cries; was five or six steps from the room; saw the girl come out of the room; the girl was standing all the time; the door was standing open; heard another girl screaming about the same time; Kroeger has charge of the school, and authority over the children going there; Kroeger is the President of the Board of Trustees, who have the management of the schools; we visit the schools three or four times a week.

Cross-Examined—Mr. Kroeger is supervising visitor of the schools; the teachers have authority to whip the children whenever they do wrong; the President has the same right; the Board of Trustees have not the right; K. was in the room with the girl; asked Father Kroeger if there were any more children who wanted to go to confession; K. replied no; then passed from the church and left the door partially open; heard K. and the girl talking, but did not understand what they said; while I was saying my prayers the girl had gone; was there about three quarters of an hour; was within fifteen steps of the confessional hall; is not positive that the door was not closed, had his eyes on Father K. nearly all the time; saw no stick in his hand; saw the girl come out of the room, and believes that Father K. went into his room; did not see her cry; is positive that he heard no noise; if they do wrong in church they punish them the same as if they were in school.

Examination resumed—By Moorman—Father K. is a quiet man.

By the Court—The residence of Father Kroeger is connected with the church, being in the rear thereof; which child was whipped I do not know; I know that girls frequently attend at the confessional in the church, but when anything of more importance requires a particular examination, they are taken to the private room of the priest; it was purely accidental that I observed this young girl, why I observed this case so much was that I sat down at a point to get clear of a draught of air in the window, that allowed me to see into the private room, but I walked backward and forward in front of the altar, and part of the time had my back to the door; I heard some conversation, but did not comprehend what was said; I have seen this girl with Father K. in the same room before; saw no other girl in that room the same day; I don't recollect how she was dressed, or whether she wore a bonnet, but having been acquainted with her for more than a year, knew her by her face; she has confessed to me; saw nothing peculiar in her countenance when she went out; it has been since Easter that I was in the school; I heard some one cry, but did not know where it was; no other priest used that room for confessional but Father K. and myself.

By Mr. Logan—Is it the custom when a severer examination requires the priest to take the party confessing into the private room, to leave the door open?

Answer—Sometimes it is shut and sometimes not.

Lewis Lambright examined—I was at work as a carpenter on the sacristy of Trinity Church, last Monday; near 4 o'clock I was desirous of getting into the rear entry, and endeavored to open the door of Father K.'s room, when he hurriedly opened it, said something quickly in German, and closed it again and locked it; twenty minutes after I heard a scream.

After lengthy arguments by counsel on both sides, the Judge reviewed the case and testimony in all its bearings. He dwelt particularly upon the modest demeanor of the girl, her artlessness, and the genuine and fervid manner in which she had given her evidence. He could not, under the circumstances, believe but, from the conduct of the accused, that he intended to commit a criminal outrage; his manner of first taking hold of her proved it; and that the outcry of the child having attracted the attention of persons outside, caused him to forego his purpose, and so he pretended that he was only chartising her for not coming regularly to church. An effort had been made to induce belief that the scream had emanated from another child; if so, why not bring that child hither?—the incident was of too recent a date for the identity of the child to have been forgotten; it is evident, therefore, that the witness, Katharine, was the person from whom the screams proceeded. The testimony of Father Ritter was, that the doors were unlocked; that of the carpenter and girl, that they were locked. Taking all the testimony into consideration, he considered it his duty to hold defendant in the sum of $2000 to answer the charge at the next term of the Criminal Court.

We do not, at this distance, pretend to predict what will be the issue of the trial in this case. But we ask every candid man to read priest Ritter's testimony, and then say what he thinks of the priest's private rooms, particular examinations, and peculiar punishments of girls in their teens.

If he thinks, after this, that such a way of doing things tends to purity, he must either have a degree of faith far stronger than a grain of mustard seed, or else be wofully ignorant of the world and its ways.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATURE.

CONCORD, June 27.

The whole forenoon was spent in debating the Anti-Nebraska resolutions. No decisions.

A Committee of five was appointed to inquire into certain charges made against the coalitionists of attempting to bribe members and of drugging their liquor, and a bill having special reference to the punishment of bribery and corruption was introduced.

DEATH OF MAD. SONTAG.—This delightful singer died at Vera Cruz, Mexico, June 15th, of cholera, after about five days' illness. She was buried on the 19th. The cholera is fearfully prevalent there.

COOLIES ON A STRIKE.—It seems by the last accounts from Calcutta, that the practice of striking for higher wages, so common in this country, had been introduced at that place. The Coolies employed in loading and discharging vessels, whose wages had been twelve cents per day, had demanded 18 cents, and they refused to work without the advance.

RATHER VENTURESOME.—A drunken man was picked up on the South Cove Friday evening, and taken to the Boylston station house, with over $300 in gold and silver upon his person. He would have been a rich prize if the sharks of that locality had got hold of him.—Boston Herald.

According to a law passed in 1705, by the Queen's royal approbation, all persons in the province of Pennsylvania were commanded to abstain from tippling in alehouses on Sundays, "for the ease of creation." This is said to be the law under which the present mayor closes the taverns on the Sabbath.

A DIALOGUE.—A Yankee met a Celestial in the streets of San Francisco, and, with a characteristic of the race, accosted him as follows:—'Where are you bound?' 'Geelong.' 'What tea are you most fond of?'—'Souchong.' 'What kind of fowls do you consider the best?' 'Chittagong.' What kind of grapes do you prefer most?' 'Scuppernong.' 'What's your name?' 'Oh, go long.'

Police Court.

[Before Justice Parker.]

TUESDAY, June 27.

Susan Lawson, complains against Emily Sherburne, alleging that said Emily stabbed her with a dirk knife through her arm, and threatened to kill her.

Boody Sherburne complains against Susan Lawson and Sarah Spinney, for throwing oil of vitriol on the person of Emma C. Sherburne, wife of said Boody.

These were cross actions; and the opposing counsel, Messrs. Wm. H. Hackett, and I. Bartlett Claggett, argued on opposite sides as to the priority of the actions.

Mr. Claggett then agreed to have the other tried first, and acknowledged the striking by Mrs. Sherburne, but denied the threat and intent to kill, and also denied the dirk knife.

Emily Sherburne was then arraigned.

Susan Lawson, testified that at or near the circus, Mrs. Sherburne attacked her, tore off her bonnet, beat her, and struck her with something bright, which cut two places in her elbow—and declared she would kill her if she could. She also testified that the parties live near together, and that Mrs. S. threatened some days before the assault that she would kill her, if she complained against her or her house, as of bad repute.

Mrs. Wilson testified that she lives near the parties, and on Wednesday heard Mrs. Sherburne threaten Mrs. Lawson that she would kill her.

Mrs. Lydston was near the circus, and saw Mrs. Sherburne make a grab at Mrs. Lawson.

Police Officer Shannon was called out of the tent, and near the door saw Mrs. Sherburne rush out and seize and strike Mrs. L. He considered Mrs. S. the aggressor, and took her away. He had previously heard her complain, that somebody had thrown vitriol on her and burnt her clothes and skin. The clothes were exhibited, and witness identified the clothes and the injury done them;—he did not see the injuries of the clothes, until the affray.

Mr. Hackett answered.

The Court adjourned to 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON.

Susan Lawson and Sarah Spinney were arraigned, and the justice decided to try the two respondents together. Against this, Mr. Hackett protested, as injuring the rights of the parties. But the Court declared that the argument did not satisfy him, and proceeded.

Eliza Wilson, a little girl, testified that Mrs. Lawson sent her to Dr. Kimball's store for caustic wash;—could not tell whether it was the same bottle which was now shown in court,—but was about the size—the vial she had was labelled, but as they had been talking about vitriol, she forgot, and asked for that.

Officer Shannon testified that a boy, to him unknown, gave him a little bottle, (produced in court,) containing a dark liquid;—it was given him after he had arrested Mrs. Sherburne.

Marshal Goff, was at the circus,—saw Mrs. Sherburne's dress, uninjured—afterwards saw both the respondents have small bottles of liquid which they unstopped, and threw at or towards Mrs. Sherburne. Afterwards saw the dress, burnt, as with vitriol, and saw one of the women with a bottle afterwards.

Thos. C. Melville, saw one of the respondents, Mrs. Lawson, throw some drops from a bottle, at Mrs. Sherburne. Mrs. Sheburne complained to him that she was burnt by some substance, and he pointed out Mrs. Lawson as the person whom he saw throw it.

Geo. Runnells, saw Mrs. Sherburne go to the circus with the dress perfect; afterwards saw it burnt, at the time when she complained of being faint; saw her go out, &c.

Miss E. Miller came out of the circus and saw the burnt dress; heard Mrs. S. say she was burning up. Her dress was whole when she went in; saw Mrs. L. drop a bottle like the one in court; heard Mrs. S. complain that Mrs. L. had burnt her. Heard Mrs. Lawson threaten, on Saturday last, to burn Boody Sherburne's wife—thought she would do it on Monday.

Mrs. Sherburne, testified that she went out of the circus, a little faint,—and saw the respondents; felt on the back of her neck something like a drop of water, but on going in, found that her person was burnt, and also her dress; went out and rushed at the respondent, Mrs. Lawson, as described in the trial in the morning.

The Court decided that Susan Lawson and Sarah Spinney be fined $1 each and cost, $6.16 each—amounting in all to $14.32:

And that Emily Sherburne be acquitted or discharged—on the ground that the provocation was so great as to justify the assault she made upon the other party.

MONDAY, June 26.

SENATE.—Mr. Bell presented a series of resolutions of the Legislature of Tennessee on various subjects.

Mr. Clayton, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a bill for the more effectual suppression of the slave trade in American built vessels, and made a speech on the subject.

Mr. Clayton explained the bill and said it had received the unanimous approval of the Committee.

Mr. Chase gave notice that to-morrow he would ask leave to introduce a bill to prohibit slavery in the territories of the United States.

The motion to refer the petition presented by Mr. Rockwell from citizens of Boston, for a repeal of the Fugitive Slave law, was taken up. Mr. Jones of Tennessee proceeded to address the Senate at great length, in opposition to its reference, and in the course of his remarks, assailed the motives of the signers with great bitterness of language, in reply to the assertion that the petition was the result of the passage of the Nebraska bill. He said he did not believe it. It was, he said, the result of a combination of those willing to take part in any scheme to break down the Constitution of the United States, and place the South in degradation and humiliation; it came from a city where the laws were openly set at defiance, where the temple of justice was surrounded by an armed mob to prevent the execution of constitutional duty, where treason stalked boldly forth and the officers of the law were butchered. The petition came from such a people, and from such a place,; and following immediately upon those events, was he not right in supposing that petition, got up at such a time, to have in view no consideration of public interest; it came from Boston, where the dust of the first and last martyrs in the country's cause, Warren and Batchelder, now mingled together.

Mr. Rockwell said he regretted that the duty had fallen upon him to defend the State, of which he was a representative. He regreted that his predecessor was not the person. This memorial was signed by over 2000 of the men of Boston; its signers, bone and sinew of the active business men of that city. He saw nothing in their petition either extraordinary or wrong; they simply asked the repeal of an act of Congress, only four years old, which Act was in addition to one over fifty years in force. Was there treason in this? Was it treason to ask Congress to repeal an Act of its own making?

It was said there were circumstances attending it which gave to it great importance. It was signed by men who had acquiesced in the compromise measures of 1850, of which this act was one, but who were moved to the repeal of the obnoxious law, because Congress had repealed a previous and long standing compromise. The repeal of the Missouri compromise, he begged to assure gentlemen, had created a depth of feeling in a free State entirely unprecedent, and which would continue for years to come. It was true, that in Boston, recently, an arrest under this law, was made, that an affray took place, and a homicide was committed; but it should be remembered that the Constitutional authorities of Massachusetts took that matter in hand and disposed of it. Sudden tumults, affrays and violence had occurred in other places than in Boston. This petition was got up for no purpose of provoking bloodshed, riot or treason—it was not got up recently. Had its signers such an object in view, they would not have left their petition open to public gaze at the Merchants' Exchange, exposed to examination to friends and opponents of its prayers. The feeling now existing was never witnessed before, it was wide spread and universal; it pervades all professions and occupations of life. The action of Congress at this session had produced this feeling. Whole classes of men had been openly denounced in Congress for petitioning against the Compromise. He would say to Senators, with all respect, that in denouncing the Clergy for petitioning against that Act, they had gone too far, for the Clergy of New England spoke the sentiments of the people they lived among. Public sentiment was against this law, and the cry was for its repeal. He supposed there always would be found a party in Massachusetts ready and willing to execute it, but its execution was against the sentiments of the people.

He would say to the Senator that the time had gone by when any threat of the dissolution of the Union, consequent upon the action of the people of the free States upon any measure, would deter them from doing what they considered to be right. Threats of disunion had ceased to be an argument with them, either for or against any measure. The North was devoted to the Union; they would adhere to it to whatsoever extent it was extended. But they did not believe that this Union could be dissolved. Disunion was an impossible thing. Why was it that while extending the Union in all directions, they had neglected the great binding ligament of the railroad to the Pacific? He urged the construction of that great work, and said that he had no connection with the meeting which had adopted the address, though he fully concurred with the sentiments it uttered.

He spoke against the fugitive slave law here and elsewhere; he was free to avow it; for so doing he would not throw himself upon a Senate fresh from the passage of the Nebraska bill, but would throw himself upon the judgment of his country. He then read numerous extracts from his form er speeches on this law, and avowed again the sentiments therein expressed.

He referred to the sentiments expressed in Faneuil Hall, by Otis Adams and others, preceeding the resolution, in which they held that resistance to slavery was obedience to the law of God.

Mr. Sumner spoke at some length, and after a short personal controversy between him and Messrs. Butler and Petit, owing to the former declaring that he would not assist in carrying out the fugitive slave law, Mr. Dixon got the floor and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Houston moved that the House go into Committee of the Whole, on the bill appropriating ten millions for carrying the treaty with Mexico into effect.

Mr. Peckham wished to offer a resolution, which was merely read for information, calling on the President, if not inconsistent with the public interest, to communicate copies of all correspondence touching or concerning the treaty concluded detween this Government and Mexico on the 13th of December last, and all subject matters thereon.

Mr. Benton rose to a question of privilege, relative to the invasion of the rights of the House, in makiog the treaty; he read a string of resolutions in support of his motion. The Speaker overruled the question, and the House went into Committee on the Mexican Treaty bill.

AN IRISH DUEL.—Sir Daniel O'Carrol, an Irish baronet in the reign of Queen Anne, having left the Spanish service, in which he commanded a troop of horse, and which he brought over with him some time after, met with Sir Harry O'Neal, his countryman, in the Spanish service, who upbraided him with the treachery of his conduct; on which a challenge was given by Sir Daniel, and in the encounter Sir Harry was run through the body.

On Sir Daniel's perceiving it, he stooped, and taking his wounded friend by the hand, said:

"Dear Sir Harry, if you are dead, speak."

To which Sir Harry answered—

HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure. Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.

If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.

Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.

One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.

Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head.

One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth.

One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.

Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.

One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all pone feelings of the system, and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS.

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chronic Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes where the system is much deranged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

☞ Price $1.00.

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

PRICE 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber, Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, (under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished for twenty-one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of securing their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, was discovered in one of our common Pastures Weeds a remedy that cures Every Kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderfill medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There is no if's and ands, hums and ha's about its suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has actually done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some have taken it who have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings; but you must not be alarmed; they will disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

Nothing in the annals of Patent Medicines has ever been received by the public with so much favor as this simple preparation. It is now composed of nine different herbs. In May, 1852, when I commenced making a business of it, I sold about two bottles per day. In June, 1853, I sold 4320 bottles. In October, 1853, I sold 6120 bottles. I hope you will call that doing well; I do.

In my own practice, I confine it strictly to humors; but there are some who are so enthusiastic in its favor they think what cured them will cure any thing and any body; they accordingly recommend it for every variety of disease. In this way a great many virtues of it have been found that I never would suspect.

Cases of Dyspepsia, of many years standing, that withstood every known remedy, have been permanently cured.

I know one man to gain 17 lbs. by taking three bottles; another 11 lbs.; another 10 lbs.; and another 7 lbs.—the venerable master Robinson of Boston.

In diseases of the Liver it is a specific. I know several with yellow skin and yellow eyes, the body emaciated and the mind melancholy, get fat and cheerful by a few bottles.

I know several cases of Dropsy, and one particularly bad. A lady, aged 79, was unable to leave her house for the last twelve years, was so much relieved (she was reduced in her ankles eighty-four inches,) as to visit her friends in several neighboring towns.

Another had the Dropsy in her left leg, and was unable to walk for ten years; sometimes swelling to an enormous size; at last bursted, making a bad wound which could not be healed; by taking three bottles and using two boxes of ointment, she is now quite well. Why it should make some fat and others lean, I cannot tell, but so it is.

I know of several cases of Kidney complaints cured by it. If the columns of a newspaper was a proper medium, I could tell of cases of this most distressing of all diseases that would make your heart bleed, that were permanently cured by it.

It has been lately found to be a sure cure for Panama fever. In one case the first spoonful put off the fit two hours. One bottle cured them. Another came home to die, and was induced by his brother to try it. Three bottles cured him.

It likewise gives great relief in the Asthma. A lady in Lawrence was unable to lie in bed for a number of years; she can now lie without the least inconvenience.

A lady in Weymouth lost the use of her left side by the Erysipelas. On the second bottle, she broke out in one mass of humor from head to foot. In a few days she was well.

It has lately been found to be equally good for humor outside as inside, (taking it inwardly in the meantime,) for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, or any eruption of the skin whatever; only where the flesh is very sore you must dilute it with water.

When made weak enough it is the best eye-wash for weak and watery eyes that I ever saw.

Others use it to clease the dandruff out of the hair and strengthen its roots, which it certainly does, and to crown all, it made the hair grow on bald heads, which, if I had not seen with my own eyes, I would not believe from you or anybody else.

As regards dieting, I never came across the first person that ever got any benefit from it. On the contrary, numbers came to death's door by it, as it gives the humors the upper hand. My medicine requires the most nourishing food you can get. It will soon give you an appetite.

Do not for a moment suppose that I warrant a cure of all those diseases, in every case. I merely tell you what it has done, hoping it will do the same for you. I do not warrant a cure in any disease but humors, where it never fails. For further particulars see the circular around each bottle.

I have an herb, simmered in olive oil, scatters Scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price fifty cents per box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Adults, one table spoonful per day; children of eight years, dessert spoonful; from five to eight, tea spoonfuls. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

THE CUBAN INVASION.

The recent exciting events, which have aroused the Northern indignation not soon to be allayed, are not to be compared with events not far distant, which will try the strength of our Union. Fortunate will it be, should the Republic itself survive the shock. The attentive observer of the Southern journals, and initiatory proceedings in our national councils, cannot fail to perceive the objects which the South are resolved to accomplish. The Gadsden treaty is to acquire more of the Mexican domain, at the expense chiefly of the North, in order to form more slave States.

The acquisition of Cuba, either peacably or forcibly, has a similar object, and the opening of a great slave mart. The administration will offer Spain perhaps three hundred millions for Cuba, of which vast amount three fourths would fall as a heavy debt upon the free States, should Congress vote the appropriation. The offer will probably be rejected, and then would come a resort to arms. Not that a majority in Congress could be induced to declare war for that inglorious purpose, but it is decreed to provoke hostilities by other means, and afterwards Congress would be invoked to declare that war exists by the act of Spain!

That a fillibustering expedition is now fitting out in the United States, the administration is not ignorant—its proclamation shows it. To say that the United States have not ample power to arrest this lawless movement, would be an idle pretence. It becomes, then, in effect, a voluntary movement, with the acquiescence of the government. The papers announce that a fund of a million to carry on the war has been raised or subscribed, and not less than 5,000 men are ready to sail at once for the invasion of the island, and that a New Yorker will furnish the muskets and land the force in his own steamers.

On the other hand, the governor of Cuba is preparing for their reception—has 24,000 regular soldiers, six vessels of war, and fifteen steamers. 3,000 mulattoes have just been enlisted as soldiers, and 9,000 men and seven frigates are expected en route from Spain.—On the heads of our administration rests the responsibility of the threatened war, to be waged without cause or excuse! But it cannot be waged without involving our country in a general European war, and consequent appalling calamities. With Spain alone, it would be a serious affair. The National Intelligencer states the whole population of the island to be 1,130,000, of which the white population, chiefly Creoles is 500,000,; free negroes 200,000; Bozales, the imported negroes justly entitled to freedom, 180,000, and the slaves 250,000. The Bozales, most of whom are males of the middle age, are said to be savage and ferocious, and if armed, as they would be should the island be invaded, would be a formidable foe. The French and the English have a considerable naval force now at their W. I. stations, and would treat our American fillibusters as pirates. The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, under date of June 15, says:—"It is admitted that the chief point in the policy of the present administration, is to acquire Cuba, and that it cannot be done openly with the assent of the country." That paper has generally supported the administration, and therefore the above admission adds a little to the evidence already before the people, that the administration, failing to acquire the territory by an outlay of several hundred millions, would involve the nation in a foreign war, to gain what would be a positive injury to the North. It would be extraordinary indeed, should such a war be brought on by secret means, without "the assent of the country!" Has the time come when our public servants dare to disregard the voice of the people? T.

SOLDIERS OF 1812.

In several of the States, meetings have been held, of the surviving officers and soldiers, who served in the regular army or militia any time during the war of 1812.

These meetings have in every instance organized committees of correspondence, and other committees to prepare petitions to Congress, for the passage of a pension or land bill for the benefit of these old soldiers.

We understand, from one of those interested in Maine, that a similar meeting will be held at Portland, some time early in the coming autumn; and probably another at Bangor, perhaps a little later.

The design of this early meeting on the subject is, to get information of the plan into circulation among our neighbors in Maine, who have some interest in the matter, and thus prepare them for a simultaneous and harmonious move in the right direction at their approaching meeting.

In these days of pensions, there can be no

THE TWO MARTYRS.

On Monday, June 26, in the Senate of the United States, Mr. Jones of Tennessee made a speech against a certain petition, which he said, "came from Boston, where the dust of the first and last martyrs in the country's cause, Warren and Batchelder, now mingle together."

This is a beautiful grouping of martyrs who fell in "the country's cause;" and yet it is the grouping of contraries. Both fell for the country, truly, but one fell fighting for liberty and the other for slavery.

Dr. Warren fell on Bunker Hill, a volunteer in the mob of nature's noblemen, all of whom were guilty of sedition, treason and rebellion. He was shot down by the hired men who were sent over by the mother country, to preserve law and order among a people who could not take care of themselves. Independence was declared some time afterwards, and the success of the revolution changed every rebel into a patriot, took the rope from off his neck, and bound instead a wreath of laurel round about his brow. Warren, a noble man, a patriot, and we suppose a christian, was nevertheless a rioter and a rebel, who fell while levying war against a government that was trying to crush out liberty by an armed force.

Mr. Batchelder, the recent martyr, was also no doubt a patriot, true and loyal to his country and to its rulers; but he was not a patriot of the same "water" with Warren. On the contrary, had Batchelder been on Bunker's Hill, he would have worn a red coat, and aimed a "Queen's Arm" against the rebellious and riotous sons of liberty. Batchelder was slain by the rioters, and died a martyr in the defence of the system of chattel slavery. He fell a victim to the stab of some fanatic, black or white, who in his mad zeal for liberty, struck a seditious blow against the government, in the person of a man hired for the first and last time to aid in forcing an odious statute down the throats of the Boston rebels.

He died for his country; he was a patriot, and deserves a monument: but he must never be confounded with rebels and rioters like Warren and Henry, or Adams and Jefferson. No indeed, he was a patriot after another order, rather more like those brave soldiers who bit the dust in their loyal efforts to march up Bunker Hill and crush the rebels and their liberties at one decisive blow.

A Fugitive Slave was arrested at Vincennes, Indiana, on Tuesday, by an officer from Kentucky, aided by the town officers. He was a young man and had been living in the town between two and three years. His father, who is free, stole him some five or six years since, from his owner, Mr. Harris, of Union county, Ky. The fugitive thought he was free, but did not object to going back,—confessed that he was the individual he was alleged to be, and quietly returned without a word of dispute.—Newburyport Herald.

A freeman stole his son from his owner! and the victim when captured, did not object! Comment on this case would spoil it. Pass it round in all its native loveliness and beauty.

A new banking humbug was started in New York recently. Its managers set forth that all stockholders should share alike in all discounts in proportion to the amount of stock held by them. For example, a stockholder who owned three hundred dollars in stock, was entitled to a discount of $900 on his business paper at all times, and as much more as the Bank could accommodate. The unbelieving editor of the Journal of Commerce, called to see the list of stockholders and directors of this accommodating institution, but was informed that the latter had not been chosen, and that the former list was comprised in one name, that of W. Earl Arnold, who had set himself down six times for different lots, amounting in all to $1800 of the capital which is limited to $1,000,000. A well known Wall street Diddler is said to be at the head of the concern.—Boston Courier.

NAVAL.—U. S. sloop of war Portsmouth was at Mazatlan previous to April 23.

U. S. frigate Cumberland, bearing the broad pennant of Com. Stringham, sailed from Smyrna 25th ult., for Vourla. On the same day the steam frigate Saranac, Captain Long, left Smyrna for Constantinople.

A U. S. frigate in tow of a steam-tug, is reported to have arrived at Syra, 28th ult. It may have been the Cumberland.

TWO YOUNG MEN DROWNED.—On Monday afternoon five young men, four of whom were sons of Mr. John Bass of Scituate, were in a light sail-boat off Scituate, engaged in drawing lobsters, four of them being on one side of the boat, when the fifth, who was engaged in fixing the mast, slipped, and in his fall caught hold of the mast and capsized the boat. A Cape schooner near by, sent her boat to rescue the drowning persons. One who clung to the boat was saved, as were also two others who were grasped by the hair of the head just as they were sinking for the last time. The two others were drowned. Of the three rescued one was apparently dead when taken out of the water, but by the persevering application of the proper remedies was finally brought to life. The two young men drowned were sons of Mr. Bass.—Trav.

The remains of a young boy, named Lawrence Thoman, have been dug out of the ruins of the Kensington factory, which was burnt on Tuesday. The boy had been at work in the factory but one day and been

MAP OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

For some years past, we have had no good Map of this State, and have often felt the want of such a map for reference.

This want is now supplied, by the publication of a new map, just issued by J. R. Dodge of Nashua, and sold for the moderate price of two dollars.

The new map is plain, distinct, well arranged, and so far as we have tested it, accurate. It is stated to be the product of copying from the best surveys and records, in most instances, and of actual surveys where none reliable were at hand.

The map is quite complete in the main roads, railroads, town boundaries, and every other item usual in maps of this description.

The execution of the work is such as to make it ornamental as well as useful.

An agent is now in this city, with the Map, to canvass for subscribers, and he will call on the good citizens for that purpose.

VETERANS.—Under this title quite a grand time is expected in this city, at an early day. There has been considerable talk for a year or two, of getting out all our military men—whether "passed" or now in active service,—to enjoy a targer excursion, dinner, &c. For this purpose, well up to a hundred names have been enrolled within a week or two, including many of rank. Gen. Josiah G. Hadley is announced to take command. The programe, as we hear it, is for the company, in citizen's dress, to march to a suitable spot for target practice, in the outskirts of the city, in the morning; and to partake of a dinner at some public house. A capital Brass Band is coming from Boston for the occasion; and there is talk of having a concert while they are here.

All the Veterans, (and all who wish to be Veterans, we believe,) are notified to meet at Jefferson Hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

☞ The afternoon train from Portland for Boston, on Wednesday afternoon, was thrown from the track, in Wells, by the misplacement of a switch, and the engine, tender and a baggage car disabled. The fireman, Warren Bruce, was injured. The cars were detained about three hours.

FIREMAN'S PARADE AND BANNER PRESENTATION.—The Messenger states that an elegant banner will be presented to Piscataqua Engine Co. No. 4, on Monday afternoon next, by the female friends of the firemen, from the balcony of their house, whence the company, in a new uniform, will bear it about town.—They are to sup at Gen. Hadley's.

We are informed that this Company is to join in the Fire Department's Division of the Procession, at Newburyport, on the Fourth of July.

FINE PAINTING.—A Beautiful Landscape, in colored Crayons, by Mr. Thos. P. Moses, now of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been in Mr. Shores's window for a few days. An able and appreciating citizen has purchased it to adorn his dwelling. It is a delicate piece of art, and will well repay examination.

DELICIOUS—those Strawberries La Fayette Laighton sent us in, yesterday afternoon.—The Free Masons have a Lodge in honor of General La Fayette,—and we think the printers should do something to show their appreciation of his namesake. He patronizes "the papers" well, and is continually reminding the printers that they stand high in his esteem. We reckon the box got back so quick as to frighten him. Fayette, send more next time, or don't send such good ones!

☞ We learn from Concord that the legislative doings of yesterday were not very important, consisting chiefly of passing bank charters, &c.

COWARDLY ASSAULT.—On Friday evening, as Mr. Stephen H. Fowle, agent for the Boston Daily Bee in Newburyport, was returning home, when near the bottom of Warren street, he was attacked by an Irishman, knocked down, and his face and eyes badly bruised. The assault was probably committed on account of the sentiments which the paper advocates.—Herald.

TUESDAY, June 27.

SENATE.—The bill making Fronteras in Texas a port of entry was passed.

The Senate took up the bill providing for the re-examination and settlement of accounts between the United States and the state of Maryland for interest on money advanced to the United States during the last war.

The bill, after some debate, was passed, yeas 36, nays 7. The Senate then took up the house bill, changing the time for the meeting of Congress from December to November. Several amendments were proposed and lost, when the bill was rejected by a vote of yeas 15, nays 33. The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.—A call upon the President for further particulars relative to the Cuban filibusters was referred.

Mr. Houston offered a resolution to terminate the debate on the Mexican treaty bill tomorrow noon. He said great anxiety is expressed that this session should terminate on the 31st of July, and in that feeling he sympathized as much as any member. On Monday next he should move to take up the resolution for adjournment, and if the progress of business shall warrant, will vote for it.

Mr. Haven said that from the turn the debate had taken, it was evident that the house will not call for the correspondence and instruction relative to the Mexican treaty. The debate might as well be closed now as not; the treaty looks fair on its face; but if the house would test whether it is a proper one, they should have the documents before them.

The resolution was adopted—yeas 94, nays 58. The house went into committee on the Mexican treaty bill.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The official returns of the receipts from customs for the present year shows a decided increase over last. The total receipts for the first three quarters were $50,202,767, and the receipts for the quarter ending on the 30th of the present month will not vary much from $15,600,000. The total receipts from all sources for the fiscal year are $74,764,000, showing an increase, compared with 1853, of $13,766,264. The balance in the treasury last year on the first of July, was a little short of $22,000,000; the balance on the first of July this year will not vary much from $32,000,000. The amount of public debts paid off will have been about $20,000,000. The total receipts from public lands have been about $7,700,000.

CINCINNATI, June 27.—Last evening a box was sent to the Marine Hospital, corner of Longworth and Western Row, and deposited in the room of the Steward, Mr. J. H. Allison. About ten o'clock, the Steward and his wife, being alone in the room, opened the box, when it expleded, mangling then bodies of both horribly. Mrs. Allison had both her arms blown off, and skull fractured. Mr. Allison was dreadfully mangled. The furniture, windows and ceiling of the room, were shattered to atoms. Indications are, that the box contained a bomb shell about six inches in diameter. No clue has yet been obtained to the perpetrator of the fiendish act.

BUFFALO, June 28.—The accident reported as having occurred yesterday on the Great Western road, took place at Princeton, where the trackman displaced the rails, and the whole train run off the track. The locomotive and cars were smashed, but only one person was instantly killed, though several were severely wounded.

SUPPOSED MURDER.—Arrest of three persons.—The Circleville (Mich.) Chronicle of the 15th inst., says:

This community have been thrown into an indescribable state of excitement the past few days, by further developements in regard to the mysterious disappearance of Thos. Estabrook, of Reading, Vermont, a short notice of which appeared in our paper of 9th of February. Mr. Estabrook arrived at Leonidas Corners, in this County, on or about the 13th of November last—left his trunk at the hotel with instructions to forward it to the residence of Miss Woods, three and a half miles distant, the following morning—inquired for the residence of Miss Woods, and left the tavern, since which time he has disappeared. The trunk arrived at Miss W's, (to whom the missing man was to be married the following morning,) containing his wedding suit and $120 in money. Information of the receipt of the trunk and the non-arrival of Mr. E., was forwarded to Vermont, upon which his brother came to Leonidas, and, with the assistance of the Sheriff and citizens, a thorough search and investigation was had in February last, but without their finding any traces of Mr. E. Thus matters stood until Saturday last, when Sheriff Hull and his assistants, who have never ceased their efforts to ferret out the mystery, arrested Amos White, S. Ulam and son, in Leonidas township, and lodged them in our jail.

As the case will undergo a teorongh investigation we are not at liberty to publish the various reports and circumstances concerning the arrests until after a legal examination takes place, when the evidence and other particulars will be laid before our readers.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Gallway, Egyptian, Egyptian, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to the Medicine, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLER, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for

HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Keller by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattlesnake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 or 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all gone feelings of the stomach; and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS.

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with Asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Another, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivaled; sometimes where determined to have it, it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

Dead Shot for Bed Bugs!

SLEEP IN PEACE.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a

POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs in LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found the Dead Shot the most effectual of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as peaceful as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. KIDDER'S VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Cold Sores, Mosquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Receipt, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, can get their pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, D. C. of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid heretofore,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all the after trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

REFUSING TO TAKE WINE WITH WASHINGTON.—Towards the close of the revolutionary war, says Dr. Cox, an officer in the army had occasion to transact some business with General Washington, and repaired to Philadelphia for that purpose. Before leaving, he received an invitation to dine with the General, which was accepted, and upon entering the room he found himself in the company of a large number of ladies and gentlemen.—As they were mostly strangers to him and he was of a naturally modest and unassuming disposition, he took a seat near the foot of the table, and refrained from taking an active part in the conversation.

Just before the dinner was concluded, General Washington called him by name and requested him to drink a glass of wine with him.

'You will have the goodness to excuse me, General, as I have made it a rule not to take wine.'

All eyes were instantly turned upon the young officer, and a murmur of surprise and horror ran around the room. That a person should be so unsocial and so mean as to never drink wine, was really too bad; but that he should abstain from it on an occasion like that, and even when offered to him by Washington himself, was perfectly intolerable!

'Gentlemen,' said he, 'Mr. ——— is right. I do not wish any of my guests to partake of anything against their inclination, and I certainly do not wish them to violate any established principle in their social intercourse with me. I honor Mr. ——— for his consistency in thus adhering to an established rule which can never do him harm, and for the adoption of which, I have no doubt, he has good and sufficient reasons.'

He was a noble man, who had backbone enough to do what he deemed right, without stopping to ask what Mrs. Grundy will say.

KAINTUCK AND THE FIDDLER.

On board the steamer Indiana, in one of her trips down the Mississippi, were a large number of good natured passengers. They were seeking to while away the hours, according to their several notions of pleasure, and would have got on very well but for one annoyance.

There happened to be on board a Hoosier from the Wabash, who was going down to Orleans, and he had provided himself with an old violin, fancying that he could fiddle as well as the best man, and planting himself where he would attract notice, scraped away. The fellow couldn't fiddle any more than a setting hen, and the horrible noise disturbed his fellow passengers excessively.

A Frenchman of very delicate nerves, and a very fine musical ear, was especially annoyed. He fluttered, fidgetted, and swore at the 'sacre' fiddle. The passengers tried various experiments to rid themselves of the Hoosier and his fiddle, it was no go—'he would music just as long as he—— please.' At last a big Kentuckian sprang from his seat saying, 'I reckon I'll fix him,' placed himself near the amateur fiddler, and commenced braying with all his might. The effect of the move was beyond description. Old Kentuck brayed so loud that he drowned the screeching of the fiddle, and amid the shouts of the passengers, the discomfited Hoosier retreated below, leaving the victory of the unequal conquest to the Kentuckian and his singular impromptu imitation of Balaam's friend. The delight of the Frenchman knew no bounds: quiet was restored for the day. During the night the Kentuckian left the boat.

The next morning, after breakfast, the passengers were startled by the discordant sound of their old tormentor; Hoosier had discovered that the coast was clear, and was bound to revenge himself on the passengers. Louder and worse than ever screamed the fiddle. The Frenchman, just seated to read his paper, on the first sound, rose, looked anxiously round, shrugged his shoulders, and then shouted, 'Vare is he? vare is he? Queeck—queeck.—Mon Dieu! Vare is Monsieur Kentuck, de man vat play on de jackass.'

THE LATE MRS. JUDSON.—It is said that the late Mrs. Judson, after providing for the comfortable maintenance of her aged parents, and the support and education of her daughter and the other children of Dr. Judson, with a small portion to each as they reach maturity, and a few bequests to personal friends, whatever may remain of her property is given to the cause for which she wished to live, in the same spirit that her venerated husband so consistently exemplified.

The New York Recorder says that Prof. Dodge, of Madison University, has adopted the youngest child of Sarah B. Judson, a lad 8 years of age—and that the daughter of Mrs. Emily Judson has been taken home by Miss Annable of Philadelphia, to whom she was long ago given. A complete and authentic memoir of Mrs. Judson is to be published, the proceeds of which are to go to the surviving children.

MAINE POLITICS.

The Eastern Argus, an able regular democratic paper, gives the party "a few words of advice," in which, it states that the late regular convention contained men for and against the Nebraska bill, and for and against the liquor bill; and that all these had harmonized in nominating Mr. Parris for Governor; hopes that the people "in their primary action, will mutually consent to yield their cherished ideas upon merely local and temporary issues, and operate solely for the success of the whole," and says:

Everything now depends upon the wise and conciliatory action of the towns. Judge Parris is strong in himself; but he is not strong enough to carry with him a dead weight of unfortunate nominations all over the State.

We need not remind our readers of the high consequences that depend upon the representative elections. If we have the legislature we have all.

It should not be forgotten that if we really want to see the Democratic party of Maine restored to its legitimate position, we must work for it. The time was when, in most sections of the State, a nomination was equivalent to an election. But that happy age has passed away. The federal party has adroitly contrived to sever our ranks, and seduce hundreds from their fidelity. We must therefore take matters as we find them, and not as we would have them.

We can elect Albion K. Parris Governor of Maine, by a handsome majority over all antagonistic forces and factions. We must do it. But it is not to be accomplished by folding our arms—neither is it to be done by putting upon his herculean shoulders the crushing weight of unpopular local candidates.

Once for all, then, democrats, let us this year shake hands all around, and agree to disagree;—let us harness to the contest;—let us solemnly resolve to redeem the State;—and next September will usher in a glorious triumph.

The Argus may be considered as representing the old school of the party. Besides this there is a new school, or rather we should say, two new schools.

At the head of one of these stands the Bangor Jeffersonian; its convention sustained the liquor law, and condemned the extension of slavery and the repeal of the compromise.—Its organ repudiates the nomination of Mr. Parris as Governor of Maine. It says of the late "regular" Democratic Convention:

It made no declaration of principles, and neither endorsed nor repudiated any side of any question of state or national policy, but virtually said to all concerned, "go it blind" at the polls in September. So far as its action is concerned, the electors of this state are not informed whether the convention was Democratic or Whig, for or against the newly formed coalition of the pro-slavery members of the old party organizations, Hubbard or Chandler, Maine law or anti-Maine law; and they are left to make up their judgment of its real character and objects by the character, bias and position of the men who controlled its proceedings, and who will be admitted to the confidence of its nominee in the event of his being entrusted with the executive duties of the state.

Another division has Shepherd Cary for its Governor, and the Portland Expositor for its organ. Its platform is opposition to the liquor law. At its meeting at Bangor, Cary, the candidate for Governor, took strong grounds against the regular Convention and its candidate, Judge Parris. He also denounced the Convention as a packed concern, and declared the Democratic party to be dissolved. He evaded the Nebraska question, and placed the present issue on the liquor law alone.

He said the Democratic party was like "a kind old goose, that would let anybody poke eggs under, and they pat under so many that her own eggs were crowded out, and she hatched a brood of peacocks, ducks, fighting cocks, and all sorts, who as soon as they were hatched, went off in all directions."

Neither of these three parties have endorsed the Nebraska bill, nor spoken one approving word for the present national administration. No doubt some men in the Carey and Parris parties, may privately advocate both; but so unpopular are they in Maine, that the shrewd and experienced managers of both these parties deem it unsafe to do it in public, as it would insure their defeat in the State election.

In the British House of Commons, on the 12th, on a sum of £371,933 being proposed for the maintenance of government prisons and convict establishments at home, Mr. Spooner moved the omission from it of £550 for special services of Roman Catholic priests in prisons. Lord Palmerston showed that allowances to Roman Catholic priests for services in prisons were not new. It was already the system at Millbank, and it was intended to extend it to all the government prisons. The very purpose, he said, for which men were confined in jail would be marred, if not defeated, if means were not found to touch their minds and reach their hearts. After further debate the house divided, and the amendment was carried by 158 votes to 136 against it—a majority of 22 against the government.

This result shows the distrust or prejudice, in the minds of a majority of England's commoners, against the priests of the Roman Church, and their slight value for such religious instruction as they afford the prisoners.

The Know Nothings made a clean sweep in Norfolk, Va., at the Charter election on Saturday, electing their entire ticket.

NOT SOUTHERN, BUT WESTERN.

A correspondent of the Traveller, writing from the South, says:

A common remark has been made, 'We see no object in the extension of slavery; it is enough that we are cursed with it, and we do not wish it extended; only our politicians desire it because it may increase their power.'—And as to the Nebraska bill, the common sentiment of Southern men has been that it was not desired by the great mass of the South, that it will do no good, that it will create bad feeling at the North, that it will make the return of fugitives from slavery more difficult than ever, if not impossible, that it will keep up agitation on the slavery question, that it will destroy all confidence in compromises or pledges, and that politically it will be the ruin of all who have aided and abetted it. This, I may truly say, is the general sentiment of the great mass of intelligent Southern gentlemen, with whom I have spoken on the subject, provided they were not politicians.

We have read, with much attention and interest, a long, able, and well written communication in the New Hampshire Patriot, purporting to be from a son of New Hampshire, now residing in the West, in which the context asserts that the Nebraska bill was a Western, rather than a Southern measure; and insists that the progress of the nation westward, demanded the measure.

With all our attention, however, we could not see how any desirable progress demanded the extension of slavery in that direction.—The writer did not so much as touch that point with one of his fingers; yet that is the only point which labors with the Northern democracy. We have no objection to the erection of a dozen territories to be the homes of freemen.

CHARITY.

The Boston Pilot says:

All apostates are moved to leave the church by pride, vanity, avarice or lust. When they do not get what they bargained for, they begin to see their folly. It appears that one or two apostates, about whom some noise has been made, have declared to their tempters that if the promises made to them be not fulfilled, they will go back to Popery. Poor souls.

This paragraph, we suppose, is to be taken as a fair sample of the charity of the Roman Church. If we understand it, it means that there can be no such thing as a conviction of the mind that the assumptions of that body to infallibility and supremacy are all false and groundless. Or at least, that such conviction is not a good reason for leaving that communion; but that all who leave are moved by pride or vanity, avarice or lust. Why should not the assertion as well go further, and say that all who keep out of a body so pure and holy, are moved by the same low and impure motives? We think the editor of the Pilot is hardly prepared to say this.

THE JURY IN THE WARD TRIAL.—A Mr. Cratcher, one of the jury in the Ward trial, in a published card, complains of the treatment which he is receiving in consequence of the verdict rendered. He says that he and his family will be crushed under the weight of public opinion, and he asks to be rescued from such punishment. He affirms that there is not the remotest evidence that he was influenced by bribery. He says he was the last juryman who consented to the verdict; and his consent was obtained by deception on the part of his fellow jurors. From the commencement, two-thirds of the jury appear to have been zealous partizans of Ward. Only one of them united with Mr. Crutcher, at first, in voting for a verdict of manslaughter; and this was part of the game, as he was the very one by whose persuasions and misrepresentations Crutcher's assent to the verdict was at last obtained.

Mr. Crutcher appears to be one of the softs; and the verdict of that jury is on a par with some great judicial decisions in New England.

Gerritt Smith of New York, has announced the resignation of his seat in Congress through the Washington National Era. The correspondent of the Courier & Enquirer, says further, that Gerritt Smith has gone over to the fillibusters, body and soul, declaring for their whole policy.

The latter announcement would be incredible, in any other day than this. As it is, the report needs confirmation.

Old Columbia College, N. Y., is still in trouble. It has arrived at the goodly age of 100 years, and wants to celebrate its birthday. It has five millions in its pocket, and naturally feels as though it could afford to have a little "blow out." But the Alumni have got angry about the disgraceful of the Chair of Chemistry, and have refused to participate in the centennial celebration, unless the Trustees will explain their reasons for rejecting Prof. Gibbs. This that honorable body won't do, and there it stands.—Newburyport Herald.

Mary Ann Brough, aged 47 years, first nurse to the Prince of Wales, murdered six of her children and cut her own throat on the 18th inst., at a cottage at Westend, Esher, on the border of the royal domains of Claremont. The oldest of the murdered children was Georgiana, aged 11, and the youngest was 21 months old. The husband is guardian of the fish ponds at Claremont, and is much respected. He left his wife a few days before the deed was committed, and refused to live with her because he believe she was faithless to him. The family were above want. The wretched woman is recovering from her wounds.

The rigging of the U. S. ship Pennsylvania having been on her some seventeen years, is now so rotten that it is no unusual occurrence for large pieces of it to fall from aloft, to the danger of those on board. Her spars are in the same condition.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

THURSDAY, June 29.

Benjamin Cheever and others requested the city to join them in offering a reward for the discovery of persons who mutilate grave stones, destroy Plants, &c.—laid on the table.

The Board received a notice from the Gas company, of an increase in the price of gas.

Ald. Jenkins alluded to reports in circulation in regard to improper treatment of paupers at the Alms House. In answer, the Mayor stated that he had made particular inquiry respecting those reports and was satisfied that the paupers were never better treated, and that Mr. Scott desired investigation.

Voted, that the Board visit the House to investigate the matter, and that the Overseers be invited to accompany them.

The committee to whom was referred the request of the Firemen for increase of pay, reported that they be allowed $7 per man—making an additional expense of $560—adopted.

LAUNCH.—A fine freighting ship of about 1200 tons, called the "Emily Farnum," will be launched from the yard of George Raynes, Esq. this afternoon at 3 o'clock. She is owned by Messrs. William Jones & Son, Richard Jenness, and Capt. William Parker, who will command her.

☞ Business of importance will come before the Mercantile Library Association this evening. The members are all requested to be present.

CONCORD, June 29.

The House went into ballot at 12 o'clock for U. S. Senator for short term.

First Ballot.—Whole number 310; necessary to a choice 156; Wells, dem. 150; Eastman, whig, 79; Tappan, freesoil, 16; Morrison, dem. 59; Clark, 5; Goodwin, 1. No choice.

Whole number of votes	310	312
Necessary for a choice	156	157
John S. Wells	150	150
Joel Eastman	79	74
Geo. W. Morrison	59	68
M. W. Tappan	16	14
Daniel Clark	5	5
Ichabod Goodwin	1	1

At half past 1 o'clock the House adjourned to 3 o'clock. We have balloted six times, and there are 160 opposition to 150 for Mr. Wells. The democrats have given up all hopes of electing Mr. Wells. The Senate have elected John S. Wells as U. S. Senator, and sent his name down for concurrence. A.

When the train left for this city, the House were debating a motion for choosing a Senator by a viva voce vote.

FELL FROM THE BELFRY.—At Candia, one day last week, a man fell from the belfry of the meeting house, to the ground, a long distance and the report is that he will not recover. He was engaged in painting the house.

CONCERT.—Our citizens and the visitors who remain with us over the anniversary of Independence, will be glad to learn that a Concert will be given at the City Hall, Newburyport, the 5th of July, by Mr. Thompson's Juvenile class, consisting of more than three hundred pupils, assisted by Miss Page and the Opera Class. These concerts have always been very popular here, and always draw overflowing houses.—Newburyport Hld.

In Mrs. Smith's History of Newburyport, it is stated that the first privateer fitted out in the United States during the Revolutionary war, sailed from Newburyport, and was owned by Nathaniel Tracy, Esq. The ships of this gentleman captured 120 sail, amounting to 23,360 tons, from the enemy during the war. These prizes, with their cargoes, were sold for 1,950,000 specie dollars. Of this sum, Mr. Tracy devoted $167,219 to the army and other public demands. With these ships were taken 2,225 men, prisoners of war.

The 'Stars and Stripes,' as the American ensign, were displayed for the first time, in the river Thames, by Capt. Nicholas Johnson, of Newburyport, commander of the ship Count de Grasse.—Herald.

FIRES.—It was stated on Monday that a large quantity of New Hampshire timber land, owned by the great New England lumber operators, had been burnt over. We are authoritatively informed that Fiske & Norcross own 100,000 acres of land in New Hampshire, and that they have not had a single acre burnt over the present season.

Fantastics, Attention!

ALL persons who propose joining in the grand display on the 4th of July, are requested to meet at JEFFERSON HALL, on THIS Evening, June 30, at 7½ o'clock, for choice of officers.

GIFT ENTERPRISES.—Prof. J. Woodman Hart, who has been engaged in getting up a lottery under the name and form of a "gift enterprise," has been arrested in New York for violating the laws against lotteries, and in default of bail in the sum of $50,000, has been committed to prison. The N. Y. Times says the authorities have determined to prosecute with vigor all infringements of the law.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, June 28.

SENATE.—Nothing of interest transpired in the Senate during the morning hour, except a personal altercation between Messrs. Sumner of Massachusetts and Petit of Indiana, in which the words "false, falsehood," etc., were exchanged very freely, relative to the speeches of those gentlemen night before last.

HOUSE.—Mr. Skelton of New Jersey introduced a bill for the better preservation of life and property from shipwrecks on the coast of the United States, which was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill providing for a weekly mail service between the Atlantic states and San Francisco.

Mr. Mace of Indiana said the select committe on steamship frauds will report next week. The Collins line needs overhauling, and a critical examination. After the report shall be submitted, the House will have it in their power to curtail greatly the expenses of the ocean mail service, and give California mails equal facilities to those which now exist between New York and Liverpool, at greatly reduced rates. Mr. Mace said he was not prepared at this time to saddle the government with an additional expense of $250,000 a year for a weekly service, when we are paying almost twice as much for a semi-monthly mail.

Mr. McDougall moved an amendment making it the duty of the Postmaster General to determine any contract to be made, and not as to any existing contract.

PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—The residences of Messrs. Heberton Newkirk, Henry Conrad, and Fred. F. Kneas, on Arch street, above Thirteenth, were damaged by fire this afternoon, resulting from a fire cracker. Two firemen were overcome by the heat, and one is not expected to recover. Another is seriously burnt. The thermometer again reached 97, but a violent thunder storm has cooled the air.

The telegraphic correspondent of the New York Express writes from Washington that Senator Douglas's handsome house in the neighborhood of the capitol was struck by lightning in half a dozen places during the last storm. The fluid tore the plaster from several of the rooms, nine of which it entered, broke sundry windows, chandeliers, and did a good deal of mischief. Mr Douglas, with good humor, said he had been burnt in effigy, hung in effigy, denounced by the clergy, and now struck by lightning.

Dr. Peter Shoenberger, one of the wealthiest men of the State, died at the residence of his son at Marietta, Pa., on Sunday week, in the seventy-second year of his age. He has been long known as "the king" iron master, and his property is estimated to be worth over five millions of dollars.

Amos Livermore, son of Col. Thomas Livermore, of Watertown, met with a singular accident one day last week, which resulted in his death. He was riding on horseback, when from some unknown cause, the horse suddenly reared up, lost his balance and fell backwards on young Livermore, injuring him so severely that he lived but a short time.

The Zanesville (Ohio) Gazette announces that wheat is now selling in that city for $1.75, and adds that many of the citizens remember when it was a dull sale at twenty-five cents per bushel, payable in store goods. Many farmers in Muskingum county have got the whole of last year's crop on hand.

Sagamore House.

FROST'S POINT.

THE subscriber having enlarged and thoroughly refitted the above well known House, announces that he will be ready to receive visitors on the FIRST DAY OF JULY, inst. This House is within 10 rods of salt water, with Sagamore harbor on one side, and the ocean on the other. In plain sight from the house are the city of Portsmouth, (from which it is but 3 miles distant) the harbor of Piscataqua, and seaward, an unobstructed view of the ocean.

The conveniences for bathing, sailing, fishing and fowling, are unequalled.

The situation of this house is considered by those who have visited it, to be unexcelled in beauty by any on the coast.

By prompt and personal attention to the wants of his patrons, he hopes to merit an increased share of public favor.

DR. ORDWAY'S HUMOR DISCOVERY,
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

DR. ORDWAY has been using his Blood Purifier in his practice for the last seven years with great success. He has often been urged by his friends and those who have tried it, and know its efficacy, to put it within the reach of all. He has now added to it an Herb, discovered in California, by Dr. KELLEY, which makes it the most wonderful remedy for
HUMORS OF ALL KINDS,
LIVER COMPLAINTS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

The virtues of this Herb were first made known to Dr. Kelley by an Indian, while attending a patient, sick with that terrible disease, the California Erysipelas and Liver Complaint—the effect was miraculous—curing the man in a few days. The natives, when bitten by a rattles ake, or rabid animal, resort to this Herb for a cure.—Hundreds are taking this medicine, after trying in vain other remedies, and say that the half was never told them.

If you have Erysipelas, 3 to 5 bottles will cure it.
If you have Scrofula, 3 to 7 bottles will cure it.
Three to six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.
One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the Face.
Two or three bottles will cure Scaly Eruptions and Scald Head
One to three bottles will cure Nursing Sore Mouth
One to three bottles will cleanse the system of Biles.
Two to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.
Three to four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.
One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.
One to three bottles will cure Canker in the mouth and bowels.

For Liver Complaints and Jaundice.

Its effects are now wonderful, removing obstructions from the Liver, open the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side, and all-gone feelings of the stomach; and renewing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of this disagreeable and often fatal disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A fair trial will convince you that there is nothing like it.

FOR CANCEROUS HUMORS,

It is the surest remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with Cancer for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.

One gentleman says that it was the only medicine that cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,

It is spoken of in the highest terms. A young man was sick so much with asthma that he had to leave College; three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies. One lady in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Headache, by the use of two bottles. Mr. Williams, of Lawrence, had humors in his eyes for years, and was cured by the use of the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. For Chills and Fever, Mercurial Diseases, Taints in the System, it stands unrivalled; sometimes when the system is disorderanged it will cause disagreeable feelings at first, but continue its use as indications favorable. It is purely vegetable, and its compound and proportions are such that the effect is perfectly satisfactory and safe.

FULL DIRECTIONS ON THE BOTTLE.
☞ Price $1.00. ☜

HE HAS ALSO A HUMOR SALVE,

Unsurpassed for external humors, which, if used in connection with the Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier will much facilitate a cure.

ALL good House-keepers will be glad to hear of an article for the destruction of Bed Bugs, reliable and sure. The Dead Shot is a saturated tincture of a
POISONOUS GUM RESIN,

Which evaporates very slowly, and will not lose its destructive properties for months. One instance is known where Bugs to a LARGE NUMBERS were destroyed by it, where none had been applied later than the previous year. Keepers of Hotels have found that a thorough use of the Dead Shot in every suspicious place, has kept their house free from Bugs for years.

IT IS PUNGENT AND DEADLY.

Apply it to insects it curls them up and lays them out as readily as sulphur fumes kill bees. It is a TRAP READY SET for these noxious tormenters of our nightly rest.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were few who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. which street, New York.

Marble Chimney Pieces.

THE PENRHYN MARBLE is a new and beautiful article, manufactured of Stone imported from England, which is enameled in imitation of of the richest and most expensive Spanish, Galway, Egyptian, Pyronese, Lisbon, Sienna and other rare and desirable kinds of Marble—the imitation being so perfect as to challenge detection without the closest scrutiny. In style of finish these Chimney Pieces stand unequalled, being very highly polished—retaining their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by oils, smoke, coal gas or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have used them. The best of references can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use, the subscriber having furnished some of the best dwelling houses in the city with them during the last two years.

While excelling all others in beauty of finish and appearance, they are sold much cheaper than any thing of the kind in the market. The subscriber has now in Store a complete assortment of the above named desirable Goods, to which he invites the attention of all interested.
